AUSTRIA SAYS U. S. IS ENDANGERING ITS NEUTRALITY

PROTESTS WAR SALES MADE TO THE ALLIES

Austria Acts at Request of Germany and Turkey Will Follow Suit, Says Berlin Dispatch

London, July 15.—A dispatch from Berlin by way of Amsterdam to the Exchange Telegraph company, today says:

"The Austro-Hungarian protest to America is a sequel to the recent conference at Vienna between Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German imperial chancellor, and Gottlieb von Jagow, the German foreign minister, and Baron Stephen Burian von Rajecz, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister.

"The protest was sent at the request of Germany, and Turkey will follow suit.

"The object is to warn America that a rupture of relations with Germany will mean also a rupture with Germany's allies."

The Austro-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs sent a note to the American ambassador at Vienna on June 29, according to a dispatch received in London by Reuter's Telegram company, drawing attention to the fact that commercial business in war material on a large scale was proceeding between the United States and the entente allies, while Autsra-Hungary and Germany were completely cut off from the American market.

The note, it was said, set forth that this subject had occupied the attention of the Austrian government from the very beginning and that although it was convinced that the American attitude rose from no other intention than to observe the strictest neutrality and international agreements, yet it was a question whether conditions as they have developed during the course of the war, were not of such a kind as in their effect to turn "the intentions of the Washington cabinet in a contrary direction."

The note was quoted as saying that a neutral government could not be allowed to trade in contraband unhindered if it took the dimensions whereby the neutrality of the country would be endangered. It was pointed out regarding possible objections, that American industry was willing to supply the central powers with goods, but could not, owing to the war situation; that the United States government was in a position to redress this state of affairs by advising the entente allies that the supply of food stuffs and war material would be suspended "if legitimate trade in these articles between Americans and neutral countries was not permitted."

German officials have openly declared the United States fully within its rights as a neutral in selling war exports to the allies. Austria's representations touch a different phase of the question.

State department officials do not regard the Austrian communication in the nature of a protest and are not yet cer-

NOT REGARDED AS PROTEST.

Washington Not Even Certain Note Requires Reply.

Washington, July 15.—Austria's diplomatic representations that American exports of war munitions to the allies have attained dimensions endangering the neutrality of the United States have been under consideration at the state department since July 1 and so far it has not been determined what reply, if any, the United States will make. The Austrian note delivered to Ambassador Penfield on June 29, probably will not be given out here. It is substantially reported, however, in news dispatches from Vienna.

The Austrian note contends that war exports as "a proceeding of the present war are not on consonance with the definition of neutrality."

It adds that it "would be quite sufficient to advise the enemies of Austria-Hungary and Germany that the supply of foodstuffs and war material would be suspended if legitimate trade in these articles between Americans and neutral countries were not permitted."

German officials have openly declared the United States fully within its rights as a neutral in selling war exports to the allies. Austria's representations touch a different phase of the question.

SHOT WAS NOT AT U. S. FLAG

Berlin Calls Attack on the American Ship "Unfortunate Accident.

Washington, July 15.—Germany, in an official memorandum transmitted today from Berlin by Ambassador Gerard, admits that the American steamer Nebraskan was torpedoed by a submarine, expresses regret and readiness to make reparation, and assures the United States that the attack "was not meant for the American flag but is to be considered an unfortunate accident."

Secretary Lansing made public the German memorandum which disposes of the question whether the Nebraskan was struck by a torpedo or by a mine. The German memorandum closes the incident, it was said, except as to the payment of damages.

Lansing Makes Statement.

The state department made this announcement:

"Ambassador Gerard has telegraphed to the state department the following memorandum from the German foreign office relative to the damaging of the American steamer Nebraskan by a German submarine:

" 'The German government observed from newspapers reports the intelligence that the steamer Nebraskan nad been damaged by a mine or torpedo on the southwest coast of Ireland. It therefore started a thorough investigation of the case without delay and from the result of the investigation it has become convinced that the damage to the Nebraskan was caused by an attack by a submarine.

OIL KING, WORN AND FEEBLE, COMES WEST

Cleveland, O., July 15.—John D. Rockefeller arrived here this morning from Tarrytown, N. Y., to spend the summer at Forest Hill, his Cleveland residence. His trip, which was to have been made prior to his 76th birthday anniversary July 8, was delayed because of the attack by Frank Holt upon J. P. Morgan and consequent fear that Rockefeller might be the object of a similar outrage by a crank.

The oil king was accompanied by Miss Lucy Spellman, sister of the late Mrs. Rockefeller. Mr. Rockefeller looked more worn and feeble than a year ago, but appeared in jovial spirits. Mr. Rockefeller said his stay here would be a "good long one."

The force of guards at Forest Hill has been heavily increased.

Hongkong, July 15.—Tens of thousands of natives are estimated to have been drowned by the floods in the Chinese provinces of Kwantung, Kwangsi and Kiangsi, and the desolation in the devastated districts is terrible according to the latest reports reaching here.

A fire swept area of one mile and raging floods are handicapping the work of rescue at Canton. The city was in darkness last night, the water having inundated the machinery of the electric light plant.

Missionaries have arrived here seeking the assistance of the United States gunboat Callao to aid in the work of rescue. The last report received here from Canton before communication was cut said that the Christian hospital was in danger from fire.

SITUATION IS FRIGHTFUL.

Washington, July 15.—Consul General Anderson at Hongkong reported today that Canton was isolated except to powerful steamers, thousands have been drowned and tens of thousands are taking refuge in high places. Thousands of houses have been burned, American mission property has either been damaged or destroyed, and foreigners are taking refuge at the British consulate at Fu Chow. No Americans have been lost so far as is known.

BISHOP ALERDING HAS PART IN RITE

Chicago, July 15.—The funeral of Archbishop James Edward Quigley, who died last Saturday in Rochester, N. Y., was held here today with high church dignitaries from various parts of the United States and several from foreign countries attending. In the three days since the body was brought here it was estimated that 150,000 persons have joined in paying tribute to the archbishop's memory. Hours before the time for the funeral mass, thousands flocked to the cathedral of the Holy Name.

A procession of more than a thousand priests, led by the celebrants of the solemn high pontifical mass, moved slowly from the parish house to the cathedral.

Cardinal Gibbons and Archbishop Bonzano, papal delegate, occupied the thrones of their respective offices in the church. Archbishop Bonzano celebrated the mass and Archbishop Hanna, of San Francisco, preached the funeral sermon. Among the assistants to Archbishop Bonzano was Bishop Alerding, of Fort Wayne, Ind.

West Virginia Officers Believe They Have Discovered Girl.

Mannington, W. Va., July 15.—The police here believe that an 11-year-old child giving the name of Anna Waltman, who was abandoned early in the week by a band of wanderers consisting of three men and two women, may be Catherine Winters, who was kidnaped from her home in Newcastle, Ind., two years ago. The girl, who tells a disconnected story, says she was stolen at Indianapolis while on her way to a moving picture show. Her photograph has been sent to the Newcastle authorities.

EXPLOSION WRECKS BIG GRAIN ELEVATOR

New York, July 15.—An explosion today wrecked a big grain elevator in Weehawken, across the Hudson river from New York, and severely injured a half dozen men who were working there. The elevator, constructed of steel concrete, belongs to the Westshore Railroad company and it was said the damage would be heavy. The whole upper part of the elevator was torn away.

The police immediately started an investigation to determine whether an explosion of grain dust or a bomb caused the damage. The elevator has been handling much grain for export to Europe since the war began.

FLOODS CONTINUE TO INFLICT HEAVY LOSS

Kansas City, July 15.—Although the sun shone throughout the northwest of Missouri and eastern Kansas today for virtually the first time in a week, overflowing streams which have been menacing lives and causing great property damage, continued their devastation today.

The towns of Rosendale, Agency and Corning, in northwest Missouri, are under water and their inhabitants have fled to the hills. Three miles of the Santa Fe railroad track is washed out.

At Kansas City the Missouri river had reached a stage of 25.1 feet today and predictions were that it would go over 26 feet by tomorrow. The record high water mark here this year was 25 feet. Hundreds of acres of Missouri lowlands were flooded.

SENATOR UNDER KNIFE.

CHARGES AGAINST HUNTSMAN BLOW UP

Bedford, Iowa, July 15.—The case against Bates Huntsman, on preliminary hearing here charged with a part in the murder of Nathaniel Smith, a Missouri cattleman, and his son, in 1876, was dismissed today.

The case was dismissed upon the motion of the attorneys for Huntsman. Attorney General Cosson acquiesced in the motion after the court had refused to admit the evidence of John Derrickson, with reference to Dr. A. E. Goliday, a hermit druggist, in whose house $43,000 of the money alleged to have been taken from the cattleman is said to have been found.

Goliday was one of the men who, according to Mrs. Maria Collins Porter, the state's principal witness, helped carry the body of Nathan Smith past the house of Jonathan Dark to an old well, into which it was thrown.

AUTO HITS HAY WAGON.

Two Injured When Car Crashes Into Hammond Picnic Party.

Hammond, Ind., July 15.—George Mille and George Anderson were seriously injured near here early today when the automobile in which they were riding crashed into a hay wagon which was carrying ten young men and women. The hay wagon was overturned but none of the young people were injured.

PRISON POPULATION GROWS.

Jeffersonville Reformatory Houses Total of 1,123 Inmates.

Jeffersonville, Ind., July 15.—It was announced that there are now 1,123 men in the reformatory here. This is the largest number that has been in the institution at one time since 1910, when 1,299 men were confined.

INJURIES ARE FATAL TO RIDGEVILLE MAN

L. A. Renburger Who Was Knocked from Car at Calhoun Subway Dies.

Luther A. Renburger, aged 30 years, of Ridgeville, Ind., died at 3:30 o'clock Thursday morning at the Lutheran hospital from injuries which he suffered Wednesday night while attempting to board a car near the Calhoun street subway. The accident occurred when Mr. Renburger tried to get on the car at Baker street, but the doors had been closed and he was hanging on the side of the car as it went down grade under the elevation. The first support struck him and he was thrown with violence to the pavement. The car was immediately stopped and the injured man was taken to the Lutheran hospital where death followed.

Mr. Renburger, who had been in Detroit, had just returned from that city and was standing at Calhoun and Baker streets when he saw his niece on the car. The street car had already started down grade when he attempted to get on. He suffered a broken hip, crushed thigh and internal injuries.

The deceased was formerly a conductor on the Pennsylvania railroad and was well known by railroad men in this city. Besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Renburger, he is survived by a daughter, Mildred, aged 6 years, and two brothers and one sister, Alva M. and Ada L. Renburger and Mrs. Ollie Shilling, all of Ridgeville.

The remains were shipped to Ridgeville over the G. R. & I. at noon Thursday by Getz & Cahill.

CONTRACTS AWARDED BY SCHOOL BOARD

Contracts amounting to $2,412.76 were awarded at noon Thursday at a meeting of the board of school trustees in the office of Superintendent J. N. Study for improvements at the McCullough school. An addition will be built in which lavatories will be installed.

The contract for the general carpenter work was awarded to Michael Kinder whose bid was $1,195; the plumbing to Joseph P. Martin & Co., whose bid was $1,197.26 and the wiring to P. B. Arnold, whose bid was $20.50. Work on the improvements will begin at once in an effort to have them completed before the opening of school in September.

Superintendent Study was authorized to purchase two portable school buildings from the American Portable House company, of Seattle, Washington. The two buildings will cost $1,150.

RESIGNATION RUMOR LACKS CONFIRMATION

Cornish, N. H., July 15.—Reports that George T. Marye, American ambassador to Petrograd, had presented his resignation to President Wilson, were lacking in confirmation here today. The president could not be reached directly, but members of his party said that Mr. Marye's resignation had not been received since Mr. Wilson reached Cornish.

President Wilson divided his time today between working, golfing and automobiling. He was out on the golf links early in the morning and afterwards retired to his study to consider official business. He has been absent from Washington during his present trip longer than at aiy other time since becoming president.

OFFICER INSPECTS CO. E. INDIANA N. G.

Captain John Toffey, a United States army officer, arrived in this city Thursday noon for the annual inspection of Company 3, first separate battalion, Indiana National Guard, formerly known as Company D, Third infantry. Thursday afternoon the army officer inspected the armory and the equipment of the local company.

Thursday evening he will inspect the members of the company, beginning at 8 o'clock. This is an important inspection for if the company does not make a passing grade it will be dismissed. The required number of men and officers have, however, been secured, which will be one point in its favor.

FIVE PERSONS INJURED WHEN JITNEY BUS SKIDS.

South Bend, Ind., July 15.—Miss Eva Dills, of Mishawaka, is the most seriously injured of the five persons who were hurt here today when a jitney bus skidded on a slippery pavement and crashed into a tele phone pole. Lawrence Harrison, driver of the car; Herbert Eyneart, Norton Ruple and Thomas Smith are the other injured persons.

NEW SUCCESS FOR GERMANS

Kaiser's Troops Have Taken Town of Przasnysz, in Russian Poland.

NEW ACTIVITY IN EASTERN WAR AREA

Today's War News Given in Summary.

Przasnysz has been taken by the Germans almost at the inception of what appears to be a new drive at Warsaw from the north.

The official statement from Berlin announces the capture and also records successes along the east Prussian frontier to the northeast. The village of Konsya, south of Kolno, has been taken, and the heights of Olszauka, northeast of Suwalki, stormed.

Simultaneously the Germans report the breaking down of attempts by the French to win back lost ground in the Argonne region and the infliction of heavy losses upon the attacking forces.

Paris reports the capture of a line of German trenches north of Arras and the failure of a German attack in the Woevre region. It concedes a German advantage at one disputed point in the Argonne.

Austria has made representations to Washington that this country's exportation of war munitions to the entente allies have reached such dimensions as to threaten the neutrality of the United States.

Berlin, July 15.—Przasnysz, a town of Russian Poland, 50 miles north of Warsaw, has been captured by the German forces, according to an official statement given out today by the German army headquarters staff.

The Germans also announce that they have captured the village of Konsya, to the south of Kolno, and have stormed the heights of Olszauka to the northeast of Suwalki.

The Overseas News agency today says: "The conditions of the surrender of the German forces in Southwest Africa make clear that the German troops numbered 204 officers and 3,094 men (a little more than one regular infantry regiment on a war footing) with seven field pieces and 22 machine guns. This force was matched after prolonged warfare and terrible fatigues against 20,000 men. The bravery of the Germans was admitted by the British, who even permitted non-commissioned officers and privates to keep their side arms and guns.

Among the news items prepared by the Overseas News agency today for transmission abroad by wireless telegraphy was the following: "The Austro-Hungarian government has published a Red Book dealing with the preparedness of Italy for war. It shows that the Italian government received incorrect information from its diplomats who underestimated the preparedness of Austria.

LAST MINUTE NEWS

Washington, July 15.—A train between Vera Cruz and Mexico City has been wrecked by a bomb near Apizaco. The explosion killed and wounded many persons. A cablegram from Vera Cruz to the state department says it is uncertain whether the train left Vera Cruz July 12 or July 13. The railroad has discontinued selling tickets to Mexico City.

WELSH MINERS DEFY GOVERNMENT'S EDICT

London, July 15.—A dispatch from Cardiff to the Central News agency says that the miners' conference by a vote of 180 to 113, decided not to accept the recommendation of the council to return to work. In one district alone 20,000 men struck, defying the government's proclamation and the provisions of the munitions act would be invoked to prevent a cessation of operations. By 10 o'clock it was estimated that upwards of 120,000 men were out in all parts of the Welsh fields.

SEE HOPE OF LABOR PEACE

NEW YORK FACTIONS SEEKING AGREEMENT

With 21,000 Out, More Will Follow if Effort to Settle Fails.

New York, July 15.—With 21,000 workers on men's clothing on strike here, a meeting of committees representing the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America and the American Clothing Manufacturers' association was called for today to prevent a spread of the strike to other cities throughout the country.

Mayer Schonfield, labor adjuster for the clothing manufacturers' association, said there was hope that the further striking could be checked and the present strike settled without additional losses to strikers and manufacturers. Sidney Hillman, president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, said that his organization has been anxious to reach a fair understanding and to avoid a great labor struggle. He added that if necessary the union could call out 80,000 clothing workers in this city to join the strike. Workers on men's pants, knee pants and vests already are on strike.

The labor leaders announced today that 10,000 coat makers had adopted resolutions approving the strike, but would not quit work until after the conference of committees today. Officers of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers said they had received promises from the union leaders in Chicago, Newark, N. J., and elsewhere that a national strike would be called if the contracts held up by the strike here were given out in other cities.

GROWS MORE COMPLICATED.

Bridgeport, Conn., July 15.—With the labor troubles at the great plant of the Remington Arms company rapidly growing more complicated and threatening industrial Bridgeport today turned its eyes hopefully to a conference to be held between Major W. W. Penfield, head of the company, and a committee of the mill wrights' union, in an endeavor to adjust the differences growing out of the company's construction work. Reports are current that the hod carriers, hoisting engineers and members of the sheet metal workers' union will soon go on a sympathetic strike with the structural iron workers unless the troubles are smoothed over. There is also said to be unrest among the machinists in other shops in the city following the announcement that the Remington company had voluntarily made a reduction from a ten to an eight hour day. Predictions are made that other shops will be asked to make similar concessions. In view of a disturbance last night when a laborer was beaten by one of the guards because he stepped over the so-called "deadline" where the construction work is in progress extra precautions have been taken by the company to prevent trouble. Early today the millwrights stationed pickets near the company's buildings.

AWAIT RULING BY HENDRICKS

Thaw Still Prisoner After Jury's Verdict That He is Sane.

New York, July 15.—While awaiting the direction of Supreme Court Justice Hendrick on the question of Harry K. Thaw's sanity, Thaw's counsel had prepared for submission to court today a formal order vacating the original commitment under which he was first sent to Matteawan asylum. Justice Hendrick had promised to receive application for such an order today.

Although a jury yesterday had rendered a verdict declaring that Thaw is now sane, the justice was not necessarily bound to adopt it, as he had ordered that the jury should act only in an advisory capacity.

Thaw and his counsel had little doubt that the justice's decision would be in accord with the verdict of the jury. In the event of such a decision counsel for the state were ready to give notice of an appeal and to ask that Thaw be held in bail pending decision by a higher court.

Still a Prisoner.

Thaw spent the night, still a prisoner, in Ludlow street jail.

Justice Hendrick, on Friday morning, will announce whether the commitment upon which Thaw was incarcerated in the state hospital for the criminal insane at Matteawan shall be vacated, thereby giving to the slayer of Stanford White the liberty for which he has fought in the courts for nine years.

It was at the end of a day of addresses by counsel and the charge of the justice that the jury retired. While the twelve men were deliberating the crowd in the court room and about the court house was augmented by scores of people who believed that a verdict quickly would be found.

When Jury Came In.

Shortly before 4 o'clock the jury came in.

"Gentlemen of the jury," said the clerk, after Justice Hendricks had read the verdict, "the question you have been asked is this: 'Is Harry K. Thaw now sane?' Your answer is yes."

Despite the warning, several persons stood up in front of their seats. The court room hummed like a dynamo. Justice Hendrick and court attaches rapped for order.

Thaw, who until the verdict was announced sat at the counsel table with his chin resting in a handkerchief, had turned around and grasped the hand of several of his counsel.

Thaw Kisses Mother.

Then he went to where his mother was sitting a few feet away and, throwing his arms about her neck, kissed her twice. Mrs. Thaw at the same time patted her daughter, Mrs. George L. Carnegie, on the shoulder.

The verdict recorded, John B. Stanchfield, chief counsel for Thaw, made a motion that the commitment signed by Justice Dowling following a verdict of not guilty on the ground of insanity, which was returned by the jury at Thaw's second trial for the murder of White, be vacated. Justice Hendrick then set 11 o'clock today as the time when he would receive briefs and hear arguments in his chambers upon the motion to dismiss the commitment. The jury was discharged and then court adjourned.

As soon as the jury was dismissed Thaw crossed to the box and shook hands warmly with each of the men. His mother also shook hands with the jurymen, saying to each:

"Thank you so much for all that you have done." One of the jurors asked her whether she had ever had any doubt of the result of this proceeding. Mrs. Thaw smiled and replied in the negative.

The jury and Thaw then filed into a room adjoining the court where photographers were waiting. It was with great difficulty that court attendants and deputy sheriffs prevented scores of men and women from dashing up to Thaw in the court room and the anteroom and shaking his hand in congratulation of his legal victory.

Demonstration for Thaw.

When Thaw, flanked by deputy sheriffs, appeared in the doorway of the court house a great cheer went up and those who did not cheer applauded with their hands. Thaw seemed much pleased at the demonstration.

In explaining why two ballots were taken one of the jurors, Paul J. Marks, a brother of the president of the borrough of Manhattan, said that on the first ballot the vote was eleven to one that Thaw was sane. The dissenting juror said that he cast his ballot that way more as a matter of form than anything else, so that the verdict would not be rendered without formal discussion. The vote was unanimous on the second ballot.

Mr. Marks also said that he and the other members of the jury believed that Thaw was eccentric and, possibly, mentally weak, but that they did not believe that he would harm any one else.

THE STORE THAT DOES THINGS

DEAF!

HEAVY RAIN STORM DOES MUCH DAMAGE

Another storm visited Allen county, Wednesday night, but fortunately the damage was not so great as on former occasions. The rain fell in torrents for several hours, accompanied by much wind and lightning.

Several long distance telephone lines were put out of commission and the telegraph companies also had some trouble in establishing communication with outside cities. Many acres of hay had been cut and was down, the farmers taking advantage of the warm weather Monday and Tuesday. As a result many fields of hay were damaged. Some little damage also was done to the standing wheat.

In many sections of the city the catch basins were unable to accommodate the downpour of rain and many of them became clogged and backed up. Several cellars and gardens were flooded in the 200 block on East Leith street. At Berry and Calhoun streets the water stood almost a foot deep.

GIRL INDICTED FOR SLAYING HER MOTHER

Noblesville, Ind., July 15.—Miss Inez Burk was indicted by the Hamilton county grand jury last night, charged with manslaughter for the killing of her mother, Mrs. Archie McClain, Sunday, July 4.

Judge Vestal announced that the trial of Miss Burk probably would be started next Saturday. A brief trial is expected, as most of the evidence is admitted, the girl having made a complete confession of the killing.

Franklin Taylor, 17, the girl's sweetheart, who was arrested with her at Pekin, Ill., after their flight from this city, was released from the county jail upon recommendation of the grand jury, which found that there was no evidence connecting him with Mrs. McClain's death.

STOLEN JEWELS COME BACK.

Receipt of Box by Mail Adds to Indiana Robbery Mystery.

Greenfield, Ind., July 14.—Five or six years ago, the home of Fred Williams, in Jackson township, was entered while the family was away, and a small box of jewelry was stolen. Last week Williams received a package by parcel post which contained the stolen box and every piece of the stolen jewelry. Neatly folded in the box were three new $1 bills. There was no word of explanation.

RETIRING OFFICERS HONORED.

A smoker was given by the members of Vorwaerts Turnverein Wednesday evening in honor of the officers who have been at the head of the organization for the past twelve months. The affair was given at Turner hall following the regular monthly meeting. On Wednesday evening, June 21, the annual meeting and election of officers will take place.

STEVENS NEW HEAD OF MYSTIC SHRINE

Seattle, Wash., July 15.—Today brought to a close the business session of the 41st council of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. The most important matter to come before it is the selection of an imperial outer guard, for which position nine nobles have announced their candidacy.

J. Putnam Stevens, of Portland, Maine, imperial deputy potentate during the last year, is advanced by the council to imperial potentate and the other members of the imperial divan assume their numerous offices. In the selection of a place for next year's meeting, Buffalo appears to be most favord.

The imperial council established new temples in four cities—Fort Worth, Texas; Springfield, Ill.; Houston, Texas, and Knoxville, Tenn., and granted a dispensation, not immediately effective, to Roanoke, Va. A parade of visiting temples and a drill by the Indianapolis team were the features of yesterday's program.

MILK NOW FAVORITE DRINK.

New York, July 15.—Milk is becoming the favorite drink of residents of New York and the number of licensed saloons here is decreasing, according to the statisticians of the health department. They announced today that the consumption of milk in this city had increased 50 per cent. in ten years and that the daily average per capita in the borough of Manhattan is 3.63 gills.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

A COUNTRY SURPRISE.

Columbia City, Ind., July 15. At the beautiful country home of Wm. Berry in Jefferson township, a beautiful surprise was given Miss Luella Berry, it being her 16th birthday. It was a double surprise, as it was Luella's Uncle Ivan Swaidner's 38th birthday too. The table in the diningroom was nearly loaded with flowers and the porch was lit with Japanese lanterns. The young people enjoyed out door sports while the older ones had their share of fun. At a late hour ice cream and cake were served. Those that enjoyed the evening were Misses Hattie and Irene Taylor, Gertrude, Alice and Ino Robinette, Florence Shinbeckle, Goldie Harshbarger, Lake Bozworth, Bessie Pequignot and Luella Berry and Russel and Harry Taylor, Ralph Shinbeckle, Russell Plummer, Elva Cowan and Lawrence Bridge, Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Robinette, George Hatfield, Oran Swaidner and daughter, Lucile, Clarence Robinette and children, Marjorie and Robert, Clinton Robinette and daughters, Dorothy, Ferne and Florence, J. W. Berry and son, Everette and Philip Long. Miss Luella and Mr. Swaidner received many pretty and useful gifts. All departed at the small hours of morning wishing both many more happy birthdays.

ALBION MINISTER RESIGNS.

Albion, Ind., July 15. Rev. C. S. Bream, pastor of the Albion Lutheran charge composed of St. Mark's of this place, Rehobeth and Mt. Pleasant churches, has resigned to accept a call to the Lutheran church at Middlebury, Ind. His resignation becomes effective August 1. Rev. Mr. Bream has been pastor of the local circuit for nearly three years. Under his leadership the congregations have been prosperous and have been considerably enlarged. He is a young man of pleasing personality and has been tireless in his efforts. The new pastorate is a distinct promotion.

SUES DOCTOR FOR $5,000.

Huntington, Ind., July 15.—Mae B. Kreig in a suit filed here yesterday on a change of venue from the Wabash circuit court asks $5,000 damages from Dr. George L. Shoemaker, of North Manchester, accusing him of malpractice. She alleges that she consulted the physician for treatment of a pimple on her right thigh on April 7, 1913, but that due to his negligence she was kept in bed six weeks and then was taken to a hospital in Fort Wayne for an operation and remained there seven weeks during which time her life was despaired of. On her return home she declares the doctor was careless in bandaging the wound and an infection again set in which forced her to the hospital. She said she must take medicine for the remainder of her life because of the careless handling of the disease.

IS NOW PRACTICING LAW.

Columbia City, Ind., July 15.—Mark Archer, a son of Mrs. Josiah Archer, of Thornecreek township, has been admitted to the bar and he is a member of the firm of Zechiel, Archer & Brennan, with offices at 404-6 Lemcke building, Indianapolis. Their announcement card reads: "Chester L. Zechiel, Mark E. Archer and E. P. Brennan announce that they have formed a partnership for the general practice of law." Mr. Archer has worked in the state house at Indianapolis for several years in the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction Greathouse, and this position has enabled him to familiarize himself with legal practice as well as with the way in which business in the state house is conducted.

WARSAW CAR DISAPPEARS.

Warsaw, Ind., July 15.—All trace of a 1914 model Saxon auto which mysteriously disappeared from Dr. Richer's garage in the rear of the Jack Glessner property has been lost, the car being stolen some time between 10:30 Tuesday night and 7 o'clock Wednesday morning. Chief Moon has been in communication with the police of a number of cities within a radius of forty miles of Warsaw, but as yet no car answering the description of Dr. Richer's has been found in the hands of suspicious persons.

CLAIMS HE IS POET; LOCKED UP.

Waterloo, Ind., July 15.—Officers Poorman and Vaughn locked up a man Tuesday night who acted strangely on the streets and claimed that he was a poet and lecturer, that he was a student studying nature as he traveled over the country. He reached Waterloo Tuesday forenoon and during the afternoon worked for Eugene Kelley in the harvest field just east of town. In the evening he seemed to be very talkative to any audience that he could get to listen to him. He was harmless, but simply had a hobby to talk. He gave his name as Halson Lester, of Nappa, Idaho. He said that he was 57 years of age.

WELLS COUNTY SHERIFF HURT.

KINDNESS IS REWARDED.

Montpelier, Ind., July 15.—Jack Winnings, Montpelier pool room proprietor, is $600 richer today because of the fact that he treated Robert Harton, aged Montpelier man, kindly during Harton's period as an employe of Jack. The latter not only cared for Harton well while he was living, but also gave him a decent burial recently. Today Harton's will was probated in the circuit court and it was found that he had left $900 to Winnings. The estate consists of money on deposit in the Farmers' Deposit bank, of Montpelier. No one knew he had the money. Mr. Winnings spent $300 on Harton's burial.

OVERCOME BY THE HEAT.

Warsaw, Ind., July 15.—Ernest Hughes, son of Link Hughes, of West Market street, suffered a heat stroke while painting at Phillipson's clothing store on Buffalo street and for a time was in a critical condition. He was taken to the office of Dr. McDonald and soon revived sufficiently to be taken home, where he is resting easier today. Mr. Hughes was working upon a swinging stage when he became faint.

VAN WERT COUNTY MAN DIES.

Van Wert, O., July 15.—Jacob Mosier, aged 83 years, died at his home in Hoaglin township suddenly Tuesday morning at an early hour. The deceased was born in Ohio and for many years resided in Hoaglin township. He is survived by his wife and several children. Funeral services were held at Fairview United Brethren church this morning at 10 o'clock sun time. Rev. E. F. Famble preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in Ridge cemetery.

KILLED IN WISCONSIN AFFRAY.

Montpelier, Ind., July 15.—Word has been received here by friends of the tragic death of George Stockton, a former baker in this city. Stockton was working in a bakery in Wisconsin when he got into a quarrel with another man over an instrument. The other man drew a gun and fired at Stockton, the bullet passing through the body and lodging in the backbone. An operation performed to save the young man's life was not a success.

MONTPELIER MAN INJURED.

Montpelier, Ind., July 15.—John Phillips, section boss for the Indiana Union Traction, was bruised about the head and shoulders when he was struck by an automobile driven by Mrs. A. G. Nicholson, and knocked to the pavement. The injured man was taken to his home in a dazed condition. The injuries will not prove serious.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY PLANNED.

Hartford City, Ind., July 15.—A meeting will be held at the public library next Friday evening for the purpose of organizing a historical society in this county. County Superintendent N. C. Townsend and the Hon. B. G. Shinn, the latter one of the pioneers of Hartford City, are behind the movement.

PAPER CUPS FOR PINK LEMO.

New Order of Things at Street and County Fairs in Indiana.

Indianapolis, July 15.—The paper cup this year will supplant the glass tumbler as the vehicle of the street and county fair beverages to the general public, because of an order just issued by H. E. Barnard, state food and drug commissioner, to all "privilege" men at Indiana fairs. These men are warned not to rent space at any fair or exhibition to lunch and beverage stands unless all sales of lemonade, cider and other beverages are made in paper cups.

The letter follows:

"We are having more difficulty in regulating the sanitation of lunch and beverage stands than any other class of dealers of foods. The men who work the fairs are poorly equipped, careless and irresponsible.

"Will you advise all who apply for space at your fair that they will not be allowed to sell lemonade, cider or other beverages unless they are prepared to serve each customer in a paper cup. Glass tumblers will not be allowed.

"All foodstuffs must be thoroughly protected all the time. Candies and crackerjack, etc. must not be made on the grounds.

"State inspectors and local health officers are instructed to see that these orders are rigidly enforced."

KICKS ON LOWERED TAX.

Columbus Man Says He Wants to Do Square Thing on Assessment.

Columbus, Ind., July 15.—John H Strictelmeier, of this city, went before the Bartholomew county board of review and protested against having the value of his real estate lowered by the township assessor. He protested against paying less for taxes than he now pays. Strictelmeier desired money from the school fund some time ago and school fund loans must be secured by a certain amount of real estate. The auditor negotiated the loan and the value of Strictelmeier's land, as surety for the loan, was fixed.

Now the assessor has come along and lowered the value of the land. Strictelmeier thought about this and came to the conclusion that the county was not as amply protected as it was when he first borrowed the money. He said he wished to do the square thing by the county and although he was not in love with the idea of paying high taxes when he could have them lowered, he was perfectly willing to do so if that was the right thing to do. The board has not yet acted on his request.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

Genesis 42:29-38.

29 And they came unto Jacob their father unto the land of Canaan, and told him all that befell unto them; saying,

30 The man, who is the lord of the land, spake roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country.

31 And we said unto him, We are true men; we are no spies:

32 We be twelve brethren, sons of our father; one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.

33 And the man, the lord of the country, said unto us, Hereby shall I know that ye are true men; leave one of your brethren here with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and be gone:

34 And bring your youngest brother unto me; then shall I know that ye are no spies, but that ye are true men; so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall traffick in the land.

35 And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that, behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack: and when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

36 And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have ye bereaved of my children; Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away; all these things are against me.

37 And Reuben spake unto his father saying, Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again.

38 And he said, My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he is left alone; if mischief befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

Federal Trade Board Plans

The federal trade commission, designed as a governmental aid to American industry, has after many months practically completed its organization and has given out something of its plans for handling the big task which it will set out to accomplish. Briefly, the commission has shifted its machinery into four departments, one to be known as the administrative, another as the economic, the third as the legal department, and the fourth as a board of review.

The administrative branch will work under the immediate supervision of the secretary to the commission, who has not yet been appointed. It will handle all matters of administration. The economic department will be placed in charge of a trained economist who will be known as the chief economist of the commission. It will have charge of all economic investigations, as well as corporation reports. Various divisions will be created in it to handle the various lines of work which will come before it. An economic board of review will finally pass on all questions in the department before they will be submitted to the commission. The legal department, under a chief counsel, will attend to investigations, hearings and court work. A board of law review will pass finally on all legal questions. The work of the economic and legal departments will be co-ordinated in a joint board of review, which will pass upon cases after both departments have submitted reports. Through the division of corporation reports in the economic deparment the commission hopes to develop an information bureau for business men which will aid in building up American industry..

The federal trade commission is apparently going to be either a tremendously useful adjunct to the development of American trade and industry, or a most conspicuous failure. It is going to require the test of actual operation to determine just which of these results is to be the outcome. In its functions it is quite unlike any other governmental creation, and it must map out a new and untried pathway. If it can make good on half the program outlined by its sponsors, it will serve a splendid purpose in aiding American business.

While under the New York law in such cases it appears that the court is entitled to the last guess, the finding of the jury declaring that Harry Thaw is now sane is unquestionably in accord with popular impression regarding that troublesome young man who has been waging a remarkable fight for his freedom for the past nine years. Indeed, it is doubtful if he ever was insane despite the fact that on three separate occasions authorities solemnly found to that effect. The slaying of Stanford White was a crime which cried for punishment, and it may be that nine years spent for the most part in jails and insane asylums will be accounted as sufficient atonement. It is clear that Thaw cannot again be held for murder, and it is reasonably clear that there is little substantial grounds for longer holding him on the ground that he is insane. Taking it for granted that he will be released, it is fortunate that the Thaw millions are still holding out. Otherwise the long-suffering public might reasonably expect to see her husband follow the example of the angel child and seek to adorn the vaudeville stage.

Under his new contract which has just been signed for a period of two years, Superintendent William Wirt, of the Gary schools, a few years ago similarly engaged at Bluffton, will receive a total salary of $18,500 per annum, making him very nearly the highest-salaried public school official in the United States. Of this sum the city of Gary pays $6,000, and permits Mr. Wirt to devote one day each month as advisory superintendent of the schools at Troy, N. Y., at an annual salary of $2,500, and one week each month to the New York City schools, for which he receives $10,000 a year. It was Superintendent Wirt who evolved what has come to be known as the "Gary idea" in school work, and the salary he is now receiving must go a considerable distance toward confirming Gary's suspicion that it is a mighty fine thing.

Whether or not, like Cincinnatus, he was actually dragged from the plow by the clarion call of his country, it was necessary for the Tenth district republicans to send a band out to the farm of Warren T. McCray, near Kentland, to escort him in to tell the cheering populace that he would be glad to have the republican nomination for governor in Indiana next year. Altogether, it was a rather fetching bit of stagecraft, and Mr. McCray's supporters will doubtless not fail to make the most of the scenic embellishments surrounding the stunt when the proper time arrives.

Apparently the last word regarding a man's "visible means of support" has now been heard. An Indianapolis father, arrested for failure to provide for his three minor children, told the court that he had a job in a saloon "playing cards for the house." Doubtless he will forthwith be strongly envied by that rather large element in his particular social strata which insists that some other fellow always has all the good luck in this world.

MR. EDISON'S SERVICES.

(Indianapolis News.)

Those who read the remarkably sensible statement of Mr. Edison, given to the public a few weeks ago, will be glad to know that he is to be closely associated with the government in the work of organizing its defensive forces. Mr. Daniels, secretary of the navy, proposes to organize a new board, whose duty shall be to test the value of new inventions and processes, and to conduct experiments, and he has invited Mr. Edison to act as adviser to the board. In other words, the idea of the secretary is to utilize to the utmost the science of the nation, and to bring it directly to bear in a practical way. Mr. Edison has accepted the offer.

The question of national defense is, not simply one of men, money, supplies and equipment—it is also one of intelligence and technical skill. This is recognized by Mr. Daniels. As a result, it is highly probable that those in charge of the navy will be more hospitable to new ideas than some of them have hitherto been. Under the inspiration of Mr. Edison there ought to be a great advance, as no doubt there will be. The work to be done will be chiefly in connection with the navy, since the new board is to be attached to the navy department. It is believed also that much attention will at the start be given to submarine construction. As war is becoming more and more scientific, it is necessary that the best scientific ability be put at the service of the government. Electricity and chemistry will play an increasingly large part in war.

The plan that is to be put in operation by Secretary Daniels is worthy of all praise. It involves the employment of Mr. Edison in work for which he is pre-eminently fitted, and also opens the way to the freest use of civilian experts generally. And that will be very good for the navy department, which is always in danger of falling under control of cliques. The influences that will be brought to bear on it from the outside will have an excellent effect. The program is admirable in every way.

THE PHONE IN POLITICS.

(Pittsburgh Dispatch.)

The New York suffragists threaten to add a new terror to the telephone by putting it in politics. They have selected July 25 as "Telephone Day," when each suffragist in the state is to pledge herself to call up at least two men and solicit their vote for suffrage.

The plan possibly originated with some fair would-be-voter whose experience in telephonic conversation with the voting sex has been of the sweet and prolonged character that causes so many lines to be busy when you are in a hurry. Certainly the women who have planned this means of reaching the voters can have had little experience in being gruffly rebuffed over the wire. If they had they would know that the 'phone will probably be a very poor way of winning adherents to the cause. Many men who are the essence of politeness personally are as likely as not to be perfect bears on the phone. And then there is always the handy expedience of "hanging up" to shut off unwelcome importunity.

Of course, this estimate may do the men an injustice. They may be just as eager to dally over the phone as to exchange courtesies face to face. In fact, outside the effect it may have on the fortunes of the suffragist campaign in New York state there will be a general curiosity to learn how it works. If the women make a success of it every voter's phone may hereafter be doomed to bombardment by candidates—a terrifying thought.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

What The Sentinel Had to Say About Persons and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

S. W. Harman and family will occupy a cottage at Rome City next week.

Theodore F. Thieme was in the city today from Clear Lake, where he has just completed a handsome cottage.

Byron E. Hattersley and family have moved from 166 East Berry street to their new residence on East Main street.

Alfred Grindle, an architect, has arrived in the city from Albany, N. Y., to accept a position with Wing & Mahurin.

Peter H. Pernot, formerly of this city, has taken a reportorial position on the Indianapolis Sentinel.

The Lagrange Democrat prints in full the brilliant Fourth of July oration delivered in that city by Hon. Walpole G. Colerick, of Fort Wayne.

John Abel, a graduate of the law department of Michigan university this year, has rented an office on Court street and will establish himself in practice here.

C. H. Newton, of the local offices of the Wabash railroad, was elected treasurer of the National Association of Local Freight Agents at the convention in Detroit.

August Bruder has ordered special furnishings for his elegant new jewelry store that is to be located in the corner storeroom of the new Odd Fellows' building at Calhoun and Wayne streets.

Treasurer Frank E. Stouder, of the Temple theater, says that the amusement season in Fort Wayne the coming season will be unusually brilliant. He has already booked numerous star attractions, including Jefferson and Florence.

Col. John Lee has filed in the county records a map of his new railroad, the New York, Fort Wayne & Chicago road, as it passes through Allen county. The map shows the road coming along the Catholic cemetery highway, through Lakeside addition, crossing the St. Joe river this side of the electric light and power station and proceeding on west in a straight line just north of the Nickel Plate track through Bloomingdale and the Brookside farm.

Miss Esther Wiseman, of Fort Wayne, is spending a few weeks in this vicinity, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. William Crawford and family.

A deal was consummated here whereby Armstrong Bros. disposed of their grocery store on South Main street. The purchaser being I. D. King, of Payne, Ohio.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Seipman, of North Yakima, Wash., who are visiting in this locality, gave them quite a surprise Monday. They, in company with their daughter Wilma, and Mrs. Jessie Hook, had planned to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Wash Tustison. The friends learning of it, concluded to join the gathering. The day was pleasantly spent and highly enjoyed by all. About sixty persons were present. Mrs. Seipman will be better known by the name of Miss Connie Drehr, her childhood days having been spent here.

William Crawford, who has been an invalid for several weeks, has so far recovered as to be able to be up again.

Miss Lucelle Doering has as her guest this week Miss Helen Swope, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. Edward Armstrong went to Paulding Tuesday, where she will attend to the arrangements of their furniture, which is being moved to that place, as the family will soon reside there, Mr. Armstrong having received the appointment of deputy auditor under his brother.

Miss Minnie and Abbie Smith were members of an auto party that visited Payne Wednesday evening, where they spent a very enjoyable evening with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James Chorpening are entertaining their grandson, John Milton Zuber, son of John W. Zuber, president of the American National Insurance company, of Columbus, Ohio.

Sherman Bell, who lived here away back when the natives indulged in the pleasant diversion of "taking a few hours off each day for the "chills and fever," is spending a short time here again. Sherm says there has been some changes taken place since he left here twenty-seven years ago.

E. V. Gordon was a passenger to the Summit City Tuesday.

Mrs. Hugh Brown, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Hudson, were among the passengers from this place to Fort Wayne Tuesday.

Avery Ellsworth, a resident here in the "uncut days," but who has been sojourning in the far west the past twenty-five years, arrived here Tuesday evening from North Dakota and says he has now come back to stay.

Mrs. William Filley, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Carl Smith, were passengers to Fort Wayne Wednesday.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

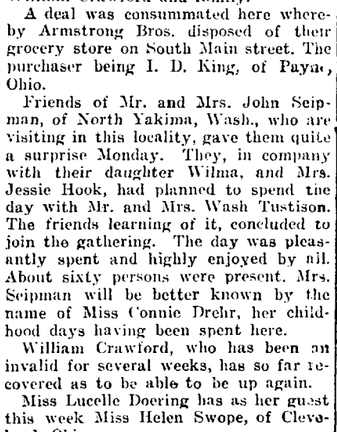
American Girl Was Held as Spy



Miss Bernice Barnett, of San Francisco, who was believed by the Germans to be an English spy and who was detained at Warnemunde on the Baltic coast until her effects had been minutely examined before being allowed to depart for Copenhagen.

Miss Barnett has studied music in Leipzig and Berlin for several years, and shortly after the outbreak of the war had a harrowing experience in the former city when her apartment was raided by a mob who believed her a Russian. Acquaintances saved the girl from molestation.

The German officers at Warnemunde were finally convinced that their suspicions had been unfounded.

ON ACCOUNT of the unsanitary features of dry surface closets, the Board of Health in many cities have prohibited its use.

MERCHANTS ARE IN DANGER.

Store Accidents Are Frequent.

ALTHOUGH accident insurance companies consider retail merchants and salesmen as especially good risks, it is shown by the records of the Fort Wayne Mercantile Accident Association that many business men and their employes have received accidental injuries while performing their everyday duties.

"One of our policy holders at Columbus, Ind., George N. Imel, was helping a clerk to move a stove in his hardware and furniture store," says L. H. Ransom, secretary of the Mercantile, "and the stove started to topple over and roll down a stairway. In trying to save it, Mr. Imel fell and had two of his ribs broken.

"Another case was that of Thomas C. Wright, a Greensburg, Ind., druggist, who mashed a couple of fingers while wrestling with a barrel of chemicals.

"Over at Valparaiso, Ind., W. J. McFarland, another merchant, while opening a case of toys, slipped and fell and suffered severe injuries.

"James M. Devine, employed as a clerk in a grocery store at Wabash, Ind., fell off a chair while lifting some goods from a high shelf and suffered injuries on account of which we paid him $107.

"Up at Angola, Ind., J. F. Grass, while cleaning an electrically-driven coffee mill in the grocery department of the Steifel & Sons store, caught his finger in the gearings, with disastrous results.

"We have a large number of merchants in our membership, but we are certain that every Fort Wayne business and professional man who is not yet identified with the Mercantile should join us at this time. Our rates are low and the protection the very best."

WOMAN LIKES HER RECRUITING JOB

Mrs. A. E. Henley Tells of Her Experiences to Win Soldiers.

London, June 30.—Correspondence of the Associated Press. Mrs. A. E. Henley, a prominent Red Cross worker both at home and at the front since the beginning of the war, has been in charge of the woman's section of the latest recruiting campaign in London, speaking daily at from five to a dozen meetings, although she was invalided home from France only a few weeks ago. She is said to have several hundred recruits to her credit.

"I like the work," she said, speaking of her campaign. "I have addressed meetings in practically every section of London during the past fortnight. I simply speak freely on topics within my own experience. What impresses me more than anything else is the intelligent interest displayed by the crowds of people who assemble round the different platforms. People will stand for two hours at a time to hear things about what has been going on in France, and their questions show knowledge and intelligence. They show feeling, too, and they sometimes weep. The lower classes are keenly interested in the issues of the war. Where men of the right sort hold back, I think the reason is often the fear that their places may be filled by other men, by slackers. Often 'government employ' is the answer to my question, 'Why don't you join?'

"What rouses crowds more than anything else is a sporting allusion. I often plead my cause in similes taken from the race track. 'Take your fences squarely,' I tell them, 'and if you come a cropper, get up and go on again.' Always I tell them plenty of stories from my personal repertory. And never without response."

BLIND TIGERS FLOURISH?

Reports from Lake Wawasee Arouse Kosciusko Temperance People.

Goshen, Ind., July 15. Although Kosciusko county is without saloons, complaints have reached the authorities that blind tigers are flourishing at Lake Wawasee, and that liquor is being sold there in great quantities to summer resorters. The temperance forces of Warsaw are arranging to employ detectives to gather evidence. While prosecutions on blind tiger charges have been made against Syracuse offenders, Lake Wawasee has until this time escaped attention. It is said the violations are so open that any person at the lake has little difficulty in getting beer, whisky and wine in any quantity.

SHE TELLS PLANS OF SUFFUAGE HOSTS

Miss Stevens Urges Demand Not Pleading to Secure Vote.

Miss Doris Stevens.

The suffrage states themselves have the power to pass a constitutional amendment enfranchising women, contends Miss Stevens.

"We ask so little of the women of the free states, the suffrage states," she asserted, "simply to stand by women regardless of political entanglements.

"Leaders of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage"—among whom Miss Stevens has a prominent place—have called this great exposition convention of women voters together, not to educate women voters, because they are already better educated than the men as a rule; not to secure legislation by begging from the men, but to devise a plan of action among the voting women.

"We are doing the political and the obvious thing by coming west where the power is."

Miss Stevens leaped into the limelight practically over night as an organizer. Her rallying cry has been to enfranchised women in behalf of those not yet "free." Still in her early twenties, she has never asked for easy tasks.

Born in Nebraska, she taught school in wildest Montana; did settlement work at a congested vacation camp; trained as a tenement inspector, and had other experiences which determined her belief that the world needs women instead of politicians in high places. She wants things changed, and changed quickly.

"We are," she said, "only asking the women of the west to assist congress in catching up with public opinion. We think it's time an eighteenth century problem was put out of the way for good instead of cluttering up the twentieth century.

"The Congressional union is simply asking the United States to do what every civilized nation in the world has done: Consider the political enfranchisement of women in their legislative bodies.

"Why, there wasn't a nation last year whose congress had not considered this question, except the United States and Turkey!"

OLD PLANKS UNEARTHED.

They Were Laid on Michigan Road Constructed in 1828-30.

Logansport, Ind., July 15.—Excavators in a gas main in Biddle avenue, in this city, have uncovered a number of planks of the old Michigan road built in 1828-30, which passed through Logansport from Michigan City to the Ohio river, by way of Indianapolis. The heavy oak scantlings are in fair condition, and a number of them, split open by the workmen's picks, showed stout centers apparently capable of withstanding decay for another eighty-five years. The road through this city and where the gas mains are being laid on Biddles island, is being put in condition for the Dixie highway.

AUTOMOBILE WRECKED.

An automobile belonging to the Wehmeyer Auto Sales company, of Elwood, was badly damaged Wednesday on the Leo road, two and one-half miles from this city. The driver, whose name was not learned, swerved to one side to avoid striking the automobile of George C. Greibel, 1219 Taylor street, and plunged into a ditch and overturned. None of the occupants of the car were injured.

RIGHT THIS MINUTE HE'S FOR JOHNSON

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 15.—Just now Theodore Roosevelt is favorable to the nomination of Hiram W. Johnson of California as the Progressive party's candidate for president in 1916. This does not mean that he is irrevocably committed to the plan of nominating Johnson. Political situations change and plans must be changed to meet new emergencies. That is the Colonel's idea about it.

Dwight Hurd of Arizona has written to Roosevelt urging him to endorse Johnson for the Progressive nomination. Roosevelt has replied, expressing his admiration for Johnson and his agreement that Johnson would be an excellent man for the presidential office, but setting out his further conviction that the present is not the time to come forward with personal endorsements of any candidate. Colonel Roosevelt takes the ground that the course to be pursued by the progressive party may depend considerably on that pursued by the republican party. If the latter puts up a man like Root or Weeks and announces a platform like that put out by Mark Hanna for McKinley, the duty of putting a progressive party candidate in the field some man like Hiram Johnson would be obvious. On the other hand, should the party learn a lesson by its late experiences, and name a forward-looking man of the Cummins type on a platform embodying the essential principles of the progressive platform and adequate military preparedness, the colonel undoubtedly feels although he does not say so that it might become unnecessary to name a progressive candidate.

At this stage of the game, Colonel Roosevelt does not proposed to be forced into the position of having committed himself to any particular candidate of any particular party. He proposes to hold himself entirely free to act when the time comes as he thinks will best advance the cause of Progressivism, and what he now regards as of paramount importances the national defense.

At the present time, however, in view of the apparent complete determination of the old Republican party leaders to have a thoroughly reactionary candidate and platform, it appears to Roosevelt almost inevitable that the Progressives name Hiram Johnson as their presidential candidate. Should the situation change, however, the Colonel does not propose to lay himself open to a charge of having "betrayed" his friend Johnson. This is in entire accord with Johnson's own position. The latter is holding himself free to be a candidate or not as the circumstances at the time seem to warrant. The colonel is enroute to the Pacific coast where he will make several speeches and will confer with Johnson at San Francisco.

Philadelphia's noted old St. Elmo hotel has been demolished. It was opened in 1851.

Blindfolded Tire Buyers

Tires which seem identical are often most unlike. There are dozens of standards. The fierce competition compels many a compromise, affecting what you seek.

Features Which Cost Millions

Goodyear Fortified Tires have five great features found in no other tire. They have others which are rare—hidden features, never missed until the tire meets trouble.

GOODYEAR AKRON, OHIO Fortified Tires No-Rim-Cut Tires—"On-Air" Cured With All-Weather Treads or Smooth

These Goodyear extras, on this year's output, will cost us $1,635,000. Our 1915 improvements alone will cost us $500,000 yearly. And nearly all for things you never see—things you never miss until the tire falls down.

Yet our late price reduction saves our users about five million dollars this year. And that was our third reduction in two years, totaling 45 per cent.

How to Judge

Judge tires by the maker. Judge them by known features. Each exclusive Goodyear feature combats a major trouble.

Judge, above all, by records. Not by mere good luck or mishap, but by Tiredom's general verdict. In its 16th year the Goodyear tire far outsells any other. It has outsold for years.

By any measure you can use, Goodyear tires are best. Adopt them. Any dealer will supply you.

PLANS HEBREW INSTITUTE.

Evansville Rabbi to Create Social Center for Jewish People.

Evansville, Ind., July 15.—Some time before fall it is expected that ground will be broken for the new Hebrew institute, in Vine street, next to the Temple Adath Israel. The institute is to offer to the Jewish people who are members of that congregation advantages for social and community intercourse such as they have never had before in Evansville.

A community center for his people has been the aim and ambition of Rabbi M. Lassen, of the Adath Israel synagogue, since he took his position here, several months ago.

The building will be of brick, three stories high. The ground floor will be given to schoolrooms, meeting rooms and committee halls. The second floor will have an assembly room, with clubrooms for various societies of the church, and a library room to attract the young people. A dancing hall will occupy the third floor and will be arranged so that it may be used also for gymnasium purposes. A stage at one end will provide a place for amateur theatricals. The institute is to be open every day in the year and extend a perpetual welcome to Jewish people.

BIG BLAZE IN SUGAR.

Iilo, Panay, P. I., July 15.—More than 3,300 tons of sugar were destroyed in a fire which caused the destruction of a large number of buildings here last night. The sugar, valued at 300,000 pesos ($150,000) represented three-fourhts of the loss.

Miss Phyllis Potter gave a matinee theater party on Tuesday in honor of Miss Phillips and the guests enjoyed dinner after the performance at Miss Potter's home. Miss Edith Orrock entertained on Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Phillips.

Philip, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Dodane, had a birthday party on Wednesday afternoon, not because that was the right date, but because summer is such a fine time to have a party. Mrs. Dodane invited fifteen small friends to the good time. Mrs. Thomas Johnston assisted Mrs. Dodane in waiting upon the little folks at supper time.

Lucile Schaphorst celebrated her sixth birth anniversary on Wednesday at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schaphorst, 730 West Third street, by having a little party. The children present at this good time were Dorothy and Evelyn Stahlhut, Helen Severt, Pudge and Dixie Buchanan, Elizabeth Erwin, Esther Brant, Otto and John Schele, Elmer Doege, Ralph, Edwin and George Schaffer.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Blaising entertained at their home at 1217 McClellan street, last evening in honor of Miss Norah Lewis, of Peru. The evening was spent in music and games. The guests, besides Miss Lewis, were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Becker, Ruth Carney, Martha Rodenbeck, Stella Kaeck, Virginia Carney, Katherine Brunson, Harriet Brunson and Don Carney, Ben Carney, Jack Monroe, Burton Van Horn, Edw. Burledge, Otto Becker, Carl Kiel, Fred Fish and Lee Emerick. Miss Lewis will spend a few days in Fort Wayne and her friends have arranged for a pleasure party at Robison park this week in her honor.

A Country Party.

A company of relatives enjoyed themselves together with a few friends at a dinner party given on Sunday, July 11, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Hockemeyer, two miles east of Hoagland. The afternoon and evening were spent in a social manner. Guests from the country were Mrs. Jacob Flach and daughter Sophie, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Frankel and children, Delmer and Mildred and Clara Burkamp, from Monroeville; Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Steinman, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Felger, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Davis and daughter Vivian, and from Fort Wayne were Mr. Rowan and daughter Ethel, Miss Bayles, Miss Blanche Taylor.

Macy—Stevens.

Miss Ruth Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Stevens, of Stanwood, Mich., who has been employed as a clerk at the Wayne Knitting mills for several years, and Mr. Gilbert N. Macy, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Macy, of Wabash, were married on Wednesday at 4 o'clock by Rev. A. J. Folsom, pastor of Plymouth church. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue faille silk and a white Panama hat trimmed with pink ostrich plumes. Miss Grace Barnett was bridesmaid and she wore a flowered voile empire dress with pale blue taffeta jacket. Both bride and bridesmaid wore bouquets of pink rosebuds and sweetpeas. H. C. Moriarity was groomsman. The bride and groom went to Detroit and Buffalo on their wedding trip and will make their home in Montpelier, Ohio, as Mr. Macy is foreman of the Wabash round house. The groom's parents were present at the marriage. Both bride and groom are young people of excellent character and they each have many warm friends in Fort Wayne.

DOROTHY GISH

(By Esther Hoffmann.)

"So much depends upon the way you use your hands," said pretty Dorothy Gish, the other day.

When I asked her what her beauty prescription was for keeping her hands smooth and white she said:

"Of course, the way you use your hands does not particularly make for their whiteness. After the usual care, which every well-groomed woman gives to all her person, there is a grace of poise and gesture that, if acquired, will give almost any girl the reputation of having beautiful hands.

"There is nothing which helps a girl to acquire this as seeing herself as others see her on the screen.

"Only a few girls are movie actresses,' some of the pretty seekers after beauty will remark. 'How shall we who are 'just girls' learn to use our hands with grace?'

"First," said Dorothy Gish, "you must observe others and find where the other girl is graceful and where she is awkward. Then you must observe yourself after you have taken your deep breathing exercise in the morning, take a little time to perfect yourself in grace. If possible stand before a long mirror and practice moving your hands to fix your hair, to hold a book, to put on your hat, to clasp and unclasp them while talking, to make the every-day gestures when talking. Do this until it becomes second nature to you and you will soon be called the girl with the beautiful hands."

AT THE JEFFERSON.

"SHOULD A MOTHER TELL?"

Betty Nansen, the renowned tragedienne of the Theater Royal of Copenhagen, and the actress who has played before more crowned heads than any other entertainer in the history of the drama, reaches the very pinnacle of her dramatic powers in this latest of her screen appearances, "Should a Mother Tell," which is seen at the Jefferson today. What Miss Nansen has done in her Fox appearances, "A Woman's Resurrection," "Anna Karenina" and "A Celebrated Scandal," holds no parallel to what she accomplishes in this picture classic, a drama of such tremendous force, such gripping, holding appeal that the onlooker sits in a daze of unwavering wonderment throughout the six magnificent acts.

In addition to the above mentioned attraction, the Jefferson has arranged to project another assignment of the popular Paramount Travel series, these particular views having been taken in the different countries of South America.

AT THE TEMPLE.

IN CONSTANT DANGER.

Dillon and Collins Become Excited in Fight in "Pals."

Breathless and anxious eyed the remainder of the members of the Payeen Stock company gather in the wings at every performance of "Pals," to watch the greatfight scene in which Mr. Irving Dillon, as Jim Graham, a wronged husband, struggles to the death with J. C. Collins, as Ned Brumley, the interloper. These two young men, wrought up to a high pitch by the excitement of their roles and the enthusiasm of the audiences, go into this pitched battle in which every bit of movable furniture on the stage is employed as a missle with a vicious abandonment that keeps them in constant danger and everyone else on the anxious seat. A slight miscalculation and a big vase might find a resting place on somebody's forehead, instead of against a mirror or a chandelier. It would not be the first time that a stage fight became so real to the participants that one or the other was injured.

The struggle is the result of Graham's finding that his pal has violated his friendship by making love to the young and fascinating Mrs. Graham. After the fight in which Brumley is pitched headlong from a starway, Ned and his wife become reconciled and peace and happiness reigns. The drama is altogether one of the best things the Payeen Players have done.

IN THE CHURCHES

TO CELEBRATE SILVER JUBILEE.

Rev. John Biedermann of Sheldon Ordained 25 Years Ago.

Rev. John Biedermann, pastor of St. Aloysius Catholic church at Sheldon, was ordained to the holy priesthood twenty-five years ago, July 20, and in observance of this event he will celebrate his silver jubilee next Tuesday. Although Father Biedermann has been spending the past three weeks at a sanitarium at Rome City, plans have been progressing very nicely and everything is in readiness for the event.

Solemn high mass will be celebrated at 10 o'clock in the morning. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. H. F. Joseph Kroll, of Fort Wayne. After the morning services Father Biedermann will be host at a banquet dinner for the priests of the Fort Wayne deanery.

Church Notes.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Third Presbyterian church will hold an important meeting with Mrs. Edward Montgomery, 2601 South Calhoun street, Friday, at 2:45 p. m.

Mrs. Q. M. Hildebrand will entertain Mrs. D. L. Harding's Sunday school class of Wayne Street M. E. church at her home, 1710 Broadway, Friday afternoon. Those who will assist are Mesdames Melton, Renchler and Diffendorfer.

The South Side Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church meets at Swinney park July 16 at 10:30 o'clock for an all day picnic.

All arrangements have been completed for the ice cream social to be given Thursday evening at St. John Reformed church lawn. The young men's Bible class is giving the affair.

The west side division of the Ladies' Aid society of the First M. E. church will be entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles P. Strothers, on Clayton avenue, just off of St. Mary's avenue. The place can be reached by jitney bus or Huffman street cars.

DRINK BUTS MONKEY IN CELL.

Central Park Zoo Benefits From Animal's Alcoholic Appetite.

New York, July 14.—The latest addition to the Central park zoo, a monkey, named Sally, was placed in the primate house, having been brought here for imprisonment, according to Head Keeper Bill Snyder, because of an appetite for alcoholic drinks, which made her dangerous to the business of her mistress' husband—operating a beer garden in North Bergen, N. J.

The name of the mistress who brought Sally to the zoo is Mrs. John Sohnker. Sally, according to Mrs. Sohnker, so Bill Snyder says, fell into evil ways about a year ago. Since then she has on frequent occasions broken into the bar and refreshed herself. Mrs. Sohnker's husband has borne the raids in patience. The night before Memorial day, however, when all was ready for the holiday rush, Sally went too far. Mrs. Sohnker's husband's preparations were sadly disarrayed and there was a large bill for broken glass. Then Mrs. Sohnker's husband put his foot down firmly. Hence the gift to the zoo.

Sophie Schauls

Back to the days of our grandmothers and great-grandmothers designers of modes frequently go for fashion ideas, but Mme. Alla Ripley is probably the first of the modistes to borrow a fashion idea from GRANDFATHER, and a cravat as dignified and prim as the "neckpiece" worn by Henry Clay is a noticeable feature of a recently designed evening wrap.

Miss Sophie Schauls, who is sometimes called "America's most beautiful mannikin," was the first to introduce the new evening wrap to the public and it is now one of the most popular models of the season.

Supple black satin, lined with pearl white satin is used to develop the wrap, which is really a shawl, as it falls in long graceful folds from the neck band to the hem of the skirt.

Have You Seen Oliver Osborne? He Vanished and is Much Wanted

The Mysteriously Missing "Greek God" Who Figured in $50,000 Breach of Promise Suit Must Be a Wonder.

New York, July 15.—Have you seen Oliver Osborne?

If you should see him, grab him and if possible hold him till you can notify the federal circuit court of New York city.

For he is wanted here by the lawyers, David and Maxwell Slade, now on trial for conspiracy to obstruct justice, and wanted by James W. Osborne, one of New York's most distinguished attorneys who is known as the "bull dog of the bar" and who caused the prosecution of the Slade brothers because of their actions in behalf of their client, Rae Tanzer.

Surely you remember Rae, the little factory girl who brought a $50,000 breach of promise suit against James W., thinking him Oliver Osborne, who she claims made love to her promising marriage.

Oliver is wanted by Rae Tanzer herself and by her sisters who identified James W. as Oliver, the "plumber Don Juan," and then recanted the identification before the grand jury.

Here is a description of the missing Oliver whom we all want, furnished by James W. Osborne, one of the small number of persons who claim to have seen him in the flesh.

"He is a fine upstanding figure of a man," James W. testified about his false friend. "He is about 5 feet 11 inches high and weighs about 200 pounds. He is straight and handsome, well dressed and vigorous with a straight nose and blue eyes."

No wonder that the tiny Tanzer girl fell for Oliver! Little Rae, the factory girl, still the central figure in the comedy of the two Osbornes is only about five feet tall.

No wonder that the federal district attorney possesses love letters written by Oliver to six other girls, all of whom admit that he won their young affections! A Greek god! A young viking is Oliver Osborne. And yet this paragon has vanished completely from the face of the earth!

Where is Oliver Osborne? Where are the snows of yester-year? That is what Martin W. Littleton, counsel for the Slade brothers, wants to know and he has made the court room ring with his demands that the vanished Oliver reappear.

This year's greatest legal battle of wits in New York city took place when Martin Littleton cross-examined James W. Osborne for eight hours in the hope of eliciting more information as to Oliver.

RAE TANZER

She wants her Oliver. Rae Tanzer, New York factory girl, who sued James W. Osborne, famous lawyer, for breach of promise, thinking he was "her Oliver."

But all he got was a reiteration from James W. of the original fascinating tale of Oliver's brief materialization in the Osborne apartment in the Sherman square hotel just after news of Rae Tanzer's breach of promise suit had been made public.

Prior to this time James W. Osborne had received several letters from Rae Tanzer, whom he had never seen demanding that he marry her. Then the Slade brothers telephoned him and they also demanded that he wed their client notwithstanding the fact that James W. Osborne has a handsome wife of his own who accompanies him every day to the present trial.

"Oliver Osborne told me," James W. testified, "that he was the man that had been running around with Rae Tanzer. He showed me a letter from her and said that he had three more. I almost put my arms around his neck I was so glad to see him when he said he was the man wanted, and that he came to me because he did not think it fair I should have to suffer for something I never did. He gave me his address in Boston. I thanked him. My wife thanked him. He promised to return next day with more letters from Rae Tanzer. But I never saw him again."

ARE MERELY GIVEN NEW INTERPRETATION

Women Have Changed Little Since Solomon, She Declares.

San Francisco, July 15.—"Woman has changed but little since the days of Solomon," declares Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, special investigator for Uncle Sam's immigration department at the world's fair here and also for the San Diego exposition. "Probably the only difference is that she has been given a new interpretation."

Mrs. Barrett was commissioned last year by the immigration department to tour Europe for the purpose of becoming acquainted with the immigrant before he leave his native land. She maintains that never before has a government given such a sympathetic personal touch to its work.

"The department is trying to humanize the law by co-operating with the various national organizations of aliens, and inducing them to present the cases of their countrymen, with all the mitigating circumstances of tradition, creed or conceptions," she said.

"The alien woman is at present, notwithstanding all the work of the department, at a terrible disadvantage."

Mrs. Barrett claims that while there are any number of national societies for alien men, there are practically none for women.

Mrs. Barrett is the only woman member of the Rotary club in the world. With President Roosevelt and President Taft she was made an honorary member last year. She believes that America will bring about an apotheosis of business through the ideals of this and kindred organizations.

"All progress has been upon a foundation of business, and it is wrong that a stigma attaches to the word commercialism."

OFFICIAL FORECASTS.

Forecast till 7 p. m. Friday:

For Fort Wayne and vicinity: Tonight and Friday, partly cloudy; probably thundershowers.

For Indiana: Partly cloudy tonight and Friday; probably thundershowers north and central portions.

For Ohio: Showers and probably thunderstorms tonight and Friday; not much change in temperature.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The pressure is high over the east gulf states and northern plateau region and an area of low pressure overlies the western plains region, with the principal storm center in eastern Colorado and western Kansas. Showers have attended this distribution of pressure over quite a large area from the upper Ohio valley and lake region northwestward to Montana and the Canadian northwest. Local showers have also occurred in the southeast, St. Lawrence valley and north Pacific states. Temperatures are low for the season on the western slope of the Rockies but in eastern sections practically normal temperature conditions prevail. Except in a few localities temperature changes have not been important since yesterday morning.

Unsettled weather conditions obtain in northern sections to the east of the Rocky mountains, and in this connection the weather in this vicinity will be generally partly cloudy, with probably thundershowers tonight and Friday. The changes in temperature will not be great.

SCHOOLBOY, FROM PUBLIC LINKS, WILL BUCK THE COUNTRY CLUB STARS FOR TITLE.

(By Brown Holmes).

Bobby Shealy, 15, a schoolboy, just beginning to wear long trousers, is after the western golf championship, held by the famous Chick Evans, who has played in many matches in the United States and England.

The boy will represent the Garfield Golf club of Chicago in the Western association tournament to start July 19 at Cleveland, O., and will be pitted against some of the most seasoned players in the country. He will be the youngest player who ever teed off in a western meet.

Shealy is a boost for municipal golf courses.

He is a public course player. The club he represents is composed of men and youngsters who work for a living and play golf when they can snatch a little spare time. Some have to get up at 4 o'clock in the morning to get a chance on the Garfield park links.

These members have "chipped in" to pay the boy's expenses to the big tournament.

Shealy began playing golf about five years ago. He went to Garfield park occasionally, and, like other youngsters, came into possession of a golf stick discarded by some player.

With this stick the lad began batting a ball about the course. From time to time he came into possession of other cast-off sticks and began to play the entire course instead of just driving a ball around.

He became enthusiastic, earned some money and bought a few clubs himself.

Then he began to enter tournaments. He played in three this year and won three championships in two weeks. He won the interscholastic title, competed for by school pupils, the Cook county junior title, and the Cook county open championship, competed for by the stars of Chicago and surrounding cities. One by one the boy disposed of experienced players, some of them twice as old as himself.

Shealy still plays with some of the cast-off sticks he picked up on the course. He is particularly fond of a driver he was given and will use it in the big tournament at Cleveland.

Shealy has never competed against such an array of stars as he will face in the big meet, but he has nerve. Members of his club are confident he will make a good showing and will "chip in" to send him to other tournaments.

THREE-I LEAGUERS RESCUE SPECTATORS.

Decatur, Ill., July 15.—Members of the Decatur and Rockford clubs of the Three-I league yesterday rescued a score of persons buried when, just as the game started a miniature tornado blew off the roof of the grandstand. None of the spectators was seriously injured. The grandstand was wrecked.

Trustee Henry P. Scherer, of Wayne township, and his deputies, are now sending out dog tax notices to delinquents, and if they are not paid within ten days from the date of receiving the notification, the owners will be prosecuted.

Big Fellow Was Practically Gone from Heat and Overwork.

If Bade Myers had held Donley in the box and risked it yesterday, what would have happened? So ask the fans who saw the game. The big heaver was on the verge of heat prostration when the manager jerked him after he had given Anderson two balls in the eighth, and Hart was sent in, but it was all off then and the newcomer couldn't hold out in the least.

But it was a good game even if Wheeling did make it 8 and 7 over our favorites. The first inning was scoreless. In the second the visitors made one and the Cubs came back, Bratchi doubling, going to third on Hartle's out and scoring on a fumble of Brubaker's roller.

In the third there was no scoring but Wheeling came back in the fourth, only to be tied up by the locals in the fifth. Hartle and Brubaker hit infield and Hartle went home on Beyer's hit. In the sixth Wheeling got one more and Fort Wayne piled up three. Brant walked and went to second on Sheehan's out and came home on Holderman's long drive to center. Bratchi singled and Hartle helped them down a base with an out, Brubaker hitting a long one that scored two.

In the seventh Wheeling got another and it was plainly visible that Donley was slipping due to his terrible grind in the heat. The big fellow worked so hard that the men on the bench were worried, and Myers hated to see him drop in his tracks. So in the eighth he pulled him out and sent in Hart. Four runs piled up for the Smokes in this frame, winning their game for them. Fort Wayne tried hard to come back. In the eighth Brant singled but was forced out by Sheehan, who took third on Bratchi's single. Sheehan scored on a wild pitch. In the ninth Brubaker doubled and Beyers went out, Hart walked and Smyth hit, scoring Brubaker and advancing Hart to second. Sheehan singled and Hart went out at the plate. Score:

NO-HIT, NO-RUN GAME.

Providence, R. I., July 15.—Joe Oeschger, the former Philadelphia pitcher, pitched a no-hit, no-run game for Providence against Toronto in the International league series yesterday. Providence won by only one run and Oeschger scored that tally.

FEDS TO INVADE NEW TERRITORY

Chicago, July 15.—New territory will be invaded by the federal league next season, it was announced today by James A. Gilmore, president of the organization in confirming the report that the league's headquarters will be moved from Chicago to New York city within the next two weeks.

Plans are being made, Gilmore admitted, for a new circuit in 1916, and that clubs may be launched in Detroit, Boston or Cleveland. It already has been decided upon, he said, to place a club in New York city. Whether it would be the Newark club that is to be transferred to New York the Federal league executive declined to say. The decision to transfer the league's headquarters to New York came as a surprise, as no intimation had been given of the change. Chicago was the birthplace of the organization, and it was assumed that its official base would remain here.

"The transfer is dictated by necessity alone "President Gilmore explained. "We are going to place a club in New York city next year, and as this will entail a lot of additional work for this office I thought it best to move there.

"As it was organized baseball that questioned our right to be called a major league we will try to correct any impression to the contrary next year when we get our new circuit into operation. It seems to be the impression that no league can be a major without New York, so we intend to satisfy organized ball in that regard."

President Gilmore asserted that the financial condition of the league was never in better shape.

"What is a loss, say $25,000 a year for each club?" he said.

"We are willing to stand that for three years or so, and then some."

CHAMPION WILD MAN.

Bruno Haas Passes Sixteen Men in One Game.

Bruno Haas, the former Worcester academy pitcher, who signed with the Athletics, has set a new American league record for issuing bases on balls.

He passed sixteen New York Yankees in one game.

The previous record of the American league was held by Carroll Brown and Eddie Plank, each of whom issued fourteen passes in a game.

It is believed Billy George, once a Giant, and Ed Reulbach are tied for the major league record. Each gave seventeen bases in one game. Reulbach won his game. He held the opposing team, Boston, to three hits. George lost his to Anson's Colts. That was in 1897.

Davidson, then of Newark, is believed the wildest man, as he gave Buffalo twenty bases on balls in one game.

The wildest game recorded was that pitched by Sy Seymour and Eddie Doheny against Chicago at the Polo grounds in 1896. Or perhaps it was 1895. Seymour gave fourteen bases and hit two men, Doheny finishing up, gave nine passes and hit three men.

Another freak of pitching was the first inning of a game between Chicago and St. Louis in 1909. Chicago drew four passes and made five runs in the first inning. In the last half of that inning Cole, Richie and Reulbach gave eight passes and hit a man.

St. Louis made five runs before hitting the ball at all, and got eight in the inning. Then the game settled down and was hard fought to the finish.

PRINCE ALBERT

Yes, sir, P. A. puts a razor edge on your smoke-appetite-division that's nobby enough to be photographed! No other pipe tobacco can be like Prince Albert, because no other tobacco can be made like Prince Albert. The patented process fixes that—and removes the tongue-bite and throat-parch! Let that digest!

The toppy red bag, 5c

In the plain language of the hills, you can't any more resist such tobacco than a bullfrog can pass up a piece of red flannel! Because P. A. hands to you everything any smoker ever dreamed-out—rare flavor, and aroma, and mildness, and body; absolutely the best bet—the best smoke you or any other man ever did put the fire to! Men, we tell you to wise up. Here's tobacco that has made it possible for three men to smoke pipes where one smoked before.

Any way you hook it up, Prince Albert is tobacco insurance! Yes, sir, it guarantees your future as well as your present smokings! And just makes your tongue so jimmy pipe joy'us that your smoke appetite grows whopping big. You men who "dassn't," we say you go to P. A. natural-like! Because there isn't a bite in a barrel of this national joy smoke.

Unlimber your old jimmy pipe! Dig it out of the dark corner, jam it brimful of P. A. And make fire with a match! Me-o-my!

You get acquainted with Prince Albert in the toppy red bag, 5c; or tidy red tin, 10c, but for the double-back-action-joy, you buy a crystal-glass pound humidor. And then you're set! You see, it has the sponge-moistener top and keeps P. A. at the highest top-notch point of perfection. Prince Albert is also sold in pound and half-pound tin humidors.

DEFIANCE OFFICIALS LOOK AT FORT WAYNE

Mayor Schmaltz and Party Inspect Paving and Water Supply.

Headed by Mayor W. A. Schmaltz, of that city, a party of municipal officials of Defiance, Ohio, spent Thursday in Fort Wayne inspecting street paving, the public water supply and other matters in Fort Wayne. They were the guests of Messrs. Kelly, Singrey and Hilgemann, of the board of works, and had for their cicerone in going about town former City Comptroller August M. Schmidt. In the visiting party besides Mayor Schmaltz were Director of Public Works C. M. Rath, Director of Public Safety J. E. Nolan, Clerk of Public Service Fred Wolsiffer, City Councilmen R. L. Watson and G. J. Slusser and Jacob Baltes, a former citizen of Fort Wayne, who now resides in Defiance. The special object of the visit was to gain information on street paving. Defiance is about to put down about $90,000 worth of street improvements and the fame of Fort Wayne's modern thoroughfares of various types led the party to this city for knowledge. Defiance is also having trouble with its water supply and information was sought on that subject here. The party were shown through the city hall and took much interest in Detective Joseph Brennan's bureau of criminal identification, to which office they were conducted by Chief of Police Lenz. Later the party was driven to the municipal light and power plant, to the waterworks stations and to the city parks. All the visitors commented on municipal progress in Fort Wayne.

CALHOUN STREET PAVING UP.

The main feature of the Thursday evening meeting of the board of works will be the hearing on the resolution to pave Calhoun street from McKinnie avenue to a point 922 feet south. This improvement is specially desired by the promoters of Lafayette Place addition and the promoters of the Harrison Hill addition, both of which interests own the property on both sides of the street for the distance proposed for improvement and will pay the cost of it. There are but three resident property owners on the street and they will have the power of decision. All of them, however, favor the improvement. The board will also confirm assessment rolls for two or three alley improvements.

WILL TRY MOTOR AMBULANCE.

The police department will experiment with a motorcycle ambulance that is the invention of Edward Sigl, of Fort Wayne, and is manufactured by the Sigl-Flex Company of America. It consists of a side car that can be adjusted to any motorcycle and in this car one person can be carried. The motorcycle can be equipped with a tandem seat to carry a physician. It is thought that for calls where great emergency exists and much speed is required the car will be found available.

TAKEN AFTER FOUR ASSAULTS.

Allies Storm Turkish Positions in Dardanelles.

London, July 15. German forces again are active in the region north of Warsaw, causing military observers to believe that a drive at the Polish capital from that direction may be imminent. The Russians admit a German offensive has begun in one sector, where a Russian force retired to its second line positions. Apparently the same operations, however, was alluded to in the most recent German official statement as resulting in "local successes."

The German drive at the French lines in the Argonne forest region has been followed by attempts on the part of the French to regain lost ground. The latest report from Paris claims partial success in the effort.

Two hills defending Krithia on the Gallipoli peninsula were occupied by the troops of the entente allies after four assaults on Monday last, according to Athens advices received in London. Constantinople, reporting on the same engagements, says that allied attacks, in which warships supported the troops, were repulsed with heavy losses.

A German submarine sank the Norwegian steamer Rym. One of the merchantman's engineers was killed. The rest of the crew was saved.

ALL KINDS OF FIGHTING.

Hand Grenade Attacks and Artillery Battles in France.

Paris, July 15.—(2:35 p. m.)—The French war office gave out the following today on the progress of hostilities:

"Activity during the night in the region to the north of Arras was quite diversified. To the south of the Chateau de Cserlieu we seized a line of German trenches. Around Neuville, Saint Vaast and the Labyrinth there was hand grenade fighting.

"In the Argone the fighting was circumscribed within the region situated to the west of the forest, where we had progressed yesterday. To the north of the Servon road, after a series of counter attacks, the Germans succeeded in regaining a foothold in the Beaurain woods. In the rest of this sector there was no change in the situation.

"Between Fey-en-Haye and the forest of Le Pretre an attempt of the enemy to sally from his trenches was immediately halted by a curtain or artillery fire and the fire of our infantry."

STRIKE THREAT AT KRUPP WORKS

Big German Gun Factory Menaced by Labor Troubles.

Geneva, Switzerland, July 15.—A report has reached Basel that a big strike is threatened at the Krupp works at Essen, Germany, the movement being headed by the Union of Metallurgical Workers, and the Association of Mechanics. They demand higher wages because of the cost of living and shorter hours because of the great strain under which they work, the report says.

The workmen, according to these advices, are in an angry mood and threaten the destruction of machinery unless their demands are granted immediately, as they have been put off for three months with promises. The advices add that several high officials have arrived at the Krupp works in an effort to straighten out matters and calm the workers and that Bertha Krupp is expected to visit the plant and use her great influence with the workers.

The Frankfort Gazette, according to the news reaching Basel, has warned the administration of the Krupp plant of the seriousness of the situation and has advised that the men's demands be granted.

Meanwhile, the report states, several regiments have been moved to the vicinity of the works in the event of a strike resulting.

the submarine met a steamer bound westward without a flag and with no neutral marking on her free board, about 35 nautical miles west of Fastnet Rock. No appliance of any kind for the illumination of the flag or markings was to be seen. In the twilight, which had already set in, the name of the steamer was not visible from the submarine. Since the commander of the submarine was obliged to assume from his wide experience in the area of maritime war that only English steamers, and no neutral steamers traversed this war area without flag and markings, he attacked the vessel with a torpedo, in the conviction that he had an enemy vessel before him.

"Some time after the shot the commander saw that the vessel had in the meantime hoisted the American flag. As a consequence he, of course, refrained from any further attack. Since the vessel remained afloat he had no occasion to concern himself further with the boat, which had been launched.

"It results from this without a doubt that the attack on the steamer Nebraskan was not meant for the American flag, nor is it traceable to any fault on the part of the commander of the German submarine, but is to be considered an unfortunate accident. The German government expresses its regret at the occurrence to the government of the United States of America and declares its readiness to make compensation for the damage thereby sustained by American citizens.'"

The Official Report.

The official report of the attack forwarded by Ambassador Page after investigation by Lieut. John H. Towers, naval attache of the embassy, stated that the Nebraskan was in water ballast outbound from Liverpool for Delaware Breakwater, and that although her flag had been hauled down just after sunset, as is the custom, there were painted on her sides in letters six feet high, the words "Nebraskan, New York."

After the attack the ship headed about for Liverpool and convoyed by British ships, reached the port safely. No one was seriously hurt in the explosion which caused some doubt whether the ship did not strike a mine. American naval officers, however, finally came to the conclusion that it was a torpedo.

The Nebraskan case, coming close on the sinking of the Lusitania and coupled with the attack on the Gulflight threatened to become one of the important issues in the controversy with Germany over submarine warfare. There were some circumstances which made the case complex. The Nebraskan had been under charter to the White Star line of the International Mercantile marine but the charter had been cancelled and she was returning home to carry coal from Newport News to the California coast for the United States navy. With her sister ship, the Minnesota, from May to August of 1914, she had been under charter to the United States as an army transport carrying horses from Galveston to Vera Cruz. She was one of the first ships to go through the Panama canal.

Prepares Note to Britain.

Difficulties of American meat packers with Great Britain over the detention of their cargoes to neutral countries will be taken up by the state department in a note to the British government, it was said today.

The packers, who have appealed to the Washington government to demand that Great Britain stop interfering with their cargoes consigned to neutral ports and settle for $14,000,000 worth of their products now held up in prize courts, continued their conference with state department officials today. They charge the British government with the destruction of commerce in food products between the United States and other countries. In a statement outlining their case as submitted to the department, the packers assert that the British government purposely delays settlement of their claims for seized cargoes and that they are not inclined to reopen trade with neutral countries unless they can be assured of delivery of their ships to ports designated.

The American note to Great Britain which, it was said, would be sent immediately, will deal specifically with the complaint of the packers. The general subject of interference with neutral trade under the British Order in Council will form the subject of another communication to Great Britain.

Hive No. 6, Woman's Benefit Association of Maccabees, held their regular tea on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ida Shelley, 1906 Fairfield avenue. Mrs. Sarah Barnes and Mrs. Florence Sack were assistant hostesses with Mrs. Shelley. In a contest that caused much merriment prizes were won by Mrs. Alma Albright and Mrs. Louisa Hilgeman. This was the first tea held under the new name as the hive was formerly the L. O. T. M. The next tea will be held on July 28 with Mrs. Mary Schlatter, of 601 Poplar street. Mrs. Mary Fox will be the assistant hostess.

FRANK'S CLAIM CONTESTED.

Farmer Living Near Banquo Says He is Youngest Great Grandfather.

Although Mendal Frank, 1420 Hanna street, is a young great grandfather, he is not the youngest in Indiana. E. L. Harvey, a farmer living near Banquo, Ind., claims that distinction. Mr. Harvey says he was a great grandfather one week after he was fifty-nine years old. If he lives until next Christmas he will be sixty-two and Howard King Ham, his great grandson, will be three years old on New Year's day.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE MEETS.

At a meeting of the membership committee of the Commercial club, Thursday afternoon, action was taken on sixteen applications. A business meeting of the board of directors of the club will be held Friday at noon.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

Branstrattor.—Funeral services for Leon Branstrattor will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence, after which the funeral party will go in autos to Zanesville where burial will take place.

ARSENIC IN BONBONS SENT WOMAN BY MAIL.

Indianapolis, July 15.—Chemists in the state laboratories today found large quantities of arsenic in bonbons taken to the office yesterday by Mrs. Lillian Ball, employe of a local hotel. Mrs. Ball said she received the candy through the mails. She said she had received anonymous letters warning her to sever her relations with an Indianapolis man. It is said that the postal authorities will investigate the case.

WIFE GETS DIVORCE FROM JAMES J. WOOD

On a cross-complaint Mrs. Helen Baker Wood, wife of James J. Wood, general manager of the Fort Wayne Electric works and prominent in both hemispheres as an electrical inventor, was granted a divorce by Judge Yaple in the superior court. Terms of the settlement, which was made in private, were not given out by attorneys for the principals to the action. Mr. Wood was not in court and was present only by counsel, S. L. Morris, of the firm of Barrett, Morris & Hoffman, his counsel, appearing for him. Mrs. Wood was represented by Leonard, Rose & Zollars. Her cross-complaints alleged cruel and inhuman treatment and in her testimony she declared that for two years or more Mr. Wood had refused to be a husband to her, had declined to go out with her, had said he was ashamed of her and had applied opprobrious epithets to her. She also testified that he had wished her to get a divorce, on one occasion offering her $10,000 to do so and in a later instance $20,000. These overtures, she said, she had declined, hoping to continue to live with him, as she desired, as his wife, but that finally the situation became unbearable. Some months ago Mr. Wood applied for a divorce in the superior court, and to this a cross-complaint was filed. It is understood that the settlement provided for payments to the wife in excess of $20,000.

Notes of the Courts.

John N. Pfeiffer has brought suit in the circuit court on appeal from the Fort Wayne board of park commissioners to set aside an assessment of $2,676.65 against his property for the opening and widening of Rudisill and Anthony boulevards, for which a resolution was adopted last November and the assessment roll was confirmed June 29. He alleges that the assessment is too high and that the board failed to assess other property that will be benefited.

The Indiana Paint and Varnish company has brought suit in the superior court against Anna R. McGuire to foreclose a mechanic's lien, demanding $75.

In the divorce suit of Alice Treuchet vs. Louis Treuchet, the defendant has been cited to appear July 20 in the superior court and show cause for failing to obey the court's order to make certain payments.

The superior court has granted a divorce to Marilla A. Williams from Oscar Williams and permitted her to assume her maiden name of Coby.

GUNBOATS FOR RESCUE WORK.

Wilmington and Callao to Aid Flood Victims in China.

Washington, July 15.—The gunboats Wilmington and Callao, of the Asiatic squadron, are rushing from Honk Kong to the scene of recent floods in China for "urgent rescue" work. Commander Huff, of the Wilmington, cabled today that the Callao is bound for West river and the Wilmington for Canton.

PORTLAND TURNS OUT.

Magnificent Ovation Given Liberty Bell in Oregon.

Portland, Ore., July 15.—For four hours an unbroken stream of people passed around the liberty bell here today. A din of whistles and bells signalled the arrival of the relic on its journey to San Francisco. The celebration included also a parade of school children and military organizations.

TAKES PRECAUTIONS AGAINST SUBMARINES

New York, July 15.—As a protection against gunfire from submarines, a shelter of sand-filled bags was piled along the decks of the White Star line steamship Baltic that sailed today for Liverpool with 314 passengers and a full cargo, a part of which consisted of ammunition and war supplies. Unusual precautions were taken by steamship officials to protect the Baltic prior to her sailing.

While cases of ammunition, five by seven feet, swung from the long arms of cranes on the pier to the vessel's hold, special agents stopped and opened every bit of baggage taken aboard. Not a grip or a trunk escaped inspection. The big cases of ammunition contained, it was estimated, 30,000 rounds of small arm cartridges apiece. Other cases, it was understood, contained shells. Twenty or more aeroplanes also were hoisted aboard. When the Baltic pulled out she was loaded down to 34 feet, the deepest draught the law allows.

BICKNELL IN WASHINGTON.

American Red Cross Director Home From the War Zone.

Washington, July 15.—Ernest P. Bicknell, national director of the American Red Cross, who has been directing the Rockefeller foundation activities throughout the European war zone and returned here today, says a German inventory of food supply in Germany, shows no shortage, present or prospective; that in Serbia, where there is much destitution, there is considerable food shortage, but conditions are improving and the situation is encouraging generally throughout the war aera.

SEEKING EDISON'S VIEWS.

Daniels Goes to West Orange to Confer Wiah Wizard.

Washington, July 15.—With the departure today of Secretary Daniels for West Orange, N. J., to confer with Thomas A. Edison in regard to the proposed navy bureau of invention and the civilian advisory board naval officials looked forward to an announcement to follow the conference. The secretary will seek the views of Mr. Edison about some of the men to be invited to join the advisory board. Pending the conference, however, Mr. Daniels will not make known the names of other possible board members.

DENIAL FROM LIVERPOOL.

Washington, July 15.—Denial of published reports that a German submarine used the American bark Normandy as a screen from which to sink the Russian steamer Leo was cabled to the state department today by the American consul at Liverpool. The captain of the Normandy specifically denied the report. The bark was stopped by the submarine but allowed to proceed with some of the Leo's crew.

JITNEY BOAT THE LATEST.

Evansville Man First in Line With the Innovation.

Evansville, Ind., July 14.—The first "jitney boat" has appeared in Evansville, and probably marks an innovation for the whole country. T. S. Gates, of Evansville, has bought the launch Nomadis, which recently returned from a trip to the Gulf of Mexico. The boat will hold forty people. It will be put in service here, operating "jitney" excursions on the river from Sunset park.

SHOP AND RAIL ROAD NEWS

WATCH DROPPED FROM TRAIN IS RETURNED

Mail Clerk on Pennsy Has Remarkable Experience.

The remarkable efficiency of the Pennsylvania right of way guard is demonstrated in the case of C. C. Weimer, which has just been cleared up by the company. Weimer is a mail clerk on Pennsylvania passenger train No. 21, and on June 25 he was working near the door of the mail car as the train was running at a forty mile clip a short distance east of Fort Wayne.

In handling some sacks he stepped close to the door and his watch caught on something and was pulled out of his pocket. He watched for the number of the next mile post, and when he completed his run he reported his loss to the officials.

The section foreman in the stretch of track indicated was notified and he had his section men and track walkers on the lookout for it, with the result that it was found within a short time. The watch had stopped at 12:36, the same moment it stopped traveling, and the hands were broken and the whole thing badly jammed up. It was returned to him today.

EMPLOYES GREET VETERAN.

Pennsy Railroad Pioneer Makes Trip With Special Train.

Richmond, Ind., July 15.—Col. John F. Miller, of this city, one of the most prominent railroad men in the country and formerly general superintendent of the southwest system of the Pennsylvania railroad, has just returned from a visit with a friend near Hartford City, making the trip by way of Bradford Junction, O., and receiving an ovation from former subordinates at every place where his special train stopped. Since his retirement from active service the private car he designed and used for many years has been kept at Columbus, O., subject to his orders, but the first time he has used it for a number of years was on the trip just concluded. Delegations of railroad men met Col. Miller at almost every station on the route and extended congratulations to him. He has been in ill health for several years, being confined to his home most of the time, but he is now enjoying more robust health.

CEDAR POINT EXCURSION.

Thousand Tickets to Printing Company Event Have Been Sold.

Everything is ready for the big picnic to Cedar Point, to be cared for and chaperoned by the employes of the Fort Wayne Printing company, and the ticket committee reports that a thousand pasteboards have been sold. And what's better still, the committee has the cash.

The affair will be the largest taken to Cedar Point out of this city since the palmy days of the Electro-Tech excursions, when all Fort Wayne bought bananas and sandwiches and went.

NICKEL PLATE INSTRUCTION.

The Nickel Plate had considerable military movement last night. Two carloads of Italian reservists went east on No. 2, bound for New York, where they will take ship for the war zone, and No. 1 today carried two coaches of the boys in the United States navel reserve, bound for the Great Lakes annual cruise and training trip.

MAY TAKE KIDDIES FOR AN AUTO RIDE

Van B. Perrine, president of the Commercial club, and Austin W. Stults expected to go to the Allen county orphans' home late Thursday afternoon to arrange with the superintendent of that institution for the distribution of approximately $250 realized from the benefit performance recently given by the Payeen Stock company at the Temple theater.

Arrangements will be made to show the "kiddies" a good time with the money. They will probably be taken for an automobile ride and will be privileged to spend the money for candy, dolls, ice cream and in any manner they see fit. Mr. Perrine believes that in this way the children will better appreciate the money realized than if it was donated to the institution.

Treasury Department to Build According to Needs of Towns.

Washington, July 15.—The treasury department hereafter will construct postoffices and other federal buildings in accordance with the needs and importance of places where they are situated instead of spending all that the congress appropriates. It long has been a criticism that unimportant places often got expensive federal buildings out of proportion to their needs. In some instances expensive postoffices have been built in towns where the postal receipts were not sufficient to sustain them.

Postoffices, Assistant Secretary Newton announced today, will be considered in four classes: Those having receipts of more than $800,000 a year; those having between $60,000 and $800,000; those having from $15,000 to $60,000, and those below $15,000.

By following the same plan on acquiring sites the department, on 136 purchases, spent $500,000 less than the congress authorized.

MUNCIE TO LOSE LANDMARK.

House Built in 1833 to Give Way to March of Progress.

Muncie, Ind., July 15.—The last of the old landmarks of Muncie, erected here when the town was only an Indian trading post, with perhaps 200 or 300 inhabitants, will disappear with the tearing down, within a few days, of what once was known as the old Coffeen residence, the first frame building ever erected in Muncie. Surrounded by high buildings and directly across from the court house, in the business center, the old structure, which was erected in 1833, has held its place, oblivious of the march of time and of progress. And now after having been beaten on by the storms and snows of eighty-two years, the lumber in the old house is still good, and the walnut foundation timbers appear as if new. As the foundation is of logs, the building was found to be too heavy to be removed and must be torn down.

For many years the structure has been used as a feed store by its owner, Jesse H. Williamson. It will make way for a modern three-story business block to be erected by Mr. Williamson and his son, Gola Williamson, the latter being the treasurer of Delaware county.

FATHER OVERPOWERS SON.

In Alleged Attack, Parent Holds Boy for Marshal.

Anderson, Ind., July 15.—Floyd Anderson, age twenty-four, was arrested at the home of his parents near Lapel and was taken to the Hamilton county jail to await the outcome of injuries to his father, Fletcher Anderson. It is alleged that Floyd attacked his father on Sunday when the latter refused to give the young man money. Fletcher Anderson was resting in bed when it is alleged his son hit him. The elder Anderson leaped from the bad and grabbed his son. They struggled on the floor until the young man was overpowered by his father and held until the town marshal arrived from Lapel. In the Madison circuit court last week Floyd was acquitted of a charge of burglary after a trial of four days. He was accused of being involved in a theft of $50 at Lapel. Immediately after his acquittal young Anderson, who laid his arrest to drink, made a profession of reform, saying he would never again cause trouble.

COURT HOLDS HAYES GLASS NOT GUILTY

Judge Hoffman Says He Did Not Assault Mrs. Jessie Lawrence.

After a hearing that consumed most of the forenoon in the city court Special Judge John C. Hoffman rendered a finding acquitting Hayes Glass, 345 West Creighton avenue, of assault and battery on Mrs. Jessie Lawrence, wife of C. F. Lawrence, 339 West Creighton avenue. The trial was mainly interesting as showing a previously disturbed state of affairs among some of the residents of the west end of the Creighton avenue square between Webster street and Hoagland avenue and many of the people of that neighborhood were present either as witnesses or spectators at the trial.

The assault of which Mr. Glass was accused is said to have taken place Saturday evening, July 10, at the home of the Lawrences. Mr. Glass called at the Lawrence home with a letter that had been written by Mr. Lawrence to a neighbor, George D. Baxter, in which there was an impersonal reference to another neighbor, which Mr. Glass took as meaning himself. He called to see about it. Mr. Glass admitted on the witness stand that when he went to the Lawrence home he was angry and meant to chastise Mr. Lawrence. He utterly denied that he had touched Mrs. Lawrence. The testimony for the prosecution was equally positive as given by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence and their colored maid that Mr. Glass had struck Mrs. Lawrence in the breast, reopening the granulated wound where an operation had been performed for goitre, June 15, causing some hemorrhage and subjecting Mrs. Lawrence to a nervous collapse. It was clearly indicated that feeling between Glass and Lawrence was at the bottom of the trouble, the former tesifying that Mrs. Lawrence is a lady whom he greatly respects and there is "nothing the matter with her except her husband," a statement that the court ordered stricken out. Dr. Philip S. Titus testified that since the episode at the Lawrence home Mrs. Lawrence's condition had been aggravated. Mr. Glass admitted that he struck at Mr. Lawrence, but did not know whether or not he hit him, and Mr. Lawrence said that after Mr. Glass had called him a "dirty cur" and a worse name, he lunged at him. Then it was that Mrs. Glass came into the reception hall of their home and spoke to Mr. Glass and when Mr. Glass was alleged to have called Mrs. Lawrence a liar and struck at her. Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Stephen A. Callahan appeared for the state and Guy Colerick and Frank M. Hogan were counsel for Mr. Glass.

Both Prosecutor Callahan and Attorney Colerick made caustic references in their arguments to the conditions shown to have existed in the neighborhood where the trouble occurred. In summing up the case, Judge Hoffman said that he did not believe that if Mr. Glass, who is a giant in stature and strength, had dealt Mrs. Lawrence a blow, as was alleged, she would be able to appear in court. He reached a conclusion that in the excitement of the exchange of blows between Mr. Glass and Mr. Lawrence the prosecuting witness and his wife got the impression that Mrs. Lawrence was struck. Mr. Glass during his examination stated that he was willing to plead guilty to assault and battery on Mr. Lawrence. Judge Kerr, who until a short time ago had resided in the neighborhood where the trouble occurred, declineed to preside in the case and appointed Attorney John C. Hoffman as special judge to hear it.

Big Mob of Vags in Court.

Nineteen men, the occupants of two hobo camps along the Wabash railway, near the St. Mary's river, were arraigned in the city court Thursday morning on vagrancy charges. They were captured in raids made early Wednesday evening, following complaints that residents of the southwest part of the city were being much annoyed. Lieutenant Harry Grimme, Detective Sergeants Spillner and Junk, Stationmaster Joe Degitz and Motorcycle Officer Dan Kintz made the arrests. The men were not a bad looking lot, most of them being young and many of them fairly well dressed. Some pleaded guilty and some did not. All of them had stories of looking for work and of having gone out to the river either to wash their faces, soak their feet or daunder their faces, soak their feet or launder loose, some were continued until Friday, some until Saturday and still others until Monday.

Other City Court Cases.

Louis Fortier, an aged man, was drunk and begging on the streets and was arrested. Judge Kerr fined him $1 and costs.

CADESSIA GROTTO'S OFFICERS INSTALLED

Harold M. Harter, of Toledo, grand captain of the guard of the supreme council of Mystic Order of Veiled Prophets of the Enchanted Realm, an organization composed of Master Masons, on Wednesday evening delivered to Cadessia grotton No. 50, of Fort Wayne, its charter granted at the Buffalo meeting of the supreme council last month, and also installed the first charter officers of the local grotto. There was a large attendance of prophets at the meeting despite the furious storm of the early evening, and there was much interest in the proceedings. A smoker and social time were features of the evening. Cadessia grotto unanimously elected Grand Captain of the Guard Harter an honorary member and adopted resolutions of appreciation for his efforts in getting the Fort Wayne organization started. Some applications for membership were voted upon favorably and further steps were taken looking to the organization of a grotto patrol or drill team. The first summer outing of the grotto will be held Sunday, July 25, at either Blue lake or Shriner lake. The trip will be made in automobiles.

GERMAN CLAIMS NOW COUNTERED BY PARIS

London, July 15.—From Athens comes a report of a substantial advance made by the Anglo-French forces against the Krithia-Achi Baba line but since so many wild rumors have originated in the Grecian capital this is received with reserve until officially confirmed.

The latest Paris communication counters the claims of German success in the Argonne region with the report that the French have set foot at several points in the German trenches on the road to Marc Therese and that the French are making progress in their attacks beyond the Servon road to the west of the forest of Argonne.

On the eastern front nothing approaching a decisive action has been reported in a fortnight. The Germans, however, again are showing activity in the region between the rivers Niemen and the Vistula where they have attacked in force, making an advance along one section from which the Russians retired to their second line.

All these signs point to a new German drive toward Warsaw from the east Prussian frontier, but it is believed by military observers here that the Russians have sufficient forces in this direction to oppose formidable resistance.

It is expected that the period of quiescence will be ended by an attack on the Austro-Germans towards the river Bug.

Poles Down and Cars Are Running Hours Behind Schedule.

Service on the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company's line was badly demoralized Thursday as the result of the damage done by the wind storm Wednesday night. Several poles were blown down between Boyd park and Peru. There were five breaks on the Lafayette division and three breaks on the Bluffton division in the high tension wire, resulting in all cars running several hours late. The car due here at 7:35 a. m. from Lafayette, arrived at 10:05 a. m.

More damage has been done by storms this year to the property of the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company than in many years.

Special Service.

Announcement has been made by Samuel W. Greenland, general manager of the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company, that special service will be provided on all the city lines Saturday and Sunday morning to accommodate persons who go to Cedar Point on the excursion. The first section of the excursion will leave at 5:30 o'clock and the last section will not return until 12:30 Sunday morning. Special service also will be provided Saturday on all the city lines on account of Ringling Brothers' circus. If the weather is favorable the largest crowd of the year is expected in Fort Wayne from all sections of northwestern Indiana and northwestern Ohio.

The track on State boulevard will not be changed for several days in preparation for paving the street.

LIGONIER DOCTOR CITED TO APPEAR

Indianapolis, July 15. The state board of medical registration and examination at a meeting yesterday in the state house cited Dr. Lee Spencer, of Ligonier, to show cause why the license of a woman physician of Indianapolis on the ground that she had been rendered incompetent by the drug habit. The board continued the case indefinitely upon a showing that the physician has discontinued the use of the drug and that she believes herself cured.

The board, on complaint of A. J. Locher, issued a citation to Dr. Louis P. Weinberg, of Ligonier, to appear Aug. 11 and show cause why his license should not be revoked. Dr. Weinberg was convicted recently in the federal court at Chicago on a charge of violating the Mann "white slave" act. Locher, who filed the complaint, is the father of the 17-year-old girl the Ligonier physician is alleged to have taken to Chicago.

TWO CITIES TIED BY CAR STRIKES

Pawtucket, R. I., July 15.—Street car service in this city was suspended completely today as a result of the strike of the employes of the Rhode Island company. Hundreds of motor buses filled to capacity carried factory employes to their work.

Providence, R. I., July 15.—A reduced trolley car service was in effect in this city today as a result of the strike declared by 2,400 union employes of the Rhode Island company at midnight. The cars in operation were manned by non-union motormen and conductors. Up to 8 a. m. there was no disorder.

PARADE IS CLIMAX OF ELKS' MEETING

Los Angeles, Calif., July 15.—The annual parade of Elk lodges was to bring to a climax today the entertainment and business of the 1915 reunion of Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks here. Newly elected officers were to be installed at the closing session.

Many of the visitors plan to leave late today for San Diego to attend the Panama-California exposition, Friday having been designated as Elk day at the southern city.

Baltimore captured the 1916 convention from Atlanta after a hard fight.

Work is Begun on Field Museum Structure at Chicago.

Chicago, July 15.—Construction work on the new $5,000,000 Field Museum of Natural History, which is to be built on Chicago's lake front, just south of Twelfth street, began today after twelve years of planning and negotiations. The structure will be completed in less than three years, according to plans. More than 3,000 men will be employed in the work. When finished it will be the largest marble building in the world and one of the largest museums. It will consist of three stories and a basement and will cover an area of 700x350 feet or approximately four down town city blocks.

The floor area of the museum will be 670,000 square feet, of which 400,000 square feet will be devoted to exhibition purposes. The remainder will be used for scientific laboratories, lecture halls, offices and a restaurant. The late Marshall Field gave a total of $9,500,000 for the building and endowment fund of the museum.

St. Louis, Mo., in 1914, built fifty-one factories and twenty-six office buildings.

China has an area of a million and a half square miles and a population of 506,000,000.

SORELY WOUNDED, BUT SAVED FROM DEATH BY GERMAN RED CROSS DOG.

DURBOROUGH, IN GERMANY, PHOTOGRAPHS THE RESCUE WORK OF A DOG ON THE EAS TERN WAR FRONT.

BY W. H. DURBOROUGH.

(Copyright, 1915, by the Newspaper Enterprise association.)

Berlin, Germany, July 15.—I think I never kicked a dog and now I know that I never will. I'll never sneer when I hear a dog called "the friend of man." He is all that.

Few things are more interesting to me in my automobile tour along the German fronts than the Red Cross dogs. I see many of these dogs in camp and at work.

One day I took my camera and went out to see a Red Cross dog on rescue duty. One of the pictures I send you was taken on this trip.

This dog had found the wounded soldier among the bushes near the front. He knew his duty and running back he met my two-legged Red Cross companion and by his behavior quickly told us that the latter's services were needed. We followed and came upon the victim after a quarter of a mile's walk.

The German Red Cross officers tell me that the records will show that thousands and thousands of wounded soldiers have been saved who would have died of their wounds, but for these dogs. The Berlin papers told the other day of a dog which saved nearly 100 soldiers in one night. Unfortunately I could not get his picture for you.

Germany has a regular society of Red Cross dogs. It is headed by the grand duke of Oldenburg. Over 500 of the animals were all ready for the work when the war broke out, but many more have been trained, and are now in training. There are about 2,000 dogs at the front today.

It takes about two months to train a dog properly for battlefield work. The trainers keep a dog at it every day for several hours a day. He is first taught to be instantly obedient to the commands of his Red Cross master. At a word or a sign he will lay flat, or jump, or dash off in the direction indicated by the finger. He is trained to go to certain points in the fastest possible time and return in the fastest possible time. The inclination of a dog to loiter or become attracted by this, that or the other thing is worked out of him to a remarkable extent.

He is taught to take food only from his Red Cross master—from nobody else under any circumstances. This is a severe test for any dog. But it is necessary because many an untrained, hungry dog would take a bit of food out of a feeble man's hand.

Some of the dogs merely track soldiers in nearby thickets or ravines. These dogs carry no burdens, but instantly attract Red Cross men by barking or running back. Other dogs that travel afar in search of wounded—sometimes five to ten or fifteen miles—carry regular kits on their backs. The outside of the kit is a blanket and in it are bandages, flasks of water and wine, and a little food. Very often a wounded man can unfasten the kit and care for himself and for more desperately wounded men lying about him.

Most of the dogs have learned to work under fire like veteran soldiers and a good many have themselves been wounded or killed.

TRI-ANNUAL MEETING OF DENTAL COTERIE

Many visiting dentists attended the second tri-annual meeting of the Isaac Knapp dental coterie held in the Lincoln Life building Wednesday.

The meeting opened with an exhibitors' clinic followed by an exhibition of artificial roots and methods of implantation by Dr. E. J. Greenfield, of Wichita, Kansas. Other numbers on the program were as follows:

"Demonstrations of McKesson Mitrous Oxide and Oxygen Apparatus," Dr. E. L. McKesson, Toledo, Ohio.

"One Way to Make bi-Cuspid Crowns and Three Reasons Why," Dr. L. W. Dailey, Bluffton.

"Synthetic in Posterior," Dr. O. A. Vankirk, Kendallville.

"Manipulations of the de Triey's Synthetic Porcelain," Dr. M. A. Mason, Fort Wayne.

NINE FOREIGNERS TESTIFY AT INQUEST

Coroner Conducts Investigation Into Deaths of Italian Laborers.

Further testimony will be heard at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the inquest being conducted by Coroner Edward H. Kruse into the deaths of Tony Ciangola and Alonzo Paolleo, the two Italian laborers who were overcome by carbonic gas some days ago in a trench being dug for the North Wayne sewer.

Dr. Kruse heard the testimony of nine foreigners Wednesday afternoon, all of whom testified that Hal Miller, foreman for the Moellering Construction company, in charge of the job, had ordered the men into the ditch. One foreigner testified that Ciangola was ordered into the pit to bring up the tools at the bottom after it was known that there was gas in it.

C. E. Moellering, head of the company, says that one hour and a half before the accident occurred gas was discovered in the hole and the men were sent to another trench to work. Ciangola may have misunderstood the foreman's order as he could not understand English very well. The foreman did send him for a tunneling tool, the testimony shows, but he had no other thought but that he would go to the toolhouse for one and not descend into the trench.

Paolleo, who went into the trench to rescue his fellow countryman, was warned not to go down without a rope about him. He did not heed the warning.

Coroner Kruse is convinced that the two men came to their deaths from the effects of carbonic gas, commonly known as "damps."

CHICAGO CAR MEN ALL TO GET RAISE

Forecast of Board of Arbitration's Finding is Made Public.

Chicago, July 15.—The 14,000 employes of Chicago's street car systems, who recently tied up the city's transportation facilities with a two days' strike, will be granted a wage increase and a two year contract instead of three, according to a story published in the Chicago Tribune today. The award of the board of arbitration, which for three weeks heard testimony from company officials and the employes on the issue, will be made public tomorrow, the paper says.

All classes of men in the service of the companies will be granted a horizontal raise in wages from the start. The maximum wage will be not less than 35 cents per hour, and probably 36 cents, the Tribune says. The maximum wage received now is 32 cents an hour. The term of the graded scale has been shortened but its length has not been fully decided, it was said.

The award will establish in Chicago the highest wages for street car men in the country.

How Fort Wayne Public Schools Have Advanced

Superintendent J. N. Study in Biennial Report of State Department of Public Instruction Recounts Progress Since 1896.

In the twenty-seventh biennial report just issued by the state department of public instruction, J. N. Study, superintendent of the schools of Fort Wayne, has an article telling what has been done in the schools of this city. The early history of the schools is taken from a historical sketch on "Early Education in Fort Wayne," written by Dr. John S. Irwin, a school trustee from 1865 to 1875, and superintendent of the city schools from 1875 to 1896.

"In 1896 Dr. Irwin, after the long and faithful service of ten years as trustee and twenty-one years as superintendent, retired as superintendent of schools, and J. N. Study, who at that time was superintendent of schools at Richmond, Ind., was appointed superintendent.

School Plant Rebuilt.

"Within this administration almost the whole school plant has been rebuilt, and a number of additional schools erected to meet the needs occasioned by the steady growth of the city. The Lakeside and the South Wayne schools —under contract in 1896—were opened for school early in 1897. Since then extensive additions have been made to five schools, the new high and manual training school has been built; two township schools annexed to the city—one of six rooms and one of four rooms four old buildings have been torn down and replaced by new buildings, much larger, and constructed in accordance with the best modern ideas of school architecture and sanitation: a fifth old building, the Harmar, has this year been razed, and a new building of sixteen class rooms, with offices, auditorium, gymnasium, manual training rooms, domestic science and art rooms provided, is now under construction. Four buildings on new sites have been built.

"In almost all cases additional grounds were purchased when buildings were rebuilt, and extensive purchases of real estate for playground purposes and future building sites have been made. But three buildings of the plant as it was in 1896 remain, and one of these, the Clay, was new at that time, having been erected to take the place of the old Clay school destroyed by fire. Thus practically the school plant is new and modern in all respects. In all this building the aim of the school authorities has been to bring the school to the children—especially the younger ones. A single school to a single building has been the rule. The belief has been that the child is better for having some definite room in the school that he can consider his own—some seat in the school room that he can consider his own while he belongs to that room. All the newer buildings are provided with auditoriums, gymnasiums, rest and recitation rooms, rooms for the teaching of manual training work, and domestic science. A policy of concentration, however, has been followed in the upper grades in order that the seventh and eighth-grade buildings may be reduced in number and the advantages of departmental work be enjoyed.

Course of Study Changed.

"The course of study has been changed and enlarged from time to time to meet the changing conditions and the demands for new subjects, in the curriculum, drawing, music, physical culture —all under trained specialists. Manual training in all its phases with extensive equipment has been added, not only in the high school, but also in the grades.

"The city normal school was re-established in 1897 with a course of one year's professional work. This course was soon extended to one year and a half, and some years ago made a full two years' course of professional work, with practice teaching. No beginning teacher is admitted into the elementary schools of Fort Wayne unless such teacher shall have had two years of normal school work after high school graduation.

"The general assembly of Indiana having entrusted the management of public playgrounds to the school board, the board has taken over all the playgrounds already established and has provided new ones. The last summer there were in operation under the school board seven playgrounds open to the public. The supervisors of these playgrounds were all regular teachers who had been trained in physical culture work. School gardens have also been established in connection with some of the schools and home gardening has been encouraged. The past summer a special supervisor of school and home gardens was employed with very favorable results.

Vocational Education.

"A year before the vocational school law took effect a small day vocational school was established, and the current year the school has been enlarged by additional equipment and a larger number of teachers. Classes have been formed in carpentry, wood-turning, cabinet making, and printing for boys; and cooking, sewing—embracing dressmaking and millinery—for girls. These day pupils spend one-half their time in academic work, correlated with the shop work, and one-half in the shops; and in cooking and sewing rooms. The school is organized under the law as a separate school.

Evening School.

"Evening classes for factory girls principally were established also a year before the law became operative. The Women's College club furnished a number of teachers for various branches without pay, and to this club is due the credit of the inception of the enterprise. The board furnished the instructors in cooking, sewing, dressmaking and millinery. The success was so great that the arrangement has been continued the present year, but enlarged by the board furnishing instruction in mechanical drawing to a large class of men. Classes in English for foreigners have been organized and taught both years by volunteer teachers furnished by the college club. The school has aimed to appeal to those especially needing instruction in evening schools."

ARRESTS HIS TWO RESCUERS.

Policeman, Almost Ground to Death, Holds Saviours as Pickpockets.

New York, July 13.—Detective Patrick Ryan, of Newark police headquarters, had a narrow escape from being killed while racing after a trolley carrying two men whom he suspected of being professional pickpockets.

A man had reported the theft of a pocketbook while on a car. The detective gave chase after two suspects. He managed to grasp the rear end of the car, and was being dragged along when the men whom he later put under arrest pulled him aboard, saving him from being thrown under the rear trucks.

The men were surprised when arrested by Ryan on a charge of being professional pickpockets.

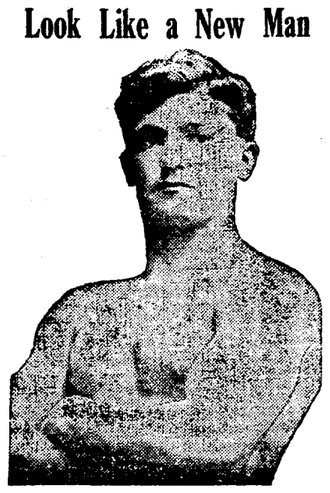
People Used to Call Me "Skinny"

But Now My Name Has Changed. Gained 15 Pounds and

Look Like a New Man



A PLUMP, STRONG, ROBUST BODY

"Before I took Sargol people used to call me 'skinny' but now my name is changed. My whole body is stout. Have gained 15 pounds and am gaining yet. I look like a new man," declared a man who had just finished the Sargol treatment.

"I was all run down to the very bottom," writes F. Gagnon. "I had to quit work, I was so weak. Now, thanks to Sargol, I look like a new man. I gained 22 pounds in 23 days."

"Sargol has put 10 pounds on me in 14 days," states W. O. Roberts. "It has made me sleep well, enjoy what I ate and enabled me to work with interest and pleasure."

Would you too, like to quickly put from 10 to 30 pounds of good, solid "stay-there" flesh, fat and muscular tissue between your skin and bones?

Don't say it can't be done. Try it.

More than half a million thin men and women have gladly made the test, and that Sargol does succeed, does make thin folks fat even where all else has failed, is best proved by the tremendous business we have done. No drastic diet, flesh creams, massage, oils or emulsions, but a simple, harmless home treatment.

Meyer Bros. Drug Co., Dreier Drug Co., D. & N. Pharmacy, The Family Drug Co. and other leading druggists in Fort Wayne and vicinity sell Sargol in large boxes—forty tablets to a package—on a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

FOOD SUPPLY IN AUSTRIA BETTER

Vienna, June 25.—Correspondence of the Associated Press.—Although Austria has no fear of an insufficient harvest, and although conditions even now are improving to such an extent that the notably bad bread is being rapidly bettered, plans are already being considered for confiscating the 1915 harvest of wheat of various kinds to avoid high prices superinduced by speculation.

It is proposed to create, from the present war flour control commission, a state organization, into whose hands the entire confiscated crop would be delivered, and whose members would divide the flour evenly and equably. The farmers are not at all averse to the confiscation of the crop and the establishment of a uniform price for their product, but they oppose the central organization plan, and prefer that the flour pass into the control of the district commissions. It is only the members of the produce associations and bourses who oppose the confiscation and uniform price ideas.

Even though maximum prices were established by the government this year, they have been disregarded by the speculators, who have paid 60 kronen for flour that was supposed to sell for 40.50. How the speculation has worked out is shown in the case of lentils and beans which had no maximum price and which today cost 110 heller as against 28 to 40 heller after the last harvest.

CITY TAKES NO CHANCES.

Evansville Guards Against Raid of Robbers on $8,000.

Evansville, Ind., July 13.—To safeguard the monthly pay roll of the police and fire departments, William Richardt, deputy city controller, took four stalwart policemen to the City National bank at Main and Second streets, with him the other afternoon. The policemen remained at the entrance of the bank while Richardt went in and got the money. When he appeared at the door, the officers formed around him and marched to the city hall, two blocks away. Pedestrians supposed Richardt was under arrest for an attempted bank robbery. The pay roll amounts to $8,000 and the city was taking no chances. Richardt was roll clerk in the 1911 session of the Indiana house of representatives under Speaker Albert J. Veneman.

To one who has always been accustomed to look at the world of the circus from the outside in, a glimpse from the inside out brings many surprises.

Novelists who have chosen the circus life for depiction in stories have found it a fruitful field. Back of the curtain, the glamour, and the hoop-la of the ring, there is a world of real humanity. Most of the performers are from families which have followed the circus from the time it began to amuse men, and they have learned to preserve the home ties in circusville as sacredly as they are preserved outside.

"It is hard to make the person outside understand that we have a real home life, close, sympathetic and protecting," said a veteran of the road, who is always found with his wife and children when the big show is over in the afternoon. "Most of us who follow the show business were born to it. Our fathers and mothers were performers. When we married we took girls who, like us, were born into the guild. We are training our children to take part in small acts just as we were trained. That is the way the profession is kept up."

Showmen say that all star performers who are featured today got the essentials of physical training when they were children. No man who has attained manhood without training as a performer breaks into the business. His muscles must be trained before they harden.

Circus Father Is Teacher.

In changeable America it is the exception if the son of a lawyer or of a doctor follows his father's profession. But the son or daughter of a circus performer is always a performer. This is practically the only field from which the circus manager can recruit his forces, and the circus fathers and mothers are the only parents who have the necessary knowledge and the inclination to train their children in circus "stunts" while they are growing.

With Ringling Brothers' circus coming to Fort Wayne on Saturday, there are 400 performers, gathered from every part of the world. They speak nineteen languages. During the season they use a total of 6,000 costumes, all of which are cared for by Mrs. George Hartzell, "the little mother of the circus." She is always motherly and tender, and is the first to rejoice with her girls over a new triumph, or to sympathize with them when they fail. Her husband and her son are clowns.

Own Their Homes.

As is the case with the Hartzells, most of these performers travel in families. They are able to preserve their family life in all its sacredness even under the trying circumstances of the circus season. They have laid by neat sums of money which they have invested in homes where they spend their winters. It was this steadfastness of the home ties, together with the true human hearts found under the grease and paint of the performer, which first attracted Hallie Ermine Rives and other novelists to portray circus life.

OSSIAN NEWS.

Ossian, Ind., July 15.—Mrs. J. B. Ady returned home last evening from Fort Wayne, where she had been visiting in the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Valentine.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chalfant and daughters, Vivian and Margaret, of Garrett, came Tuesday for a several days' visit with Mr. Chalfant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Chalfant.

Those as her guests were Mesdames Clyde Hanna, Lillian Spencer, Nellie Ferguson, Mattie Hawley, Kate Way, Catherine Goshorn, Dora Woodward, Susie Caston, Elmira Quackenbush, Margaret Bowman, and as guests Mrs. Charles Fall and Miss Edna Oliver.

Mrs. Walter Davison and Miss Lurah Davison have gone to Michigan for a month's visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Zane.

SAYS ALASKA OFFERS INDEPENDENCE FOR WOMEN WITH HEALTH AND NERVE.

Mrs. Mary E. Hart, and pictured episode in panning gold.

San Francisco, July 15. "Chances for women in Alaska?" said Mrs. Mary E. Hart. "Why, bless your heart—yes! Lots of chances to win independence as well as contentment, if they have health and a moderate amount of grit."

As president of the Alaska Cruise club and hostess of the Pacific Coast Steamship company's Alaska exhibit here, Mrs. Hart is daily asked by women what chance they have of making good in the far north.

"Grit, faith and self-confidence they must have," she resumed, slipping a fur parka over a resplendent reception gown which instantly transformed her from the urbane woman of soft conventions to the "Sourdough" of many hazardous adventures.

"I went to Alaska years ago just as many women are now going—seeking adventure and to earn a living," she resumed.

"I worked with my hands beside the men, mining. For three seasons I panned gold at Anvil, wielding pick and shovel and washing gravel.

"My husband—who was then too sick to work—and I had a 'lay' on a good claim. I saved $18 a day by doing the work of a mine foreman and cook at the same time, since I would have had to pay out that much for a boss and a cook.

"I must add caution to the other requisites for success in tackling pioneer tasks in the northland. Lack of it nearly cost me my life.

"In taking out gold-bearing gravel I had disregarded the warning of old miners never to dig under the heavy overhang of slate and surface rock. Many a 'chekako' had lost his life in such a manner.

"I saw the glint of raw gold, and burrowed in my excitement like a Malamute dog. Suddenly I heard warning cries, and sprawled backward just in time to escape burial under an avalanche of loosened shale. As it was, I was covered to the neck in rock and earth, so that it took the miners some time to release me."

Mrs. Hart has acquired and sold a number of claims, accumulating a respectable fortune through her own efforts. She is vice president of the Pacific Coast Women's Press association and a writer and lecturer of note.

"Grit, health and caution a woman as well as a man can do wonderful things with this equipment in Alaska, a land of almost untouched possibilities," she concluded.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, July 15.—Although wheat at the start today showed a tendency to decline, prices quickly recovered. The failure of Liverpool quotations to reflect in full the sharp advances here, led at first to a good deal of selling. After opening ⅛c to 1⅛c lower, the market underwent a further sag and then rose in some cases slightly above last night's level.

Closing prices were unsettled at ⅜c to 1⅜c net decline.

Corn swayed with wheat. The opening, which ranged from the same as last night to ⅜c down, was followed by an additional decline and later a complete rally.

The close was nervous, ¾c to 1¼c under last night.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, July 15.—War shares gave promise of greater activity and higher prices at the opening of today's trading. Gains of one to almost two points were registered by Bethlehem Steel, Crucible Steel, Westinghouse, General Motors and Baldwin Locomotive, with a new high record for the latter. In the more representative issues yesterday's irregularity was renewed, Southern Pacific displaying marked heaviness. Canadian Pacific also reflected further pressure, despite its substantial gain in the London market, where other international stocks were variably lower. The reactions from early prices were general before the end of the half hour.

Southern Pacific extended its loss to almost two points and declines of one to two points were made by Great Northern and New Haven before fresh buying rallied the list in the second hour. Bethlehem Steel, with an overnight gain of eight points, made a new record, likewise Westinghouse and Willys Overland. American Smelting and National Lead rose two and one and one-half points respectively, but other metal shares made little headway. Bonds were irregular.

ROBBERS' CAVE IS FOUND.

Many Stolen Articles Unearthed on Farm Near Evansville.

Evansville, Ind., July 14.—A robbers' cave, such as pictured in magazines of the yellow back variety, was found by the police here, following the arrest of James Goodge, age nineteen, and Ollie Reotzel, age twenty-one. The two young men were arrested on the charge of breaking into the Schuler implement store and under a grilling by the detectives, told of a cave on the banks of Pigeon creek, in the western part of the city, where they had been hiding their plunder. Many stolen articles were recovered by the police.

BOYS' DAY WAS A BIG SUCCESS

Manager Williams, of Robison Park, King of Boyville Wednesday.

Wednesday was the very best Boys' Day Manager C. H. Williams, of Robison park, ever pulled off. Hundreds of youngsters in costume headed by the State School band, were in line in the dress parade, and the athletic contests attracted a great many more. Tom Pion, of Huntertown will be known to all who pass him for a day or two by the very distinct odor of vasoline, and it was he who reached the very top of the greased pole and pulled down a beautiful gun metal watch.

A thousand pennies were scattered through the crowd at one time and that there were no fatalities may be chalked up to the grinning little luck god who watches over small boys. Three thousand candy eggs, a hundred baseballs, a hundred masks and gloves and jewelry galore were distributed.

"DEATH NOTE" NOW OFFERED IN COURT

Myrtle Reed's Letter to Mother Bares Tragedy in Novelist's Life.

Chicago, July 15.—Four years ago the love story of Myrtle Reed, the author, who had immortalized her husband, James Sydney McCullough, in prose and verse, came to a tragic end when she committed suicide in "Paradise Flat," her Kenmore avenue apartment. During the five years of her married life her "model husband," as she called McCullough was believed to have furnished the inspiration for "Lavender and Old Lace," "The Master's Violin," and other love stories from her pen.

Mystery shrouded her death and an effort was made to hush up the suggestion that she was convinced that her husband no longer loved her. A note addressed to her aged mother was never made public.

Yesterday in Circuit Judge Windes' court her father, Hiram V. Reed, sought to have McCullough deposed as trustee of her estate of about $91,000. Negligence and misapplication of funds were charged. Mr. Reed's attorney planned to show that Mrs. McCullough expected to change her will before she committed suicide.

Mysterious Letter Presented.

What purported to be the mysterious note was offered in evidence. It was typewritten and only two words of script appeared in it. Judge Windes ruled that it was not sufficiently identified and rejected it as evidence. The offered note reads in part:

"Dearest Mother: After five years of torment I have set myself free. I suppose you'll think it's cowardly, but I cannot help it. I cannot bear it any longer. Last night was the twelfth anniversary of our meeting. He was to come home early and bring me some flowers, and instead of that he came home at half past 1 so drunk he couldn't stand up."

"Last year my birthday and the anniversary of our engagement were the same way. This morning he went out of town without even waking me up to say good-by to me or telling me where he was going or when he would be back. All I asked of him was that he should come home sober at half-past 6 as other men do, but he refuses to give me even this. I am crushed, overwhelmed, drowned. Forgive me, please. With love always, MYRTLE."

"Long Story," Says McCullough.

McCullough was out of the city at the time of his wife's death. Upon his return he said that she had probably taken her life while mentally unbalanced.

"Have you any comment to make on the letter written by your wife to her mother?" he was asked yesterday.

"O, I could tell you a long story if I wanted to," said he, carelessly. "There's nothing to it at all. I could show you worse letters than that. I doubt if she ever wrote it anyways. There is no proof. To understand this matter you must know that my wife's father and her brother have been fighting to get control over her estate. They didn't get enough to satisfy them under the will."

Although Judge Windes refused to depose McCullough as administrator, he ordered him to make a definite report, setting forth the condition of the property, with a list of all disbursements. Further, he directed that McCullough should report from time to time as the court might direct and ordered him to give a permanent bond of $50,000. The court said that the trustee's conduct had been improper.

OPEN BIDS TONIGHT.

The bids for the building of the church edifice of Trinity German Lutheran church in Bloomingdale will be opened Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in Architect J. M. E. Riedel's office and the contract will be awarded to the lowest bidder.

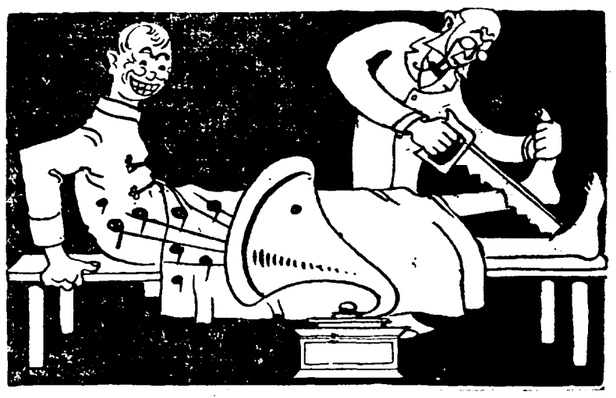
GOLLY, THAT'S SOME JIGGIN'—IS THIS A TANGO TEA OR A HOSPITAL?



Aurora, Ill., July 15.—"If it's a case of gall stones a snappy little jig step would be soothing to the patient who becomes restive under the knife, but when a leg's to be sawed off"—here the doctor paused to consider a program suitable under the circumstances. "Well, I wouldn't play a march, nor yet a tango, but something sentimental such as 'I didn't raise my boy to be a soldier.'"

Thus is another burden laid upon the shoulders of the family doctor—science having discovered that ragtime helps the patient to forget the saw and knife, the surgeon must prepare music as well as antiseptics for his victim.

Dr. W. P. Sherman, who has installed a phonograph in the operating room of St. Joseph's hospital declares "The canned music may not make a fellow forget pain, but it routs the blues and helps him to pluck up again even if he is minus a leg or his appendix."

CASES CONTINUED.

Sixteen cases against the Continental Sugar Beet company, of Woodburn, brought by former employes for back wages alleged to be due, which were to have been heard Thursday in the court of Justice of the Peace Henry J. Grabner, have been continued.

PROTESTS WAR SALES MADE TO THE ALLIES

London, July 15.—A dispatch from Berlin by way of Amsterdam to the Exchange Telegraph company, today says:

"The Austro-Hungarian protest to America is a sequel to the recent conference at Vienna between Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German imperial chancellor, and Gottlieb von Jagow, the German foreign minister, and Baron Stephen Burian von Rajecz, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister.

"The protest was sent at the request of Germany, and Turkey will follow suit.

"The object is to warn America that a rupture of relations with Germany will mean also a rupture with Germany's allies."

The Austro-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs sent a note to the American ambassador at Vienna on June 29, according to a dispatch received in London by Reuter's Telegram company, drawing attention to the fact that commercial business in war material on a large scale was proceeding between the United States and the entente allies, while Autsra-Hungary and Germany were completely cut off from the American market.

The note, it was said, set forth that this subject had occupied the attention of the Austrian government from the very beginning and that although it was convinced that the American attitude rose from no other intention than to observe the strictest neutrality and international agreements, yet it was a question whether conditions as they have developed during the course of the war, were not of such a kind as in their effect to turn "the intentions of the Washington cabinet in a contrary direction."

The note was quoted as saying that a neutral government could not be allowed to trade in contraband unhindered if it took the dimensions whereby the neutrality of the country would be endangered. It was pointed out regarding possible objections, that American industry was willing to supply the central powers with goods, but could not, owing to the war situation; that the United States government was in a position to redress this state of affairs by advising the entente allies that the supply of food stuffs and war material would be suspended "if legitimate trade in these articles between Americans and neutral countries was not permitted."

NOT REGARDED AS PROTEST.

Washington Not Even Certain Note Requires Reply.

Washington, July 15.—Austria's diplomatic representations that American exports of war munitions to the allies have attained dimensions endangering the neutrality of the United States have been under consideration at the state department since July 1 and so far it has not been determined what reply, if any, the United States will make. The Austrian note delivered to Ambassador Penfield on June 29, probably will not be given out here. It is substantially reported, however, in news dispatches from Vienna.

The Austrian note contends that war exports as "a proceeding of the present war are not on consonance with the definition of neutrality."

It adds that it "would be quite sufficient to advise the enemies of Austria-Hungary and Germany that the supply of foodstuffs and war material would be suspended if legitimate trade in these articles between Americans and neutral countries were not permitted."

German officials have openly declared the United States fully within its rights as a neutral in selling war exports to the allies. Austria's representations touch a different phase of the question.

State department officials do not regard the Austrian communication in the nature of a protest and are not yet cer-

Berlin Calls Attack on the American Ship "Unfortunate Accident.

Washington, July 15.—Germany, in an official memorandum transmitted today from Berlin by Ambassador Gerard, admits that the American steamer Nebraskan was torpedoed by a submarine, expresses regret and readiness to make reparation, and assures the United States that the attack "was not meant for the American flag but is to be considered an unfortunate accident."

Secretary Lansing made public the German memorandum which disposes of the question whether the Nebraskan was struck by a torpedo or by a mine. The German membrandum closes the incident, it was said, except as to the payment of damages.

Lansing Makes Statement.

The state department made this announcement:

"Ambassador Gerard has telegraphed to the state department the following memorandum from the German foreign office relative to the damaging of the American steamer Nebraskan by a German submarine:

" 'The German government observed from newspapers reports the intelligence that the steamer Nebraskan had been damaged by a mine or torpedo on the southwest coast of Ireland. It therefore started a thorough investigation of the case without delay and from the result of the investigation it has become convinced that the damage to the Nebraskan was caused by an attack by a submarine.

History of the Case.

Cleveland, O., July 15.—John D. Rockefeller arrived here this morning from Tarrytown, N. Y., to spend the summer at Forest Hill, his Cleveland residence. His trip, which was to have been made prior to his 76th birthday anniversary July 8, was delayed because of the attack by Frank Holt upon J. P. Morgan and consequent fear that Rockefeller might be the object of a similar outrage by a crank.

The oil king was accompanied by Miss Lucy Spellman, sister of the late Mrs. Rockefeller. Mr. Rockefeller looked more worn and feeble than a year ago, but appeared in jovial spirits. Mr. Rockefeller said his stay here would be a "good long one."

The force of guards at Forest Hill has been heavily increased.

Chicago, July 15.—The funeral of Archbishop James Edward Quigley, who died last Saturday in Rochester, N. Y., was held here today with high church dignitaries from various parts of the United States and several from foreign countries attending. In the three days since the body was brought here it was estimated that 150,000 persons have joined in paying tribute to the archbishop's memory. Hours before the time for the funeral mass, thousands flocked to the cathedral of the Holy Name.

A procession of more than a thousand priests, led by the celebrants of the solemn high pontifical mass, moved slowly from the parish house to the cathedral.

Cardinal Gibbons and Archbishop Bonzano, papal delegate, occupied the thrones of their respective offices in the church. Archbishop Bonzano celebrated the mass and Archbishop Hanna, of San Francisco, preached the funeral sermon. Among the assistants to Archbishop Bonzano was Bishop Alerding, of Fort Wayne, Ind.

MAY BE CATHERINE WINTERS.

West Virginia Officers Believe They Have Discovered Girl.

Mannington, W. Va., July 15.—The police here believe that an 11-year-old child giving the name of Anna Waltman, who was abandoned early in the week by a band of wanderers consisting of three men and two women, may be Catherine Winters, who was kidnaped from her home in Newcastle, Ind., two years ago. The girl, who tells a disconnected story, says she was stolen at Indianapolis while on her way to a moving picture show. Her photograph has been sent to the Newcastle authorities.

EXPLOSION WRECKS BIG GRAIN ELEVATOR

New York, July 15.—An explosion today wrecked a big grain elevator in Weehawken, across the Hudson river from New York, and severely injured a half dozen men who were working there. The elevator, constructed of steel concrete, belongs to the Westshore Railroad company and it was said the damage would be heavy. The whole upper part of the elevator was torn away.

The police immediately started an investigation to determine whether an explosion of grain dust or a bomb caused the damage. The elevator has been handling much grain for export to Europe since the war began.

FLOODS CONTINUE TO INFLICT HEAVY LOSS

Kansas City, July 15.—Although the sun shone throughout the northwest of Missouri and eastern Kansas today for virtually the first time in a week, overflowing streams which have been menacing lives and causing great property damage, continued their devastation today.

The towns of Rosendale, Agency and Corning, in northwest Missouri, are under water and their inhabitants have fled to the hills. Three miles of the Santa Fe railroad track is washed out.

At Kansas City the Missouri river had reached a stage of 25.1 feet today and predictions were that it would go over 26 feet by tomorrow. The record high water mark here this year was 25 feet. Hundreds of acres of Missouri lowlands were flooded.

SENATOR UNDER KNIFE.

Thompson, of Kansas, Submits to Minor Surgical Operation.

CHARGES AGAINST HUNTSMAN BLOW UP

Bedford, Iowa, July 15.—The case against Bates Huntsman, on preliminary hearing here charged with a part in the murder of Nathaniel Smith, a Missouri cattleman, and his son, in 1876, was dismissed today.

The case was dismissed upon the motion of the attorneys for Huntsman. Attorney General Cosson acquiesced in the motion after the court had refused to admit the evidence of John Derrickson, with reference to Dr. A. E. Goliday, a hermit druggist, in whose house $43,000 of the money alleged to have been taken from the cattleman is said to have been found.

Goliday was one of the men who, according to Mrs. Maria Collins Porter, the state's principal witness, helped carry the body of Nathan Smith past the house of Jonathan Dark to an old well, into which it was thrown.

AUTO HITS HAY WAGON.

Two Injured When Car Crashes Into Hammond Picnic Party.

Hammond, Ind., July 15.—George Mille and George Anderson were seriously injured near here early today when the automobile in which they were riding crashed into a hay wagon which was carrying ten young men and women. The hay wagon was overturned but none of the young people were injured.

PRISON POPULATION GROWS.

Jeffersonville Reformatory Houses Total of 1,123 Inmates.

Jeffersonville, Ind., July 15.—It was announced that there are now 1,123 men in the reformatory here. This is the largest number that has been in the institution at one time since 1910, when 1,299 men were confined.

INJURIES ARE FATAL TO RIDGEVILLE MAN

L. A. Renburger Who Was Knocked from Car at Calhoun Subway Dies.

Luther A. Renburger, aged 30 years, of Ridgeville, Ind., died at 3:30 o'clock Thursday morning at the Lutheran hospital from injuries which he suffered Wednesday night while attempting to board a car near the Calhoun street subway. The accident occurred when Mr. Renburger tried to get on the car at Baker street, but the doors had been closed and he was hanging on the side of the car as it went down grade under the elevation. The first support struck him and he was thrown with violence to the pavement. The car was immediately stopped and the injured man was taken to the Lutheran hospital where death followed.

Mr. Renburger, who had been in Detroit, had just returned from that city and was standing at Calhoun and Baker streets when he saw his niece on the car. The street car had already started down grade when he attempted to get on. He suffered a broken hip, crushed thigh and internal injuries.

The deceased was formerly a conductor on the Pennsylvania railroad and was well known by railroad men in this city. Besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Renburger, he is survived by a daughter, Mildred, aged 6 years, and two brothers and one sister, Alva M. and Ada L. Renburger and Mrs. Ollie Shilling, all of Ridgeville.

The remains were shipped to Ridgeville over the G. R. & I. at noon Thursday by Getz & Cahill.

CONTRACTS AWARDED BY SCHOOL BOARD

Contracts amounting to $2,412.76 were awarded at noon Thursday at a meeting of the board of school trustees in the office of Superintendent J. N. Study for improvements at the McCullough school. An addition will be built in which lavatories will be installed.

The contract for the general carpenter work was awarded to Michael Kinder whose bid was $1,195; the plumbing to Joseph P. Martin & Co., whose bid was $1,197.26 and the wiring to P. B. Arnold, whose bid was $20.50. Work on the improvements will begin at once in an effort to have them completed before the opening of school in September.

Superintendent Study was authorized to purchase two portable school buildings from the American Portable House company, of Seattle, Washington. The two buildings will cost $1,150.

RESIGNATION RUMOR LACKS CONFIRMATION

Cornish, N. H., July 15.—Reports that George T. Marye, American ambassador to Petrograd, had presented his resignation to President Wilson, were lacking in confirmation here today. The president could not be reached directly, but members of his party said that Mr. Marye's resignation had not been received since Mr. Wilson reached Cornish.

President Wilson divided his time today between working, golfing and automobiling. He was out on the golf links early in the morning and afterwards retired to his study to consider official business. He has been absent from Washington during his present trip longer than at any other time since becoming president.

OFFICER INSPECTS CO. E. INDIANA N. G.

Captain John Toffey, a United States army officer, arrived in this city Thursday noon for the annual inspection of Company 3, first separate battalion, Indiana National Guard, formerly known as Company D, Third infantry. Thursday afternoon the army officer inspected the armory and the equipment of the local company.

Thursday evening he will inspect the members of the company, beginning at 8 o'clock. This is an important inspection for if the company does not make a passing grade it will be dismissed. The required number of men and officers have, however, been secured, which will be one point in its favor.

FIVE PERSONS INJURED WHEN JITNEY BUS SKIDS.

South Bend, Ind., July 15.—Miss Eva Dills, of Mishawaka, is the most seriously injured of the five persons who were hurt here today when a jitney bus skidded on a slippery pavement and crashed into a telephone pole. Lawrence Harrison, driver of the car; Herbert Eynoart, Norton Ruple and Thomas Smith are the other injured persons.

NEW SUCCESS FOR GERMANS

NEW ACTIVITY IN EASTERN WAR AREA

The official statement from Berlin announces the capture and also records successes along the east Prussian frontier to the northeast. The village of Konsya, south of Kolno, has been taken, and the heights of Olszauka, northeast of Suwalki, stormed.

Simultaneously the Germans report the breaking down of attempts by the French to win back lost ground in the Argonne region and the infliction of heavy losses upon the attacking forces.

Paris reports the capture of a line of German trenches north of Arras and the failure of a German attack in the Woevre region. It concedes a German advantage at one disputed point in the Argonne.

Austria has made representations to Washington that this country's exportation of war munitions to the entente allies have reached such dimensions as to threaten the neutrality of the United States.

Berlin, July 15.—Przasnysz, a town of Russian Poland, 50 miles north of Warsaw, has been captured by the German forces, according to an official statement given out today by the German army headquarters staff.

The Germans also announce that they have captured the village of Konsya, to the south of Kolno, and have stormed the heights of Olszauka to the northeast of Suwalki.

The Overseas News agency today says: "The conditions of the surrender of the German forces in Southwest Africa make clear that the German troops numbered 204 officers and 3,094 men (a little more than one regular infantry regiment on a war footing) with seven field pieces and 22 machine guns. This force was matched after prolonged warfare and terrible fatigues against 20,000 men. The bravery of the Germans was admitted by the British, who even permitted non-commissioned officers and privates to keep their side arms and guns.

Among the news items prepared by the Overseas News agency today for transmission abroad by wireless telegraphy was the following: "The Austro-Hungarian government has published a Red Book dealing with the preparedness of Italy for war. It shows that the Italian government received incorrect information from its diplomats who underestimated the preparedness of Austria.

Washington, July 15.—A train between Vera Cruz and Mexico City has been wrecked by a bomb near Apizaco. The explosion killed and wounded many persons. A cablegram from Vera Cruz to the state department says it is uncertain whether the train left Vera Cruz July 12 or July 13. The railroad has discontinued selling tickets to Mexico City.

WELSH MINERS DEFY GOVERNMENT'S EDICT

London, July 15.—A dispatch from Cardiff to the Central News agency says that the miners' conference by a vote of 180 to 113, decided not to accept the recommendation of the council to return to work. In one district alone 20,000 men struck, defying the government's proclamation and the provisions of the munitions act would be invoked to prevent a cessation of operations. By 10 o'clock it was estimated that upwards of 120,000 men were out in all parts of the Welsh fields.

Hongkong, July 15.—Tens of thousands of natives are estimated to have been drowned by the floods in the Chinese provinces of Kwantung, Kwangsi and Kiangsi, and the desolation in the devastated districts is terrible according to the latest reports reaching here.

A fire swept area of one mile and raging floods are handicapping the work of rescue at Canton. The city was in darkness last night, the water having inundated the machinery of the electric light plant.

Missionaries have arrived here seeking the assistance of the United States gunboat Callao to aid in the work of rescue. The last report received here from Canton before communication was cut said that the Christian hospital was in danger from fire.

SITUATION IS FRIGHTFUL.

Washington, July 15.—Consul General Anderson at Hongkong reported today that Canton was isolated except to powerful steamers, thousands have been drowned and tens of thousands are taking refuge in high places. Thousands of houses have been burned. American mission property has either been damaged or destroyed, and foreigners are taking refuge at the British consulate at Fu Chow. No Americans have been lost so far as is known.

NEW YORK FACTIONS SEEKING AGREEMENT

With 21,000 Out, More Will Follow if Effort to Settle Fails.

New York, July 15.—With 21,000 workers on men's clothing on strike here, a meeting of committees representing the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America and the American Clothing Manufacturers' association was called for today to prevent a spread of the strike to other cities throughout the country.

Mayer Schonfield, labor adjuster for the clothing manufacturers' association, said there was hope that the further striking could be checked and the present strike settled without additional losses to strikers and manufacturers. Sidney Hillman, president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, said that his organization has been anxious to reach a fair understanding and to avoid a great labor struggle. He added that if necessary the union could call out 80,000 clothing workers in this city to join the strike. Workers on men's pants, knee pants and vests already are on strike.

The labor leaders announced today that 10,000 coat makers had adopted resolutions approving the strike, but would not quit work until after the conference of committees today. Officers of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers said they had received promises from the union leaders in Chicago, Newark, N. J., and elsewhere that a national strike would be called if the contracts held up by the strike here were given out in other cities.

GROWS MORE COMPLICATED.

Bridgeport, Conn., July 15.—With the labor troubles at the great plant of the Remington Arms company rapidly growing more complicated and threatening industrial Bridgeport today turned its eyes hopefully to a conference to be held between Major W. W. Penfield, head of the company, and a committee of the mill wrights' union, in an endeavor to adjust the differences growing out of the company's construction work. Reports are current that the hod carriers, hoisting engineers and members of the sheet metal workers' union will soon go on a sympathetic strike with the structural iron workers unless the troubles are smoothed over. There is also said to be unrest among the machinists in other shops in the city following the announcement that the Remington company had voluntarily made a reduction from a ten to an eight hour day. Predictions are made that other shops will be asked to make similar concessions. In view of a disturbance last night when a laborer was beaten by one of the guards because he stepped over the so-called "deadline" where the construction work is in progress extra precautions have been taken by the company to prevent trouble. Early today the millwrights stationed pickets near the company's buildings.

AWAIT RULING BY HENDRICKS

Thaw's Lawyers Prepare Order for Vacation of Commitment.

Thaw Still Prisoner After Jury's Verdict That He is Sane.

New York, July 15.—While awaiting the direction of Supreme Court Justice Hendrick on the question of Harry K. Thaw's sanity, Thaw's counsel had prepared for submission to court today a formal order vacating the original commitment under which he was first sent to Matteawan asylum. Justice Hendrick had promised to receive application for such an order today.

Although a jury yesterday had rendered a verdict declaring that Thaw is now sane, the justice was not necessarily bound to adopt it, as he had ordered that the jury should act only in an advisory capacity.

Thaw and his counsel had little doubt that the justice's decision would be in accord with the verdict of the jury. In the event of such a decision counsel for the state were ready to give notice of an appeal and to ask that Thaw be held in bail pending decision by a higher court.

Still a Prisoner.

Thaw spent the night, still a prisoner, in Ludlow street jail.

Justice Hendrick, on Friday morning, will announce whether the commitment upon which Thaw was incarcerated in the state hospital for the criminal insane at Matteawan shall be vacated, thereby giving to the slayer of Stanford White the liberty for which he has fought in the courts for nine years.

It was at the end of a day of addresses by counsel and the charge of the justice that the jury retired. While the twelve men were deliberating the crowd in the court room and about the court house was augmented by scores of people who believed that a verdict quickly would be found.

When Jury Came In.

Shortly before 4 o'clock the jury came in.

"Gentlemen of the jury," said the clerk, after Justice Hendricks had read the verdict, "the question you have been asked is this: 'Is Harry K. Thaw now sane?' Your answer is yes."

Despite the warning, several persons stood up in front of their seats. The court room humaned like a dynamo. Justice Hendrick and court attaches rapped for order.

Thaw Kisses Mother.

Then he went to where his mother was sitting a few feet away and, throwing his arms about her neck, kissed her twice. Mrs. Thaw at the same time patted her daughter, Mrs. George L. Carnegie, on the shoulder.

The verdict recorded, John B. Stanchfield, chief counsel for Thaw, made a motion that the commitment signed by Justice Dowling following a verdict of not guilty on the ground of insanity, which was returned by the jury at Thaw's second trial for the murder of White, be vacated. Justice Hendrick then set 11 o'clock today as the time when he would receive briefs and hear arguments in his chambers upon the motion to dismiss the commitment. The jury was discharged and then court adjourned.

As soon as the jury was dismissed Thaw crossed to the box and shook hands warmly with each of the men. His mother also shook hands with the jurymen, saying to each:

"Thank you so much for all that you have done." One of the jurors asked her whether she had ever had any doubt of the result of this proceeding. Mrs. Thaw smiled and replied in the negative.

The jury and Thaw then filed into a room adjoining the court where photographers were waiting. It was with great difficulty that court attendants and deputy sheriffs prevented scores of men and women from dashing up to Thaw in the court room and the anteroom and shaking his hand in congratulation of his legal victory.

Demonstration for Thaw.

When Thaw flanked by deputy sheriffs, appeared in the doorway of the court house a great cheer went up and those who did not cheer applauded with their hands. Thaw seemed much pleased at the demonstration.

In explaining why two ballots were taken one of the jurors, Paul J. Marks, a brother of the president of the borrough of Manhattan, said that on the first ballot the vote was eleven to one that Thaw was sane. The dissenting juror said that he cast his ballot that way more as a matter of form than anything else, so that the verdict would not be rendered without formal discussion. The vote was unanimous on the second ballot.

Mr. Marks also said that he and the other members of the jury believed that Thaw was eccentric and, possibly, mentally weak, but that they did not believe that he would harm any one else.

Seattle, Wash., July 15.—Today brought to a close the business session of the 41st council of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. The most important matter to come before it is the selection

J. Putnam Stevens, of Portland, Maine, imperial deputy potentate during the last year, is advanced by the council to imperial potentate and the other members of the imperial divan assume their numerous offices. In the selection of a place for next year's meeting, Buffalo appears to be most favord.

The imperial council established new temples in four cities—Fort Worth, Texas; Springfield, Ill.; Houston, Texas, and Knoxville, Tenn., and granted a dispensation, not immediately effective, to Roanoke, Va. A parade of visiting temples and a drill by the Indianapolis team were the features of yesterday's program.

MILK NOW FAVORITE DRINK.

New York, July 15.—Milk is becoming the favorite drink of residents of New York and the number of licensed saloons here is decreasing, according to the statisticians of the health department. They announced today that the consumption of milk in this city had increased 50 per cent. in ten years and that the daily average per capita in the borough of Manhattan is 3.63 gills.

HEAVY RAIN STORM DOES MUCH DAMAGE

Another storm visited Allen county, Wednesday night, but fortunately the damage was not so great as on former occasions. The rain fell in torrents for several hours, accompanied by much wind and lightning.

Several long distance telephone lines were put out of commission and the telegraph companies also had some trouble in establishing communication with outside cities. Many acres of hay had been cut and was down, the farmers taking advantage of the warm weather Monday and Tuesday. As a result many fields of hay were damaged. Some little damage also was done to the standing wheat.

In many sections of the city the catch basins were unable to accommodate the downpour of rain and many of them became clogged and backed up. Several cellars and gardens were flooded in the 200 block on East Leith street. At Berry and Calhoun streets the water stood almost a foot deep.

GIRL INDICTED FOR SLAYING HER MOTHER

Noblesville, Ind., July 15.—Miss Inez Burk was indicted by the Hamilton county grand jury last night, charged with manslaughter for the killing of her mother, Mrs. Archie McClain, Sunday, July 4.

Judge Vestal announced that the trial of Miss Burk probably would be started next Saturday. A brief trial is expected, as most of the evidence is admitted, the girl having made a complete confession of the killing.

STOLEN JEWELS COME BACK.

Greenfield, Ind., July 14.—Five or six years ago, the home of Fred Williams, in Jackson township, was entered while the family was away, and a small box of jewelry was stolen. Last week Williams received a package by parcel post which contained the stolen box and every piece of the stolen jewelry. Neatly folded in the box were three new $1 bills. There was no word of explanation.

RETIRING OFFICERS HONORED.

A smoker was given by the members of Vorwaerts Turnverein Wednesday evening in honor of the officers who have been at the head of the organization for the past twelve months. The affair was given at Turner hall following the regular monthly meeting. On Wednesday evening, June 21, the annual meeting and election of officers will take place.

A COUNTRY SURPRISE.

Columbia City, Ind., July 15. At the beautiful country home of Wm. Berry in Jefferson township, a beautiful surprise was given Miss Luella Berry, it being her 16th birthday. It was a double surprise, as it was Luella's Uncle Ivan Swaidner's 38th birthday too. The table in the diningroom was nearly loaded with flowers and the porch was lit with Japanese lanterns. The young people enjoyed out door sports while the older ones had their share of fun. At a late hour ice cream and cake were served. Those that enjoyed the evening were Misses Hattie and Irene Taylor, Bertrude, Alice and Ino Robinette, Florence Shinbeckle, Goldie Harshbarger, Lake Bozworth, Bessie Peppignot and Luella Berry and Russel and Harry Taylor, Ralph Shinbeckle, Russell Plummer, Elva Cowan and Lawrence Bridge, Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Robinette, George Hatfield, Oran Swaidner and daughter, Lucile, Clarence Robinette and children, Marjorie and Robert, Clinton Robinette and daughters, Dorothy, Ferne and Florence, J. W. Berry and son, Everette and Philip Long. Miss Luella and Mr. Swaidner received many pretty and useful gifts. All departed at the small hours of morning wishing both many more happy birthdays.

ALBION MINISTER RESIGNS.

Albion, Ind., July 15.—Rev. C. S. Bream, pastor of the Albion Lutheran charge composed of St. Mark's of this place, Rehobeth and Mt. Pleasant churches, has resigned to accept a call to the Lutheran church at Middlebury, Ind. His resignation becomes effective August 1. Rev. Mr. Bream has been pastor of the local circuit for nearly three years. Under his leadership the congregations have been prosperous and have been considerably enlarged. He is a young man of pleasing personality and has been tireless in his efforts. The new pastorate is a distinct promotion.

SUES DOCTOR FOR $5,000.

Huntington, Ind., July 15.—Mae B. Kreig in a suit filed here yesterday on a change of venue from the Wabash circuit court asks $5,000 damages from Dr. George L. Shoemaker, of North Manchester, accusing him of malpractice. She alleges that she consulted the physician for treatment of a pimple on her right thigh on April 7, 1913, but that due to his negligence she was kept in bed six weeks and then was taken to a hospital in Fort Wayne for an operation and remained there seven weeks during which time her life was despaired of. On her return home she declares the doctor was careless in bandaging the wound and an infection again set in which forced her to the hospital. She said she must take medicine for the remainder of her life because of the careless handling of the disease.

IS NOW PRACTICING LAW.

WARSAW CAR DISAPPEARS.

Warsaw, Ind., July 15.—All trace of a 1914 model Saxon auto which mysteriously disappeared from Dr. Richer's garage in the rear of the Jack Glessner property has been lost, the car being stolen some time between 10:30 Tuesday night and 7 o'clock Wednesday morning. Chief Moon has been in communication with the police of a number of cities within a radius of forty miles of Warsaw, but as yet no car answering the description of Dr. Richer's has been found in the hands of suspicious persons.

CLAIMS HE IS POET; LOCKED UP.

Waterloo, Ind., July 15.—Officers Poorman and Vaughn locked up a man Tuesday night who acted strangely on the streets and claimed that he was a poet and lecturer, that he was a student studying nature as he traveled over the country. He reached Waterloo Tuesday forenoon and during the afternoon worked for Eugene Kelley in the harvest field just east of town. In the evening he seemed to be very talkative to any audience that he could get to listen to him. He was harmless, but simply had a hobby to talk. He gave his name as Halson Lester, of Nappa, Idaho. He said that he was 57 years of age.

WELLS COUNTY SHERIFF HURT.

KINDNESS IS REWARDED.

Montpelier, Ind., July 15. Jack Winnings, Montpelier pool room proprietor, is $600 richer today because of the fact that he treated Robert Harton, aged Montpelier man, kindly during Harton's period as an employe of Jack. The latter not only cared for Harton well while he was living, but also gave him a decent burial recently. Today Harton's will was probated in the circuit court and it was found that he had left $900 to Winnings. The estate consists of money on deposit in the Farmers' Deposit bank, of Montpelier. No one knew he had the money. Mr. Winnings spent $300 on Harton's burial.

OVERCOME BY THE HEAT.

Warsaw, Ind., July 15.—Ernest Hughes, son of Link Hughes, of West Market street, suffered a heat stroke while painting at Phillipson's clothing store on Buffalo street and for a time was in a critical condition. He was taken to the office of Dr. McDonald and soon revived sufficiently to be taken home, where he is resting easier today. Mr. Hughes was working upon a swinging stage when he became faint.

VAN WERT COUNTY MAN DIES.

Van Wert, O., July 15.—Jacob Mosier, aged 83 years, died at his home in Hoaglin township suddenly Tuesday morning at an early hour. The deceased was born in Ohio and for many years resided in Hoaglin township. He is survived by his wife and several children. Funeral services were held at Fairview United Brethren church this morning at 10 o'clock sun time. Rev. E. F. Famble preached the funeral sermon. Burial was made in Ridge cemetery.

KILLED IN WISCONSIN AFFRAY.

Montpelier, Ind., July 15.—Word has been received here by friends of the tragic death of George Stockton, a former baker in this city. Stockton was working in a bakery in Wisconsin when he got into a quarrel with another man over an instrument. The other man drew a gun and fired at Stockton, the bullet passing through the body and lodging in the backbone. An operation performed to save the young man's life was not a success.

MONTPELIER MAN INJURED.

Montpelier, Ind., July 15.—John Phillips, section boss for the Indiana Union Traction, was bruised about the head and shoulders when he was struck by an automobile driven by Mrs. A. G. Nicholson, and knocked to the pavement. The injured man was taken to his home in a dazed condition. The injuries will not prove serious.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY PLANNED.

Hartford City, Ind., July 15.—A meeting will be held at the public library next Friday evening for the purpose of organizing a historical society in this county. County Superintendent N. C. Townsend and the Hon. B. G. Shinn, the latter one of the pioneers of Hartford City, are behind the movement.

PAPER CUPS FOR PINK LEMO.

Indianapolis, July 15.—The paper cup this year will supplant the glass tumbler as the vehicle of the street and county fair beverages to the general public, because of an order just issued by H. E. Barnard, state food and drug commissioner, to all "privilege" men at Indiana fairs. These men are warned not to rent space at any fair or exhibition to lunch and beverage stands unless all sales of lemonade, cider and other beverages are made in paper cups.

The letter follows:

"We are having more difficulty in regulating the sanitation of lunch and beverage stands than any other class of dealers of foods. The men who work the fairs are poorly equipped, careless and irresponsible.

"Will you advise all who apply for space at your fair that they will not be allowed to sell lemonade, cider or other beverages unless they are prepared to serve each customer in a paper cup. Glass tumblers will not be allowed.

"All foodstuffs must be thoroughly protected all the time. Candies and crackerjack, etc. must not be made on the grounds.

"State inspectors and local health officers are instructed to see that these orders are rigidly enforced."

Columbus Man Says He Wants to Do Square Thing on Assessment.

Columbus, Ind., July 15.—John H Strictelmeier, of this city, went before the Bartholomew county board of review and protested against having the value of his real estate lowered by the township assessor. He protested against paying less for taxes than he now pays. Strictelmeier desired money from the school fund some time ago and school fund loans must be secured by a certain amount of real estate. The auditor negotiated the loan and the value of Strictelmeier's land, as surety for the loan, was fixed.

Now the assessor has come along and lowered the value of the land. Strictelmeier thought about this and came to the conclusion that the county was not as amply protected as it was when he first borrowed the money. He said he wished to do the square thing by the county and although he was not in love with the idea of paying high taxes when he could have them lowered, he was perfectly willing to do so if that was the right thing to do. The board has not yet acted on his request.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

Genesis 42:29-38.

29 And they came unto Jacob their father unto the land of Canaan, and told him all that befell unto them; saying,

30 The man, who is the lord of the land, spake roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country.

31 And we said unto him, We are true men; we are no spies:

32 We be twelve brethren, sons of our father; one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.

33 And the man, the lord of the country, said unto us, Hereby shall I know that ye are true men; leave one of your brethren here with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and be gone:

34 And bring your youngest brother unto me; then shall I know that ye are no spies, but that ye are true men; so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall traffick in the land.

35 And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that, behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack: and when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

36 And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have ye bereaved of my children; Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away; all these things are against me.

37 And Reuben spake unto his father saying, Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again.

38 And he said, My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he is left alone; if mischief befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

Federal Trade Board Plans

The federal trade commission, designed as a governmental aid to American industry, has after many months practically completed its organization and has given out something of its plans for handling the big task which it will set out to accomplish. Briefly, the commission has shifted its machinery into four departments, one to be known as the administrative, another as the economic, the third as the legal department, and the fourth as a board of review.

The administrative branch will work under the immediate supervision of the secretary to the commission, who has not yet been appointed. It will handle all matters of administration. The economic department will be placed in charge of a trained economist who will be known as the chief economist of the commission. It will have charge of all economic investigations, as well as corporation reports. Various divisions will be created in it to handle the various lines of work which will come before it. An economic board of review will finally pass on all questions in the department before they will be submitted to the commission. The legal department, under a chief counsel, will attend to investigations, hearings and court work. A board of law review will pass finally on all legal questions. The work of the economic and legal departments will be co-ordinated in a joint board of review, which will pass upon cases after both departments have submitted reports. Through the division of corporation reports in the economic deparment the commission hopes to develop an information bureau for business men which will aid in building up American industry..

The federal trade commission is apparently going to be either a tremendously useful adjunct to the development of American trade and industry, or a most conspicuous failure. It is going to require the test of actual operation to determine just which of these results is to be the outcome. In its functions it is quite unlike any other governmental creation, and it must map out a new and untried pathway. If it can make good on half the program outlined by its sponsors, it will serve a splendid purpose in aiding American business.

While under the New York law in such cases it appears that the court is entitled to the last guess, the finding of the jury declaring that Harry Thaw is now sane is unquestionably in accord with popular impression regarding that troublesome young man who has been waging a remarkable fight for his freedom for the past nine years. Indeed, it is doubtful if he ever was insane despite the fact that on three separate occasions authorities solemnly found to that effect. The slaying of Stanford White was a crime which cried for punishment, and it may be that nine years spent for the most part in jails and insane asylums will be accounted as sufficient atonement. It is clear that Thaw cannot again be held for murder, and it is reasonably clear that there is little substantial grounds for longer holding him on the ground that he is insane. Taking it for granted that he will be released, it is fortunate that the Thaw millions are still holding out. Otherwise the long-suffering public might reasonably expect to see her husband follow the example of the angel child and seek to adorn the vaudeville stage.

Under his new contract which has just been signed for a period of two years, Superintendent William Wirt, of the Gary schools, a few years ago similarly engaged at Bluffton, will receive a total salary of $18,500 per annum, making him very nearly the highest-salaried public school official in the United States. Of this sum the city of Gary pays $6,000, and permits Mr. Wirt to devote one day each month as advisory superintendent of the schools at Troy, N. Y., at an annual salary of $2,500, and one week each month to the New York City schools, for which he receives $10,000 a year. It was Superintendent Wirt who evolved what has come to be known as the "Gary idea" in school work, and the salary he is now receiving must go a considerable distance toward confirming Gary's suspicion that it is a mighty fine thing.

Whether or not, like Cincinnatus, he was actually dragged from the plow by the clarion call of his country, it was necessary for the Tenth district republicans to send a band out to the farm of Warren T. McCray, near Kentland, to escort him in to tell the cheering populace that he would be glad to have the republican nomination for governor in Indiana next year. Altogether, it was a rather fetching bit of stagecraft, and Mr. McCray's supporters will doubtless not fail to make the most of the scenic embellishments surrounding the stunt when the proper time arrives.

Apparently the last word regarding a man's "visible means of support" has now been heard. An Indianapolis father, arrested for failure to provide for his three minor children, told the court that he had a job in a saloon "playing cards for the house." Doubtless he will forthwith be strongly envied by that rather large element in his particular social strata which insists that some other fellow always has all the good luck in this world.

MR. EDISON'S SERVICES.

(Indianapolis News.)

Those who read the remarkably sensible statement of Mr. Edison, given to the public a few weeks ago, will be glad to know that he is to be closely associated with the government in the work of organizing its defensive forces. Mr. Daniels, secretary of the navy, proposes to organize a new board, whose duty shall be to test the value of new inventions and processes, and to conduct experiments, and he has invited Mr. Edison to act as adviser to the board. In other words, the idea of the secretary is to utilize to the utmost the science of the nation, and to bring it directly to bear in a practical way. Mr. Edison has accepted the offer.

The question of national defense is not simply one of men, money, supplies and equipment it is also one of intelligence and technical skill. This is recognized by Mr. Daniels. As a result, it is highly probable that those in charge of the navy will be more hospitable to new ideas than some of them have hitherto been. Under the inspiration of Mr. Edison there ought to be a great advance, as no doubt there will be. The work to be done will be chiefly in connection with the navy, since the new board is to be attached to the navy department. It is believed also that much attention will at the start be given to submarine construction. As war is becoming more and more scientific, it is necessary that the best scientific ability be put at the service of the government. Electricity and chemistry will play an increasingly large part in war.

The plan that is to be put in operation by Secretary Daniels is worthy of all praise. It involves the employment of Mr. Edison in work for which he is pre-eminently fitted, and also opens the way to the freest use of civilian experts generally. And that will be very good for the navy department, which is always in danger of falling under control of cliques. The influences that will be brought to bear on it from the outside will have an excellent effect. The program is admirable in every way.

THE PHONE IN POLITICS.

(Pittsburgh Dispatch.)

The New York suffragists threaten to add a new terror to the telephone by putting it in politics. They have selected July 25 as "Telephone Day," when each suffragist in the state is to pledge herself to call up at least two men and solicit their vote for suffrage.

The plan possibly originated with some fair would-be-voter whose experience in telephonic conversation with the voting sex has been of the sweet and prolonged character that causes so many lines to be busy when you are in a hurry. Certainly the women who have planned this means of reaching the voters can have had little experience in being gruffly rebuffed over the wire. If they had they would know that the 'phone will probably be a very poor way of winning adherents to the cause. Many men who are the essence of politeness personally are as likely as not to be perfect bears on the phone. And then there is always the handy expedience of "hanging up" to shut off unwelcome importunity.

Of course, this estimate may do the men an injustice. They may be just as eager to dally over the phone as to exchange courtesies face to face. In fact, outside the effect it may have on the fortunes of the suffragist campaign in New York state there will be a general curiosity to learn how it works. If the women make a success of it every voter's phone may hereafter be doomed to bombardment by candidates—a terrifying thought.

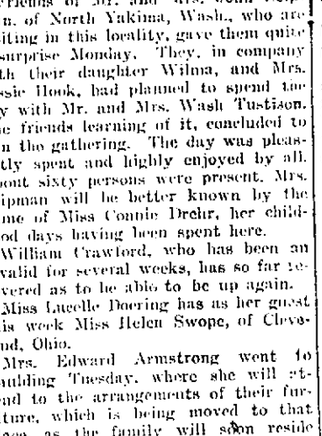
American Girl Was Held as Spy



Miss Bernice Barnett, of San Francisco, who was believed by the Germans to be an English spy and who was detained at Warnemunde on the Baltic coast until her effects had been minutely examined before being allowed to depart for Copenhagen.

Miss Barnett has studied music in Leipzig and Berlin for several years, and shortly after the outbreak of the war had a harrowing experience in the former city when her apartment was raided by a mob who believed her a Russian. Acquaintances saved the girl from molestation.

The German officers at Warnemunde were finally convinced that their suspicions had been unfounded.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

MERCHANTS ARE IN DANGER.

Store Accidents Are Frequent.

ALTHOUGH accident insurance companies consider retail merchants and salesmen as especially good risks, it is shown by the records of the Fort Wayne Mercantile Accident Association that many business men and their employes have received accidental injuries while performing their everyday duties.

"One of our policy holders at Columbus, Ind., George N. Imel, was helping a clerk to move a stove in his hardware and furniture store," says L. H. Ransom, secretary of the Mercantile, "and the stove started to topple over and roll down a stairway. In trying to save it, Mr. Imel fell and had two of his ribs broken.

"Another case was that of Thomas C. Wright, a Greensburg, Ind., druggist, who mashed a couple of fingers while wrestling with a barrel of chemicals.

"Over at Valparaiso, Ind., W. J. McFarland, another merchant, while opening a case of toys, slipped and fell and suffered severe injuries.

"James M. Devine, employed as a clerk in a grocery store at Wabash, Ind., fell off a chair while lifting some goods from a high shelf and suffered injuries on account of which we paid him $107.

"Up at Angola, Ind., J. F. Grass, while cleaning an electrically-driven coffee mill in the grocery department of the Steifel & Sons store, caught his finger in the gearings, with disastrous results.

"We have a large number of merchants in our membership, but we are certain that every Fort Wayne business and professional man who is not yet identified with the Mercantile should join us at this time. Our rates are low and the protection the very best."

Jessie Brown, from northeast of Convoy, was in Van Wert Wednesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smith, Dorothy Hart and Vera Shook motored to Lima Tuesday, where they attended a Ohio State Telephone school, being held there Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Mr. Wm. Muntzinger returned to his home, south of Convoy, Monday evening from a trip of several weeks attending the exposition in California and other points of interest in the west.

Russel Johnson, of Van Wert, was a brief caller in Convoy Tuesday evening.

J. E. Mollenkopf was a business caller in Van Wert Wednesday.

Wayne and Gage Helms spent Wednesday in the country, west of town, with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Helms.

WOMAN LIKES HER RECRUITING JOB

London, June 30.—Correspondence of the Associated Press.—Mrs. A. E. Henley, a prominent Red Cross worker both at home and at the front since the beginning of the war, has been in charge of the woman's section of the latest recruiting campaign in London, speaking daily at from five to a dozen meetings, although she was invalided home from France only a few weeks ago. She is said to have several hundred recruits to her credit.

"I like the work," she said, speaking of her campaign. "I have addressed meetings in practically every section of London during the past fortnight. I simply speak freely on topics within my own experience. What impresses me more than anything else is the intelligent interest displayed by the crowds of people who assemble round the different platforms. People will stand for two hours at a time to hear things about what has been going on in France, and their questions show knowledge and intelligence. They show feeling, too, and they sometimes weep. The lower classes are keenly interested in the issues of the war. Where men of the right sort hold back, I think the reason is often the fear that their places may be filled by other men, by slackers. Often 'government employ' is the answer to my question, 'Why don't you join?'

"What rouses crowds more than anything else is a sporting allusion. I often plead my cause in similes taken from the race track. 'Take your fences squarely,' I tell them, 'and if you come a cropper, get up and go on again.' Always I tell them plenty of stories from my personal repertory. And never without response."

SHE TELLS PLANS OF SUFFUAGE HOSTS

Miss Doris Stevens.

The suffrage states themselves have the power to pass a constitutional amendment enfranchising women, contends Miss Stevens.

"We ask so little of the women of the free states, the suffrage states," she asserted, "simply to stand by women regardless of political entanglements.

"Leaders of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage"—among whom Miss Stevens has a prominent place—"have called this great exposition convention of women voters together, not to educate women voters, because they are already better educated than the men as a rule; not to secure legislation by begging from the men, but to devise a plan of action among the voting women.

"We are doing the political and the obvious thing by coming west where the power is."

Miss Stevens leaped into the limelight practically over night as an organizer. Her rallying cry has been to enfranchised women in behalf of those not yet "free." Still in her early twenties, she has never asked for easy tasks.

Born in Nebraska, she taught school in wildest Montana; did settlement work at a congested vacation camp; trained as a tenement inspector, and had other experiences which determined her belief that the world needs women instead of politicians in high places. She wants things changed, and changed quickly.

"We are," she said, "only asking the women of the west to assist congress in catching up with public opinion. We think it's time an eighteenth century problem was put out of the way for good instead of cluttering up the twentieth century.

"The Congressional union is simply asking the United States to do what every civilized nation in the world has done: Consider the political enfranchisement of women in their legislative bodies.

"Why, there wasn't a nation last year whose congress had not considered this question, except the United States and Turkey!"

RIGHT THIS MINUTE HE'S FOR JOHNSON

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 15.—Just now Theodore Roosevelt is favorable to the nomination of Hiram W. Johnson of California as the Progressive party's candidate for president in 1916. This does not mean that he is irrevocably committed to the plan of nominating Johnson. Political situations change and plans must be changed to meet new emergencies. That is the Colonel's idea about it.

Dwight Hurd of Arizona has written to Roosevelt urging him to endorse Johnson for the Progressive nomination. Roosevelt has replied, expressing his admiration for Johnson and his agreement that Johnson would be an excellent man for the presidential office, but setting out his further conviction that the present is not the time to come forward with personal endorsements of any candidate. Colonel Roosevelt takes the ground that the course to be pursued by the progressive party may depend considerably on that pursued by the republican party. If the latter puts up a man like Root or Weeks and announces a platform like that put out by Mark Hanna for McKinley, the duty of putting a progressive party candidate in the field some man like Hiram Johnson—would be obvious. On the other hand, should the party learn a lesson by its late experiences, and name a forward-looking man of the Cummins type on a platform embodying the essential principles of the progressive platform and adequate military preparedness, the colonel undoubtedly feels although he does not say so that it might become unnecessary to name a progressive candidate.

At this stage of the game, Colonel Roosevelt does not proposed to be forced into the position of having committed himself to any particular candidate of any particular party. He proposes to hold himself entirely free to act when the time comes as he thinks will best advance the cause of Progressivism, and what he now regards as of paramount importance the national defense.

At the present time, however, in view of the apparent complete determination of the old Republican party leaders to have a thoroughly reactionary candidate and platform, it appears to Roosevelt almost inevitable that the Progressives name Hiram Johnson as their presidential candidate. Should the situation change, however, the Colonel does not propose to lay himself open to a charge of having "betrayed" his friend Johnson. This is in entire accord with Johnson's own position. The latter is holding himself free to be a candidate or not as the circumstances at the time seem to warrant. The colonel is enroute to the Pacific coast where he will make several speeches and will confer with Johnson at San Francisco.

Philadelphia's noted old St. Elmo hotel has been demolished. It was opened in 1851.

OLD PLANKS UNEARTHED.

They Were Laid on Michigan Road Constructed in 1826-30.

Logansport, Ind., July 15.—Excavators in a gas main in Biddle avenue, in this city, have uncovered a number of planks of the old Michigan road built in 1828-30, which passed through Logansport from Michigan City to the Ohio river, by way of Indianapolis. The heavy oak scantlings are in fair condition, and a number of them, split open by the workmen's picks, showed stout centers apparently capable of withstanding decay for another eighty-five years. The road through this city and where the gas mains are being laid on Biddles island, is being put in condition for the Dixie highway.

AUTOMOBILE WRECKED.

An automobile belonging to the Wehmeyer Auto Sales company, of Elwood, was badly damaged Wednesday on the Leo road, two and one-half miles from this city. The driver, whose name was not learned, swerved to one side to avoid striking the automobile of George C. Greibel, 1219 Taylor street, and plunged into a ditch and overturned. None of the occupants of the car were injured.

BLIND TIGERS FLOURISH?

Reports from Lake Wawasee Arouse Kosciusko Temperance People.

Goshen, Ind., July 15.—Although Kosciusko county is without saloons, complaints have reached the authorities that blind tigers are flourishing at Lake Wawasee, and that liquor is being sold there in great quantities to summer resorters. The temperance forces of Warsaw are arranging to employ detectives to gather evidence. While prosecutions on blind tiger charges have been made against Syracuse offenders, Lake Wawasee has until this time escaped attention. It is said the violations are so open that any person at the lake has little difficulty in getting beer, whisky and wine in any quantity.

PLANS HEBREW INSTITUTE.

Evansville, Ind., July 15.—Some time before fall it is expected that ground will be broken for the new Hebrew institute, in Vine street, next to the Temple Adath Israel. The institute is to offer to the Jewish people who are members of that congregation advantages for social and community intercourse such as they have never had before in Evansville.

A community center for his people has been the aim and ambition of Rabbi M. Lassen, of the Adath Israel synagogue, since he took his position here, several months ago.

The building will be of brick, three stories high. The ground floor will be given to schoolrooms, meeting rooms and committee halls. The second floor will have an assembly room, with clubrooms for various societies of the church, and a library room to attract the young people. A dancing hall will occupy the third floor and will be arranged so that it may be used also for gymnasium purposes. A stage at one end will provide a place for amateur theatricals. The institute is to be open every day in the year and extend a perpetual welcome to Jewish people.

BIG BLAZE IN SUGAR.

Illo, Panay, P. I., July 15.—More than 3,300 tons of sugar were destroyed in a fire which caused the destruction of a large number of buildings here last night. The sugar, valued at 300,000 pesos ($150,000) represented three-fourths of the loss.

Blindfolded Tire Buyers

Tires which seem identical are often most unlike. There are dozens of standards. The fierce competition compels many a compromise, affecting what you seek.

Features Which Cost Millions

Goodyear Fortified Tires have five great features found in no other tire. They have others which are rare—hidden features, never missed until the tire meets trouble.

These Goodyear extras, on this year's output, will cost us $1,635,000. Our 1915 improvements alone will cost us $500,000 yearly. And nearly all for things you never see—things you never miss until the tire falls down.

Yet our late price reduction saves our users about five million dollars this year. And that was our third reduction in two years, totaling 45 per cent.

How to Judge

Judge tires by the maker. Judge them by known features. Each exclusive Goodyear feature combats a major trouble.

Judge, above all, by records. Not by mere good luck or mishap, but by Tiredom's general verdict. In its 16th year the Goodyear tire far outsells any other. It has outsold for years.

By any measure you can use, Goodyear tires are best. Adopt them. Any dealer will supply you.

Miss Rhoda Phillips, of Toledo, O., is visiting Miss Mabel Vernon, of West Berry street. Miss Phyllis Potter gave a matinee theater party on Tuesday in honor of Miss Phillips and the guests enjoyed dinner after the performance at Miss Potter's home. Miss Edith Orlock entertained on Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Phillips.

Philip, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Dodane, had a birthday party on Wednesday afternoon, not because that was the right date, but because summer is such a fine time to have a party. Mrs. Dodane invited fifteen small friends to the good time. Mrs. Thomas Johnston assisted Mrs. Dodane in waiting upon the little folks at supper time.

Lucile Schaphorst celebrated her sixth birth anniversary on Wednesday at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schaphorst, 730 West Third street, by having a little party. The children present at this good time were Dorothy and Evelyn Stahlfont, Helen Severt, Pudge and Dixie Buchanan, Elizabeth Erwin, Esther Brant, Otto and John Schele, Elmer Doege, Ralph, Edwin and George Schaffer.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Ehlsing entertained at their home at 1217 McClellan street, last evening in honor of Miss Norah Lewis, of Peru. The evening was spent in music and games. The guests, besides Miss Lewis, were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Becker, Ruth Carney, Martha Rodebeck, Stella Kaeck, Virginia Carney, Katherine Brunson, Harriet Brunson and Don Carney, Ben Carney, Jack Monroe, Burton Van Horn, Edw. Burledge, Otto Becker, Carl Kiel, Fred Fish and Lee Emerick. Miss Lewis will spend a few days in Fort Wayne and her friends have arranged for a pleasure party at Robison park this week in her honor.

A Country Party.

A company of relatives enjoyed themselves together with a few friends at a dinner party given on Sunday, July 11, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Hockemeyer, two miles east of Hoagland. The afternoon and evening were spent in a social manner. Guests from the country were Mrs. Jacob Flach and daughter Sophie, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Frankel and children, Delmer and Mildred and Clara Burkamp, from Monroeville; Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Steinman, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Felger, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Davis and daughter Vivian, and from Fort Wayne were Mr. Rowan and daughter Ethel, Miss Bayles, Miss Blanche Taylor.

Macy—Stevens.

Miss Ruth Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Stevens, of Stanwood, Mich., who has been employed as a clerk at the Wayne Knitting mills for several years, and Mr. Gilbert N. Macy, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Macy, of Wabash, were married on Wednesday at 4 o'clock by Rev. A. J. Folsom, pastor of Plymouth church. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue taffle silk and a white Panama hat trimmed with pink ostrich plumes. Miss Grace Barnett was bridesmaid and she wore a flowered voile empire dress with pale blue taffeta jacket. Both bride and bridesmaid wore bouquets of pink rosebuds and sweetpeas. H. C. Moriarity was groomsman. The bride and groom went to Detroit and Buffalo on their wedding trip and will make their home in Montpelier, Ohio, as Mr. Macy is foreman of the Wabash round house. The groom's parents were present at the marriage. Both bride and groom are young people of excellent character and they each have many warm friends in Fort Wayne.

DOROTHY GISH

(By Esther Hoffmann.)

"So much depends upon the way you use your hands," said pretty Dorothy Gish, the other day.

When I asked her what her beauty prescription was for keeping her hands smooth and white she said:

"Of course, the way you use your hands does not particularly make for their whiteness. After the usual care, which every well-groomed woman gives to all her person, there is a grace of poise and gesture that, if acquired, will give almost any girl the reputation of having beautiful hands.

"There is nothing which helps a girl to acquire this as seeing herself as others see her on the screen.

"'Only a few girls are movie actresses,' some of the pretty seekers after beauty will remark. 'How shall we who are 'just girls' learn to use our hands with grace?'

"First," said Dorothy Gish, "you must observe others and find where the other girl is graceful and where she is awkward. Then you must observe yourself after you have taken your deep breathing exercise in the morning, take a little time to perfect yourself in grace. If possible stand before a long mirror and practice moving your hands to fix your hair, to hold a book, to put on your hat, to clasp and unclasp them while talking, to make the every-day gestures when talking. Do this until it becomes second nature to you and you will soon be called the girl with the beautiful hands."

AT THE JEFFERSON.

Betty Nansen, the renowned tragedienne of the Theater Royal of Copenhagen, and the actress who has played before more crowned heads than any other entertainer in the history of the drama, reaches the very pinnacle of her dramatic powers in this latest of her screen appearances, "Should a Mother Tell," which is seen at the Jefferson today. What Miss Nansen has done in her Fox appearances, "A Woman's Resurrection," "Anna Karenina" and "A Celebrated Scandal," holds no parallel to what she accomplishes in this picture classic, a drama of such tremendous force, such gripping, holding appeal that the onlooker sits in a daze of unwavering wonderment throughout the six magnificent acts.

AT THE TEMPLE.

IN CONSTANT DANGER.

Breathless and anxious eyed the remainder of the members of the Payeen Stock company gather in the wings at every performance of "Pals," to watch the greatlight scene in which Mr. Irving Dillon, as Jim Graham, a wronged husband, struggles to the death with J. O. Collins, as Ned Brumley, the interloper. These two young men, wrought up to a high pitch by the excitement of their roles and the enthusiasm of the audiences, go into this pitched battle in which every bit of movable furniture on the stage is employed as a missle with a vicious abandonment that keeps them in constant danger and everyone else on the anxious seat. A slight miscalculation and a big vase might find a resting place on somebody's forehead, instead of against a mirror or a chandelier. It would not be the first time that a stage fight became so real to the participants that one or the other was injured.

The struggle is the result of Graham's finding that his pal has violated his friendship by making love to the young and fascinating Mrs. Graham. After the fight in which Brumley is pitched headlong from a stairway, Ned and his wife become reconciled and peace and happiness reigns. The drama is altogether one of the best things the Payeen Players have done.

IN THE CHURCHES

Rev. John Biedermann of Sheldon Ordained 25 Years Ago.

Rev. John Biedermann, pastor of St. Aloysius Catholic church at Sheldon, was ordained to the holy priesthood twenty-five years ago, July 20, and in observance of this event he will celebrate his silver jubilee next Tuesday. Although Father Biedermann has been spending the past three weeks at a sanitarium at Rome City, plans have been progressing very nicely and everything is in readiness for the event.

Solemn high mass will be celebrated at 10 o'clock in the morning. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. H. F. Joseph Kroll, of Fort Wayne. After the morning services Father Biedermann will be host at a banquet dinner for the priests of the Fort Wayne deanery.

Church Notes.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Third Presbyterian church will hold an important meeting with Mrs. Edward Montgomery, 2601 South Calhoun street, Friday, at 2:45 p. m.

Mrs. Q. M. Hildebrand will entertain Mrs. D. L. Harding's Sunday school class of Wayne Street M. E. church at her home, 1710 Broadway, Friday afternoon. Those who will assist are Mesdames Melton, Renchler and Diffendorfer.

The South Side Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church meets at Swinney park July 16 at 10:30 o'clock for an all day picnic.

All arrangements have been completed for the ice cream social to be given Thursday evening at St. John Reformed church lawn. The young men's Bible class is giving the affair.

DRINK BUTS MONKEY IN CELL.

New York, July 15.—The latest addition to the Central park zoo, a monkey, named Sally, was placed in the primate house, having been brought here for imprisonment, according to Head Keeper Bill Snyder, because of an appetite for alcoholic drinks, which made her dangerous to the business of her mistress' husband—operating a beer garden in North Bergen, N. J.

The name of the mistress who brought Sally to the zoo is Mrs. John Sohnker. Sally, according to Mrs. Sohnker, so Bill Snyder says, fell into evil ways about a year ago. Since then she has on frequent occasions broken into the bar and refreshed herself. Mrs. Sohnker's husband has borne the raids in patience. The night before Memorial day, however, when all was ready for the holiday rush, Sally went too far. Mrs. Sohnker's husband's preparations were sadly disarrayed and there was a large bill for broken glass. Then Mrs. Sohnker's husband put his foot down firmly. Hence the gift to the zoo.

Sophie Schauls

Back to the days of our grandmothers and great-grandmothers designers of modes frequently go for fashion ideas, but Mme. Alla Ripley is probably the first of the modistes to borrow a fashion idea from GRANDFATHER, and a cravat as dignified and prim as the "neckpiece" worn by Henry Clay is a noticeable feature of a recently designed evening wrap.

Miss Sophie Schauls, who is sometimes called "America's most beautiful mannikin," was the first to introduce the new evening wrap to the public and it is now one of the most popular models of the season.

Supple black satin, lined with pearl white satin is used to develop the wrap, which is really a shawl, as it falls in long graceful folds from the neck band to the hem of the skirt.

Have You Seen Oliver Osborne? He Vanished and is Much Wanted

The Mysteriously Missing "Greek God" Who Figured in $50,000 Breach of Promise Suit Must Be a Wonder.

If you should see him, grab him and if possible hold him till you can notify the federal circuit court of New York city.

For he is wanted here by the lawyers, David and Maxwell Slade, now on trial for conspiracy to obstruct justice, and wanted by James W. Osborne, one of New York's most distinguished attorneys who is known as the "bull dog of the bar" and who caused the prosecution of the Slade brothers because of their actions in behalf of their client, Rae Tanzer.

Surely you remember Rae, the little factory girl who brought a $50,000 breach of promise suit against James W., thinking him Oliver Osborne, who she claims made love to her promising marriage.

Oliver is wanted by Rae Tanzer herself and by her sisters who identified James W. as Oliver, the "plumber Don Juan," and then recanted the identification before the grand jury.

"He is a fine upstanding figure of a man," James W. testified about his false friend. "He is about 5 feet 11 inches high and weighs about 200 pounds. He is straight and handsome, well dressed and vigorous with a straight nose and blue eyes."

No wonder that the tiny Tanzer girl fell for Oliver! Little Rae, the factory girl, still the central figure in the comedy of the two Osbornes is only about five feet tall.

No wonder that the federal district attorney possesses love letters written by Oliver to six other girls, all of whom admit that he won their young affections! A Greek god! A young viking is Oliver Osborne. And yet this paragon has vanished completely from the face of the earth!

Where is Oliver Osborne? Where are the snows of yester-year? That is what Martin W. Littleton, counsel for the Slade brothers, wants to know and he has made the court room ring with his demands that the vanished Oliver reappear.

This year's greatest legal battle of wits in New York city took place when Martin Littleton cross-examined James W. Osborne for eight hours in the hope of eliciting more information as to Oliver.

She wants her Oliver. Rae Tanzer, New York factory girl, who sued James W. Osborne, famous lawyer, for breach of promise, thinking he was "her Oliver."

But all he got was a reiteration from James W. of the original fascinating tale of Oliver's brief materialization in the Osborne apartment in the Sherman square hotel just after news of Rae Tanzer's breach of promise suit had been made public.

Prior to this time James W. Osborne had received several letters from Rae Tanzer, whom he had never seen demanding that he marry her. Then the Slade brothers telephoned him and they also demanded that he wed their client notwithstanding the fact that James W. Osborne has a handsome wife of his own who accompanies him every day to the present trial.

"Oliver Osborne told me," James W. testified, "that he was the man that had been running around with Rae Tanzer. He showed me a letter from her and said that he had three more. I almost put my arms around his neck I was so glad to see him when he said he was the man wanted, and that he came to me because he did not think it fair I should have to suffer for something I never did. He gave me his address in Boston. I thanked him. My wife thanked him. He promised to return next day with more letters from Rae Tanzer. But I never saw him again."

ARE MERELY GIVEN NEW INTERPRETATION

Women Have Changed Little Since Solomon, She Declares.

San Francisco, July 3.—"Woman has changed but little since the days of Solomon," declares Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, special investigator for Uncle Sam's immigration department at the world's fair here and also for the San Diego exposition. "Probably the only difference is that she has been given a new interpretation."

Mrs. Barrett was commissioned last year by the immigration department to tour Europe for the purpose of becoming acquainted with the immigrant before he leave his native land. She maintains that never before has a government given such a sympathetic personal touch to its work.

"The department is trying to humanize the law by co-operating with the various national organizations of aliens, and inducing them to present the cases of their countrymen, with all the mitigating circumstances of tradition, creed or conceptions," she said.

"The alien woman is at present, notwithstanding all the work of the department, at a terrible disadvantage."

Mrs. Barrett claims that while there are any number of national societies for alien men, there are practically none for women.

Mrs. Barrett is the only woman member of the Rotary club in the world. With President Roosevelt and President Taft she was made an honorary member last year. She believes that America will bring about an apotheosis of business through the ideals of this and kindred organizations.

"All progress has been upon a foundation of business, and it is wrong that a stigma attaches to the word commercialism."

OFFICIAL FORECASTS.

For Fort Wayne and vicinity: Tonight and Friday, partly cloudy; probably thundershowers.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The pressure is high over the east gulf states and northern plateau region and an area of low pressure overlies the western plains region, with the principal storm center in eastern Colorado and western Kansas. Showers have attended this distribution of pressure over quite a large area from the upper Ohio valley and lake region northwestward to Montana and the Canadian northwest. Local showers have also occurred in the southeast, St. Lawrence valley and north Pacific states. Temperatures are low for the season on the western slope of the Rockies but in eastern sections practically normal temperature conditions prevail. Except in a few localities temperature changes have not been important since yesterday morning.

Unsettled weather conditions obtain in northern sections to the east of the Rocky mountains, and in this connection the weather in this vicinity will be generally partly cloudy, with probably thundershowers tonight and Friday. The changes in temperature will not be great.

Bobby Shealy, 15, a schoolboy, just beginning to wear long trousers, is after the western golf championship, held by the famous Chick Evans, who has played in many matches in the United States and England.

The boy will represent the Garfield Golf club of Chicago in the Western association tournament to start July 19 at Cleveland, O., and will be pitted against some of the most seasoned players in the country. He will be the youngest player who ever teed off in a western meet.

Shealy is a boost for municipal golf courses.

He is a public course player. The club he represents is composed of men and youngsters who work for a living and play golf when they can snatch a little spare time. Some have to get up at 4 o'clock in the morning to get a chance on the Garfield park links.

These members have "chipped in" to pay the boy's expenses to the big tournament.

Shealy began playing golf about five years ago. He went to Garfield park occasionally, and, like other youngsters, came into possession of a golf stick discarded by some player.

With this stick the lad began batting a ball about the course. From time to time he came into possession of other cast-off sticks and began to play the entire course instead of just driving a ball around.

He became enthusiastic, earned some money and bought a few clubs himself.

Then he began to enter tournaments. He played in three this year and won three championships in two weeks. He won the interscholastic title, competed for by school pupils, the Cook county junior title, and the Cook county open championship, competed for by the stars of Chicago and surrounding cities. One by one the boy disposed of experienced players, some of them twice as old as himself.

Shealy still plays with some of the cast-off sticks he picked up on the course. He is particularly fond of a driver he was given and will use it in the big tournament at Cleveland.

Shealy has never competed against such an array of stars as he will face in the big meet, but he has nerve. Members of his club are confident he will make a good showing and will "chip in" to send him to other tournaments.

THREE-I LEAGUERS RESCUE SPECTATORS.

Decatur, Ill., July 15.—Members of the Decatur and Rockford clubs of the Three-I league yesterday rescued a score of persons buried when, just as the game started a miniature tornado blew off the roof of the grandstand. None of the spectators was seriously injured. The grandstand was wrecked.

Trustee Henry P. Scherer, of Wayne township, and his deputies, are now sending out dog tax notices to delinquents, and if they are not paid within ten days from the date of receiving the notification, the owners will be prosecuted.

MYERS PULLED DONLEY TO SAVE HIS LIFE

If Bade Myers had held Donley in the box and risked it yesterday, what would have happened? So ask the fans who saw the game. The big heaver was on the verge of heat prostration when the manager jerked him after he had given Anderson two balls in the eighth, and Hart was sent in, but it was all off then and the newcomer couldn't hold out in the least.

But it was a good game even if Wheeling did make it 8 and 7 over our favorites. The first inning was scoreless. In the second the visitors made one and the Cubs came back, Bratchi doubling, going to third on Hartle's out and scoring on a fumble of Brubaker's roller.

In the third there was no scoring but Wheeling came back in the fourth, only to be tied up by the locals in the fifth. Hartle and Brubaker hit infield and Hartle went home on Beyer's hit. In the sixth Wheeling got one more and Fort Wayne piled up three. Brant walked and went to second on Sheehan's out and came home on Holderman's long drive to center. Bratchi singled and Hartle helped them down a base with an out, Brubaker hitting a long one that scored two.

In the seventh Wheeling got another and it was plainly visible that Donley was slipping due to his terrible grind in the heat. The big fellow worked so hard that the men on the bench were worried, and Myers hated to see him drop in his tracks. So in the eighth he pulled him out and sent in Hart. Four runs piled up for the Smokes in this frame, winning their game for them. Fort Wayne tried hard to come back. In the eighth Brant singled but was forced out by Sheehan, who took third on Bratchi's single. Sheehan scored on a wild pitch. In the ninth Brubaker doubled and Beyers went out, Hart walked and Smyth hit, scoring Brubaker and advancing Hart to second. Sheehan singled and Hart went out at the plate. Score:

NO-HIT, NO-RUN GAME.

Providence, R. I., July 15.—Joe Oeschger, the former Philadelphia pitcher, pitched a no-hit, no-run game for Providence against Toronto in the International league series yesterday. Providence won by only one run and Oeschger scored that tally.

FEDS TO INVADE NEW TERRITORY

Chicago, July 15.—New territory will be invaded by the federal league next season, it was announced today by James A. Gilmore, president of the organization in confirming the report that the league's headquarters will be moved from Chicago to New York city within the next two weeks.

Plans are being made, Gilmore admitted, for a new circuit in 1916, and that clubs may be launched in Detroit, Boston or Cleveland. It already has been decided upon, he said, to place a club in New York city. Whether it would be the Newark club that is to be transferred to New York the Federal league executive declined to say. The decision to transfer the league's headquarters to New York came as a surprise, as no intimation had been given of the change. Chicago was the birthplace of the organization, and it was assumed that its official base would remain here.

"The transfer is dictated by necessity alone "President Gilmore explained. "We are going to place a club in New York city next year, and as this will entail a lot of additional work for this office I thought it best to move there.

"As it was organized baseball that questioned our right to be called a major league we will try to correct any impression to the contrary next year when we get our new circuit into operation. It seems to be the impression that no league can be a major without New York, so we intend to satisfy organized ball in that regard."

President Gilmore asserted that the financial condition of the league was never in better shape.

"What is a loss, say $25,000 a year for each club?" he said.

"We are willing to stand that for three years or so, and then some."

CHAMPION WILD MAN.

Bruno Haas Passes Sixteen Men in One Game.

Bruno Haas, the former Worcester academy pitcher, who signed with the Athletics, has set a new American league record for issuing bases on balls.

He passed sixteen New York Yankees in one game.

It is believed Billy George, once a Giant, and Ed Reulbach are tied for the major league record. Each gave seventeen bases in one game. Reulbach won his game. He held the opposing team, Boston, to three hits. George lost his to Anson's Colts. That was in 1897.

Davidson, then of Newark, is believed the wildest man, as he gave Buffalo twenty bases on balls in one game.

The wildest game recorded was that pitched by Sy Seymour and Eddie Doheny against Chicago at the Polo grounds in 1896. Or perhaps it was 1895. Seymour gave fourteen bases and hit two men, Doheny finishing up, gave nine passes and hit three men.

Another freak of pitching was the first inning of a game between Chicago and St. Louis in 1909. Chicago drew four passes and made five runs in the first inning. In the last half of that inning Cole, Richie and Reulbach gave eight passes and hit a man.

St. Louis made five runs before hitting the ball at all, and got eight in the inning. Then the game settled down and was hard fought to the finish.

DEFIANCE OFFICIALS LOOK AT FORT WAYNE

Headed by Mayor W. A. Schmaltz, of that city, a party of municipal officials of Defiance, Ohio, spent Thursday in Fort Wayne inspecting street paving, the public water supply and other matters in Fort Wayne. They were the guests of Messrs. Kelly, Singrey and Hilgemann, of the board of works, and had for their cicerone in going about town former City Comptroller August M. Schmidt. In the visiting party besides Mayor Schmaltz were Director of Public Works C. M. Bath, Director of Public Safety J. E. Nolan, Clerk of Public Service Fred Wolsiffer, City Councilmen R. L. Watson and C. J. Slusser and Jacob Baltes, a former citizen of Fort Wayne, who now resides in Defiance. The special object of the visit was to gain information on street paving. Defiance is about to put down about $90,000 worth of street improvements and the fame of Fort Wayne's modern thoroughfares of various types led the party to this city for knowledge. Defiance is also having trouble with its water supply and information was sought on that subject here. The party were shown through the city hall and took much interest in Detective Joseph Brennan's bureau of criminal identification, to which office they were conducted by Chief of Police Lenz. Later the party was driven to the municipal light and power plant, to the waterworks stations and to the city parks. All the visitors commented on municipal progress in Fort Wayne.

CALHOUN STREET PAVING UP.

The main feature of the Thursday evening meeting of the board of works will be the hearing on the resolution to pave Calhoun street from McKinnie avenue to a point 922 feet south. This improvement is specially desired by the promoters of Lafayette Place addition and the promoters of the Harrison Hill addition, both of which interests own the property on both sides of the street for the distance proposed for improvement and will pay the cost of it. There are but three resident property owners on the street and they will have the power of decision. All of them, however, favor the improvement. The board will also confirm assessment rolls for two or three alley improvements.

WILL TRY MOTOR AMBULANCE.

The police department will experiment with a motorcycle ambulance that is the invention of Edward Sigl, of Fort Wayne, and is manufactured by the Sigl-Flex Company of America. It consists of a side car that can be adjusted to any motorcycle and in this car one person can be carried. The motorcycle can be equipped with a tandem seat to carry a physician. It is thought that for calls where great emergency exists and much speed is required the car will be found available.

TAKEN AFTER FOUR ASSAULTS.

Allies Storm Turkish Positions in Dardanelles.

London, July 15.—German forces again are active in the region north of Warsaw, causing military observers to believe that a drive at the Polish capital from that direction may be imminent. The Russians admit a German offensive has begun in one sector, where a Russian force retired to its second line positions. Apparently the same operations, however, was alluded to in the most recent German official statement as resulting in "local successes."

The German drive at the French lines in the Argonne forest region has been followed by attempts on the part of the French to regain lost ground. The latest report from Paris claims partial success in the effort.

Two hills defending Krithia on the Gallipoli peninsula were occupied by the troops of the entente allies after four assaults on Monday last, according to Athens advices received in London. Constantinople, reporting on the same engagements, says that allied attacks, in which warships supported the troops, were repulsed with heavy losses.

Paris, July 15.—(2:35 p. m.)—The French war office gave out the following today on the progress of hostilities:

"Activity during the night in the region to the north of Arras was quite diversified. To the south of the Chateau de Cserlieu we seized a line of German trenches. Around Neuville, Saint Vaast and the Labyrinth there was hand grenade fighting.

"In the Argone the fighting was circumscribed within the region situated to the west of the forest, where we had progressed yesterday. To the north of the Servon road, after a series of counter attacks, the Germans succeeded in regaining a foothold in the Beaurain woods. In the rest of this sector there was no change in the situation.

"Between Fey-en-Haye and the forest of Le Pretre an attempt of the enemy to sally from his trenches was immediately halted by a curtain or artillery fire and the fire of our infantry."

STRIKE THREAT AT KRUPP WORKS

Geneva, Switzerland, July 15.—A report has reached Basel that a big strike is threatened at the Krupp works at Essen, Germany, the movement being headed by the Union of Metallurgical Workers, and the Association of Mechanics. They demand higher wages because of the cost of living and shorter hours because of the great strain under which they work, the report says.

The workmen, according to these advices, are in an angry mood and threaten the destruction of machinery unless their demands are granted immediately, as they have been put off for three months with promises. The advices add that several high officials have arrived at the Krupp works in an effort to straighten out matters and calm the workers and that Bertha Krupp is expected to visit the plant and use her great influence with the workers.

The Frankfort Gazette, according to the news reaching Basel, has warned the administration of the Krupp plant of the seriousness of the situation and has advised that the men's demands be granted.

Meanwhile, the report states, several regiments have been moved to the vicinity of the works in the event of a strike resulting.

the submarine met a steamer bound westward without a flag and with no neutral marking on her free board, about 35 nautical miles west of Fastnet Rock. No appliance of any kind for the illumination of the flag or markings was to be seen. In the twilight, which had already set in, the name of the steamer was not visible from the submarine. Since the commander of the submarine was obliged to assume from his wide experience in the area of maritime war that only English steamers, and no neutral steamers traversed this war area without flag and markings, he attacked the vessel with a torpedo, in the conviction that he had an enemy vessel before him.

" 'Some time after the shot the commander saw that the vessel had in the meantime hoisted the American flag. As a consequence he, of course, refrained from any further attack. Since the vessel remained afloat he had no occasion to concern himself further with the boat, which had been launched.

" 'It results from this without a doubt that the attack on the steamer Nebraskan was not meant for the American flag, nor is it traceable to any fault on the part of the commander of the German submarine, but is to be considered an unfortunate accident. The German government expresses its regret at the occurrence to the government of the United States of America and declares its readiness to make compensation for the damage thereby sustained by American citizens.' "

The Official Report.

The official report of the attack forwarded by Ambassador Page after investigation by Lieut. John H. Towers, naval attache of the embassy, stated that the Nebraskan was in water ballast outbound from Liverpool for Delaware Breakwater, and that although her flag had been hauled down just after sunset, as is the custom, there were painted on her sides in letters six feet high, the words "Nebraskan, New York."

After the attack the ship headed about for Liverpool and convoyed by British ships, reached the port safely. No one was seriously hurt in the explosion which caused some doubt whether the ship did not strike a mine. American naval officers, however, finally came to the conclusion that it was a torpedo.

The Nebraskan case, coming close on the sinking of the Lusitania and coupled with the attack on the Gulflight threatened to become one of the important issues in the controversy with Germany over submarine warfare. There were some circumstances which made the case complex. The Nebraskan had been under charter to the White Star line of the International Mercantile marine but the charter had been cancelled and she was returning home to carry coal from Newport News to the California coast for the United States navy. With her sister ship, the Minnesota, from May to August of 1914, she had been under charter to the United States as an army transport carrying horses from Galveston to Vera Cruz. She was one of the first ships to go through the Panama canal.

Prepares Note to Britain.

Difficulties of American meat packers with Great Britain over the detention of their cargoes to neutral countries will be taken up by the state department in a note to the British government, it was said today.

The packers, who have appealed to the Washington government to demand that Great Britain stop interfering with their cargoes consigned to neutral ports and settle for $14,000,000 worth of their products now held up in prize courts, continued their conference with state department officials today. They charge the British government with the destruction of commerce in food products between the United States and other countries. In a statement outlining their case as submitted to the department, the packers assert that the British government purposely delays settlement of their claims for seized cargoes and that they are not inclined to reopen trade with neutral countries unless they can be assured of delivery of their ships to ports designated.

The American note to Great Britain which, it was said, would be sent immediately, will deal specifically with the complaint of the packers. The general subject of interference with neutral trade under the British Order in Council will form the subject of another communication to Great Britain.

Hive No. 6, Woman's Benefit Association of Maccabees, held their regular tea on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ida Shelley, 1906 Fairfield avenue. Mrs. Sarah Barnes and Mrs. Florence Sack were assistant hostesses with Mrs. Shelley. In a contest that caused much merriment prizes were won by Mrs. Alma Albright and Mrs. Louisa Hilgeman. This was the first tea held under the new name as the hive was formerly the L. O. T. M. The next tea will be held on July 28 with Mrs. Mary Schlatter, of 601 Poplar street. Mrs. Mary Fox will be the assistant hostess.

FRANK'S CLAIM CONTESTED.

Although Mendal Frank, 1420 Hanna street, is a young great grandfather, he is not the youngest in Indiana. E. L. Harvey, a farmer living near Banquo, Ind., claims that distinction. Mr. Harvey says he was a great grandfather one week after he was fifty-nine years old. If he lives until next Christmas he will be sixty-two and Howard King Ham, his great grandson, will be three years old on New Year's day.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE MEETS.

At a meeting of the membership committee of the Commercial club, Thursday afternoon, action was taken on sixteen applications. A business meeting of the board of directors of the club will be held Friday at noon.

ARSENIC IN BONBONS SENT WOMAN BY MAIL.

Indianapolis, July 15.—Chemists in the state laboratories today found large quantities of arsenic in bonbons taken to the office yesterday by Mrs. Lillian Ball, employe of a local hotel. Mrs. Ball said she received the candy through the mails. She said she had received anonymous letters warning her to sever her relations with an Indianapolis man. It is said that the postal authorities will investigate the case.

WIFE GETS DIVORCE FROM JAMES J. WOOD

On a cross-complaint Mrs. Helen Baker Wood, wife of James J. Wood, general manager of the Fort Wayne Electric works and prominent in both hemispheres as an electrical inventor, was granted a divorce by Judge Yaple in the superior court. Terms of the settlement, which was made in private, were not given out by attorneys for the principals to the action. Mr. Wood was not in court and was present only by counsel, S. L. Morris, of the firm of Barrett, Morris & Hoffman, his counsel, appearing for him. Mrs. Wood was represented by Leonard, Rose & Zollars. Her cross-complaints alleged cruel and inhuman treatment and in her testimony she declared that for two years or more Mr. Wood had refused to be a husband to her, had declined to go out with her, had said he was ashamed of her and had applied opprobrious epithets to her. She also testified that he had wished her to get a divorce, on one occasion offering her $10,000 to do so and in a later instance $20,000. These overtures, she said, she had declined, hoping to continue to live with him, as she desired, as his wife, but that finally the situation became unbearable. Some months ago Mr. Wood applied for a divorce in the superior court, and to this a cross-complaint was filed. It is understood that the settlement provided for payments to the wife in excess of $20,000.

Notes of the Courts.

John N. Pfeiffer has brought suit in the circuit court on appeal from the Fort Wayne board of park commissioners to set aside an assessment of $2,676.65 against his property for the opening and widening of Rudisill and Anthony boulevards, for which a resolution was adopted last November and the assessment roll was confirmed June 29. He alleges that the assessment is too high and that the board failed to assess other property that will be benefited.

The Indiana Paint and Varnish company has brought suit in the superior court against Anna R. McGuire to foreclose a mechanic's lien, demanding $75.

In the divorce suit of Alice Treuchet vs. Louis Treuchet, the defendant was been cited to appear July 20 in the superior court and show cause for failing to obey the court's order to make certain payments.

GUNBOATS FOR RESCUE WORK.

Wilmington and Callao to Aid Flood Victims in China.

Washington, July 15. The gunboats Wilmington and Callao, of the Asiatic squadron, are rushing from Honk Kong to the scene of recent floods in China for "urgent rescue" work. Commander Huff, of the Wilmington, cabled today that the Callao is bound for West river and the Wilmington for Canton.

PORTLAND TURNS OUT.

Magnificent Ovation Given Liberty Bell In Oregon.

Portland, Ore., July 15.—For four hours an unbroken stream of people passed around the liberty bell here today. A din of whistles and bells signalled the arrival of the relic on its journey to San Francisco. The celebration included also a parade of school children and military organizations.

TAKES PRECAUTIONS AGAINST SUBMARINES

New York, July 15.—As a protection against gunfire from submarines, a shelter of sand-filled bags was piled along the decks of the White Star line steamship Baltic that sailed today for Liverpool with 314 passengers and a full cargo, a part of which consisted of ammunition and war supplies. Unusual precautions were taken by steamship officials to protect the Baltic prior to her sailing.

While cases of ammunition, five by seven feet, swung from the long arms of cranes on the pier to the vessel's hold, special agents stopped and opened every bit of luggage taken aboard. Not a grip or a trunk escaped inspection. The big cases of ammunition contained, it was estimated, 30,000 rounds of small arm cartridges apiece. Other cases, it was understood, contained shells. Twenty or more aeroplanes also were hoisted aboard. When the Baltic pulled out she was loaded down to 34 feet, the deepest draught the law allows.

BICKNELL IN WASHINGTON.

American Red Cross Director Home From the War Zone.

Washington, July 15.—Ernest P. Bicknell, national director of the American Red Cross, who has been directing the Rockefeller foundation activities throughout the European war zone and returned here today, says a German inventory of food supply in Germany, shows no shortage, present or prospective; that in Serbia, where there is much destitution, there is considerable food shortage, but conditions are improving and the situation is encouraging generally throughout the war aera.

SEEKING EDISON'S VIEWS.

Daniels Goes to West Orange to Confer Wiah Wizard.

Washington, July 15.—With the departure today of Secretary Daniels for West Orange, N. J., to confer with Thomas A. Edison in regard to the proposed navy bureau of invention and the civilian advisory board naval officials looked forward to an announcement to follow the conference. The secretary will seek the views of Mr. Edison about some of the men to be invited to join the advisory board. Pending the conference, however, Mr. Daniels will not make known the names of other possible board members.

DENIAL FROM LIVERPOOL.

Washington, July 15.—Denial of published reports that a German submarine used the American bark Normandy as a screen from which to sink the Russian steamer Leo was cabled to the state department today by the American consul at Liverpool. The captain of the Normandy specifically denied the report. The bark was stopped by the submarine but allowed to proceed with some of the Leo's crew.

JITNEY BOAT THE LATEST.

Evansville Man First in Line With the Innovation.

Evansville, Ind., July 14.—The first "jitney boat" has appeared in Evansville, and probably marks an innovation for the whole country. T. S. Gates, of Evansville, has bought the launch Nomadis, which recently returned from a trip to the Gulf of Mexico. The boat will hold forty people. It will be put in service here, operating "jitney" excursions on the river from Sunset park.

WATCH DROPPED FROM TRAIN IS RETURNED

The remarkable efficiency of the Pennsylvania right of way guard is demonstrated in the case of C. C. Weimer, which has just been cleared up by the company. Weimer is a mail clerk on Pennsylvania passenger train No. 21, and on June 25 he was working near the door of the mail car as the train was running at a forty mile clip a short distance east of Fort Wayne.

In handling some sacks he stepped close to the door and his watch caught on something and was pulled out of his pocket. He watched for the number of the next mile post, and when he completed his run he reported his loss to the officials.

The section foreman in the stretch of track indicated was notified and he had his section men and track walkers on the lookout for it, with the result that it was found within a short time. The watch had stopped at 12:36, the same moment it stopped traveling, and the hands were broken and the whole thing badly jammed up. It was returned to him today.

EMPLOYES GREET VETERAN.

Richmond, Ind., July 15.—Col. John F. Miller, of this city, one of the most prominent railroad men in the country and formerly general superintendent of the southwest system of the Pennsylvania railroad, has just returned from a visit with a friend near Hartford City, making the trip by way of Bradford Junction, O., and receiving an ovation from former subordinates at every place where his special train stopped. Since his retirement from active service the private car he designed and used for many years has been kept at Columbus, O., subject to his orders, but the first time he has used it for a number of years was on the trip just concluded. Delegations of railroad men met Col. Miller at almost every station on the route and extended congratulations to him. He has been in ill health for several years, being confined to his home most of the time, but he is now enjoying more robust health.

CEDAR POINT EXCURSION.

Everything is ready for the big picnic to Cedar Point, to be cared for and chaperoned by the employes of the Fort Wayne Printing company, and the ticket committee reports that a thousand pasteboards have been sold. And what's better still, the committee has the cash.

The affair will be the largest taken to Cedar Point out of this city since the palmy days of the Electro-Tech excursions, when all Fort Wayne bought bananas and sandwiches and went.

NICKEL PLATE INSTRUCTION.

The Nickel Plate had considerable military movement last night. MAY TAKE KIDDIES FOR AN AUTO RIDE

Van B. Perrine, president of the Commercial club, and Austin W. Stults expected to go to the Allen county orphans' home late Thursday afternoon to arrange with the superintendent of that institution for the distribution of approximately $250 realized from the benefit performance recently given by the Payeen Stock company at the Temple theater.

Arrangements will be made to show the "kiddies" a good time with the money. They will probably be taken for an automobile ride and will be privileged to spend the money for candy, dolls, ice cream and in any manner they see fit. Mr. Perrine believes that in this way the children will better appreciate the money realized than if it was donated to the institution.

Treasury Department to Build According to Needs of Towns.

Washington, July 15.—The treasury department hereafter will construct postoffices and other federal buildings in accordance with the needs and importance of places where they are situated instead of spending all that the congress appropriates. It long has been a criticism that unimportant places often got expensive federal buildings out of proportion to their needs. In some instances expensive postoffices have been built in towns where the postal receipts were not sufficient to sustain them.

Postoffices, Assistant Secretary Newton announced today, will be considered in four classes: Those having receipts of more than $800,000 a year; those having between $60,000 and $800,000; those having from $15,000 to $60,000, and those below $15,000.

By following the same plan on acquiring sites the department, on 136 purchases, spent $500,000 less than the congress authorized.

MUNCIE TO LOSE LANDMARK.

Muncie, Ind., July 15.—The last of the old landmarks of Muncie, erected here when the town was only an Indian trading post, with perhaps 200 or 300 inhabitants, will disappear with the tearing down, within a few days, of what once was known as the old Coffern residence, the first frame building ever erected in Muncie. Surrounded by high buildings and directly across from the court house, in the business center, the old structure, which was erected in 1833, has held its place, oblivious of the march of time and of progress. And now after having been beaten on by the storms and snows of eighty-two years, the lumber in the old house is still good, and the walnut foundation timbers appear as if new. As the foundation is of logs, the building was found to be too heavy to be removed and must be torn down.

For many years the structure has been used as a feed store by its owner, Jesse H. Williamson. It will make way for a modern three-story business block to be erected by Mr. Williamson and his son, Cole Williamson, the latter being the treasurer of Delaware county.

FATHER OVERPOWERS SON.

In Alleged Attack, Parent Holds Boy for Marshal.

Anderson, Ind., July 15.—Floyd Anderson, age twenty-four, was arrested at the home of his parents near Lapel and was taken to the Hamilton county jail to await the outcome of injuries to his father, Fletcher Anderson. It is alleged that Floyd attacked his father on Sunday when the latter refused to give the young man money. Fletcher Anderson was resting in bed when it is alleged his son hit him. The elder Anderson leaped from the bad and grabbed his son. They struggled on the floor until the young man was overpowered by his father and held until the town marshal arrived from Lapel. In the Madison circuit court last week Floyd was acquitted of a charge of burglary after a trial of four days. He was accused of being involved in a theft of $50 at Lapel. Immediately after his acquittal young Anderson, who laid his arrest to drink, made a profession of reform, saying he would never again cause trouble.

COURT HOLDS HAYES GLASS NOT GUILTY

Judge Hoffman Says He Did Not Assault Mrs. Jessie Lawrence.

After a hearing that consumed most of the forenoon in the city court Special Judge John C. Hoffman rendered a finding acquitting Hayes Glass, 345 West Creighton avenue, of assault and battery on Mrs. Jessie Lawrence, wife of C. F. Lawrence, 339 West Creighton avenue. The trial was mainly interesting as showing a previously disturbed state of affairs among some of the residents of the west end of the Creighton avenue square between Webster street and Hoagland avenue and many of the people of that neighborhood were present either as witnesses or spectators at the trial.

The assault of which Mr. Glass was accused is said to have taken place Saturday evening, July 10, at the home of the Lawrences. Mr. Glass called at the Lawrence home with a letter that had been written by Mr. Lawrence to a neighbor, George D. Baxter, in which there was an impersonal reference to another neighbor, which Mr. Glass took as meaning himself. He called to see about it. Mr. Glass admitted on the witness stand that when he went to the Lawrence home he was angry and meant to chastise Mr. Lawrence. He utterly denied that he had touched Mrs. Lawrence. The testimony for the prosecution was equally positive as given by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence and their colored maid that Mr. Glass had struck Mrs. Lawrence in the breast, reopening the granulated wound where an operation had been performed for goitre, June 15, causing some hemorrhage and subjecting Mrs. Lawrence to a nervous collapse. It was clearly indicated that feeling between Glass and Lawrence was at the bottom of the trouble, the former tesifying that Mrs. Lawrence is a lady whom he greatly respects and there is "nothing the matter with her except her husband," a statement that the court ordered stricken out. Dr. Philip S. Titus testified that since the episode at the Lawrence home Mrs. Lawrence's condition had been aggravated. Mr. Glass admitted that he struck at Mr. Lawrence, but did not know whether or not he hit him, and Mr. Lawrence said that after Mr. Glass had called him a "dirty cur" and a worse name, he lunged at him. Then it was that Mrs. Glass came into the reception hall of their home and spoke to Mr. Glass and when Mr. Glass was alleged to have called Mrs. Lawrence a liar and struck at her. Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Stephen A. Callahan appeared for the state and Guy Colerick and Frank M. Hogan were counsel for Mr. Glass.

Both Prosecutor Callahan and Attorney Colerick made caustic references in their arguments to the conditions shown to have existed in the neighborhood where the trouble occurred. In summing up the case, Judge Hoffman said that he did not believe that if Mr. Glass, who is a giant in stature and strength, had dealt Mrs. Lawrence a blow, as was alleged, she would be able to appear in court. He reached a conclusion that in the excitement of the exchange of blows between Mr. Glass and Mr. Lawrence the prosecuting witness and his wife got the impression that Mrs. Lawrence was struck. Mr. Glass during his examination stated that he was willing to plead guilty to assault and battery on Mr. Lawrence. Judge Kerr, who until a short time ago had resided in the neighborhood where the trouble occurred, declined to preside in the case and appointed Attorney John C. Hoffman as special judge to hear it.

Big Mob of Vags in Court.

Nineteen men, the occupants of two hobo camps along the Wabash railway, near the St. Mary's river, were arraigned in the city court Thursday morning on vagrancy charges. They were captured in raids made early Wednesday evening, following complaints that residents of the southwest part of the city were being much annoyed. Lieutenant Harry Grimme, Detective Sergeants Spillner and Junk, Stationmaster Joe Degitz and Motorcycle Officer Dan Kintz made the arrests. The men were not a bad looking lot, most of them being young and many of them fairly well dressed. Some pleaded guilty and some did not. All of them had stories of looking for work and of having gone out to the river either to wash their faces, soak their feet or launder their faces, soak their feet or launder loose, some were continued until Friday, some until Saturday and still others until Monday.

Other City Court Cases.

Louis Fortier, an aged man, was drunk and begging on the streets and was arrested. Judge Kerr fined him $1 and costs.

The case against Nettie Smith, charged with prostitution, a case that had been on the docket for some time, was further continued.

REVOLVERS STOLEN.

A sneak thief entered the second-hand store of Abe Franklin, 1404 Calhoun street, Wednesday afternoon, while the proprietor was standing in front, and stole two revolvers of 22-calibre.

CADESSIA GROTTO'S OFFICERS INSTALLED

Harold M. Harter, of Toledo, grand captain of the guard of the supreme council of Mystic Order of Veiled Prophets of the Enchanted Realm, an organization composed of Master Masons, on Wednesday evening delivered to Cadessia grotton No. 50, of Fort Wayne, its charter granted at the Buffalo meeting of the supreme council last month, and also installed the first charter officers of the local grotto. There was a large attendance of prophets at the meeting despite the furious storm of the early evening, and there was much interest in the proceedings. A smoker and social time were features of the evening. Cadessia grotto unanimously elected Grand Captain of the Guard Harter an honorary member and adopted resolutions of appreciation for his efforts in getting the Fort Wayne organization started. Some applications for membership were voted upon favorably and further steps were taken looking to the organization of a grotto patrol or drill team. The first summer outing of the grotto will be held Sunday, July 25, at either Blue lake or Shriner lake. The trip will be made in automobiles.

GERMAN CLAIMS NOW COUNTERED BY PARIS

London, July 15.—From Athens comes a report of a substantial advance made by the Anglo-French forces against the Krithia-Achi Baba line but since so many wild rumors have originated in the Grecian capital this is received with reserve until officially confirmed.

The latest Paris communication counters the claims of German success in the Argonne region with the report that the French have set foot at several points in the German trenches on the road to Marc Therese and that the French are making progress in their attacks beyond the Servon road to the west of the forest of Argonne.

On the eastern front nothing approaching a decisive action has been reported in a fortnight. The Germans, however, again are showing activity in the region between the rivers Niemen and the Vistula where they have attacked in force, making an advance along one section from which the Russians retired to their second line.

All these signs point to a new German drive toward Warsaw from the east Prussian frontier, but it is believed by military observers here that the Russians have sufficient forces in this direction to oppose formidable resistance.

It is expected that the period of quiescence will be ended by an attack on the Austro-Germans towards the river Bug.

Service on the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company's line was badly demoralized Thursday as the result of the damage done by the wind storm Wednesday night. Several poles were blown down between Boyd park and Pern. There were five breaks on the Lafayette division and three breaks on the Bluffton division in the high tension wire, resulting in all cars running several hours late. The car due here at 7:35 a. m. from Lafayette, arrived at 10:05 a. m.

More damage has been done by storms this year to the property of the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company than in many years.

Special Service.

Announcement has been made by Samuel W. Greenland, general manager of the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company, that special service will be provided on all the city lines Saturday and Sunday morning to accommodate persons who go to Cedar Point on the excursion. The first section of the excursion will leave at 5:30 o'clock and the last section will not return until 12:30 Sunday morning. Special service also will be provided Saturday on all the city lines on account of Ringling Brothers' circus. If the weather is favorable the largest crowd of the year is expected in Fort Wayne from all sections of northwestern Indiana and northwestern Ohio.

LIGONIER DOCTOR CITED TO APPEAR

Indianapolis, July 15. The state board of medical registration and examination at a meeting yesterday in the state house considered the question of revoking the license of a woman physician of Indianapolis on the ground that she had been rendered incompetent by the drug habit. The board continued the case indefinitely upon a showing that the physician has discontinued the use of the drug and that she believes herself cured.

The board, on complaint of A. J. Locher, issued a citation to Dr. Louis P. Weinberg, of Ligonier, to appear Aug. 11 and show cause why his license should not be revoked. Dr. Weinberg was convicted recently in the federal court at Chicago on a charge of violating the Mann "white slave" act. Locher, who filed the complaint, is the father of the 17-year-old girl the Ligonier physician is alleged to have taken to Chicago.

TWO CITIES TIED BY CAR STRIKES

Pawtucket, R. I., July 15.—Street car service in this city was suspended completely today as a result of the strike of the employes of the Rhode Island company. Hundreds of motor buses filled to capacity carried factory employes to their work.

Providence, R. I., July 15.—A reduced trolley car service was in effect in this city today as a result of the strike declared by 2,400 union employes of the Rhode Island company at midnight. The cars in operation were manned by non-union motormen and conductors. Up to 8 a. m. there was no disorder.

PARADE IS CLIMAX OF ELKS' MEETING

Los Angeles, Calif., July 15.—The annual parade of Elk lodges was to bring to a climax today the entertainment and business of the 1915 reunion of Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks here. Newly elected officers were to be installed at the closing session.

Many of the visitors plan to leave late today for San Diego to attend the Panama-California exposition. Friday having been designated as Elk day at the southern city.

Baltimore captured the 1916 convention from Atlanta after a hard fight.

Work is Begun on Field Museum Structure at Chicago.

Chicago, July 15.—Construction work on the new $5,000,000 Field Museum of Natural History, which is to be built on Chicago's lake front, just south of Twelfth street, began today after twelve years of planning and negotiations. The structure will be completed in less than three years, according to plans. More than 3,000 men will be employed in the work. When finished it will be the largest marble building in the world and one of the largest museums. It will consist of three stories and a basement and will cover an area of 700x350 feet or approximately four down town city blocks.

The floor area of the museum will be 670,000 square feet, of which 400,000 square feet will be devoted to exhibition purposes. The remainder will be used for scientific laboratories, lecture halls, offices and a restaurant. The late Marshall Field gave a total of $9,500,000 for the building and endowment fund of the museum.

St. Louis, Mo., in 1914, built fifty-one factories and twenty-six office buildings.

China has an area of a million and a half square miles and a population of 300,000,000.

SORELY WOUNDED, BUT SAVED FROM DEATH BY GERMAN RED CROSS DOG.

BY W. H. DURBOROUGH.
(Copyright, 1915, by the Newspaper Enterprise association.)

Berlin, Germany, July 15.—I think I never kicked a dog and now I know that I never will. I'll never sneer when I hear a dog called "the friend of man." He is all that.

Few things are more interesting to me in my automobile tour along the German fronts than the Red Cross dogs. I see many of these dogs in camp and at work.

One day I took my camera and went out to see a Red Cross dog on rescue duty. One of the pictures I send you was taken on this trip.

This dog had found the wounded soldier among the bushes near the front. He knew his duty and running back he met my two-legged Red Cross companion and by his behavior quickly told us that the latter's services were needed. We followed and came upon the victim after a quarter of a mile's walk.

The German Red Cross officers tell me that the records will show that thousands and thousands of wounded soldiers have been saved who would have died of their wounds, but for these dogs. The Berlin papers told the other day of a dog which saved nearly 100 soldiers in one night. Unfortunately I could not get his picture for you.

Germany has a regular society of Red Cross dogs. It is headed by the grand duke of Oldenburg. Over 500 of the animals were all ready for the work when the war broke out, but many more have been trained, and are now in training. There are about 2,000 dogs at the front today.

It takes about two months to train a dog properly for battlefield work. The trainers keep a dog at it every day for several hours a day. He is first taught to be instantly obedient to the commands of his Red Cross master. At a word or a sign he will lay flat, or jump, or dash off in the direction indicated by the finger. He is trained to go to certain points in the fastest possible time and return in the fastest possible time. The inclination of a dog to loiter or become attracted by this, that or the other thing is worked out of him to a remarkable extent.

He is taught to take food only from his Red Cross master from nobody else under any circumstances. This is a severe test for any dog. But it is necessary because many an untrained, hungry dog would take a bit of food out of a feeble man's hand.

Some of the dogs merely track soldiers in nearby thickets or ravines. These dogs carry no burdens, but instantly attract Red Cross men by barking or running back. Other dogs that travel afar in search of wounded sometimes five to ten or fifteen miles—carry regular kits on their backs. The outside of the kit is a blanket and in it are bandages, flasks of water and wine, and a little food. Very often a wounded man can unfasten the kit and care for himself and for more desperately wounded men lying about him.

Most of the dogs have learned to work under fire like veteran soldiers and a good many have themselves been wounded or killed.

TRI-ANNUAL MEETING OF DENTAL COTERIE

Many visiting dentists attended the second tri-annual meeting of the Isaac Knapp dental coteric held in the Lincoln Life building Wednesday.

The meeting opened with an exhibitors' clinic followed by an exhibition of artificial roots and methods of implantation by Dr. E. J. Greenfield, of Wichita, Kansas. Other numbers on the program were as follows:

"Demonstrations of McKesson Mitrous Oxide and Oxygen Apparatus," Dr. E. L. McKesson, Toledo, Ohio.

"Manipulations of the de Tricy's Synthetic Porcelain," Dr. M. A. Mason, Fort Wayne.

NINE FOREIGNERS TESTIFY AT INQUEST

Further testimony will be heard at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the inquest being conducted by Coroner Edward H. Kruse into the deaths of Tony Ciangola and Alonzo Paolleo, the two Italian laborers who were overcome by carbonic gas some days ago in a trench being dug for the North Wayne sewer.

Dr. Kruse heard the testimony of nine foreigners Wednesday afternoon, all of whom testified that Hal Miller, foreman for the Moellering Construction company, in charge of the job, had ordered the men into the ditch. One foreigner testified that Ciangola was ordered into the pit to bring up the tools at the bottom after it was known that there was gas in it.

C. E. Moellering, head of the company, says that one hour and a half before the accident occurred gas was discovered in the hole and the men were sent to another trench to work. Ciangola may have misunderstood the foreman's order as he could not understand English very well. The foreman did send him for a tamping tool, the testimony shows, but he had no other thought but that he would go to the toolhouse for one and not descend into the trench.

Paolleo, who went into the trench to rescue his fellow countryman, was warned not to go down without a rope about him. He did not heed the warning.

Forecast of Board of Arbitration's Finding is Made Public.

Chicago, July 15. The 14,000 employes of Chicago's street car systems, who recently tied up the city's transportation facilities with a two days' strike, will be granted a wage increase and a two year contract instead of three, according to a story published in the Chicago Tribune today. The award of the board of arbitration, which for three weeks heard testimony from company officials and the employes on the issue, will be made public tomorrow, the paper says.

All classes of men in the service of the companies will be granted a horizontal raise in wages from the start. The maximum wage will be not less than 35 cents per hour, and probably 36 cents, the Tribune says. The maximum wage received now is 32 cents an hour. The term of the graded scale has been shortened but its length has not been fully decided, it was said.

The award will establish in Chicago the highest wages for street car men in the country.

Superintendent J. N. Study in Biennial Report of State Department of Public Instruction Recounts Progress Since 1896.

In the twenty-seventh biennial report just issued by the state department of public instruction, J. N. Study, superintendent of the schools of Fort Wayne, has an article telling what has been done in the schools of this city. The early history of the schools is taken from a historical sketch on "Early Education in Fort Wayne," written by Dr. John S. Irwin, a school trustee from 1865 to 1875, and superintendent of the city schools from 1875 to 1896.

"In 1896 Dr. Irwin, after the long and faithful service of ten years as trustee and twenty-one years as superintendent, retired as superintendent of schools, and J. N. Study, who at that time was superintendent of schools at Richmond, Ind., was appointed superintendent.

School Plant Rebuilt.

"Within this administration almost the whole school plant has been rebuilt, and a number of additional schools erected to meet the needs occasioned by the steady growth of the city. The Lakeside and the South Wayne schools—under contract in 1896—were opened for school early in 1897. Since then extensive additions have been made to five schools, the new high and manual training school has been built; two township schools annexed to the city—one of six rooms and one of four rooms; four old buildings have been torn down and replaced by new buildings, much larger, and constructed in accordance with the best modern ideas of school architecture and sanitation; a fifth old building, the Harmar, has this year been razed, and a new building of sixteen class rooms, with offices, auditorium, gymnasium, manual training rooms, domestic science and art rooms provided, is now under construction. Four buildings on new sites have been built.

"In almost all cases additional grounds were purchased when buildings were rebuilt, and extensive purchases of real estate for playground purposes and future building sites have been made. But three buildings of the plant as it was in 1896 remain, and one of these, the Clay, was new at that time, having been erected to take the place of the old Clay school destroyed by fire. Thus practically the school plant is new and modern in all respects. In all this building the aim of the school authorities has been to bring the school to the children—especially the younger ones. A single school to a single building has been the rule. The belief has been that the child is better for having some definite room in the school that he can consider his own; some seat in the school room that he can consider his own while he belongs to that room. All the newer buildings are provided with auditoriums, gymnasiums, rest and recitation rooms, rooms for the teaching of manual training work, and domestic science. A policy of concentration, however, has been followed in the upper grades in order that the seventh and eighth-grade buildings may be reduced in number and the advantages of departmental work be enjoyed.

Course of Study Changed.

"The course of study has been changed and enlarged from time to time to meet the changing conditions and the demands for new subjects, in the curriculum, drawing, music, physical culture—all under trained specialists. Manual training in all its phases with extensive equipment has been added, not only in the high school, but also in the grades.

"The city normal school was re-established in 1897 with a course of one year's professional work. This course was soon extended to one year and a half, and some years ago made a full two years' course of professional work, with practice teaching. No beginning teacher is admitted into the elementary schools of Fort Wayne unless such teacher shall have had two years of normal school work after high school graduation.

"The general assembly of Indiana having entrusted the management of public playgrounds to the school board, the board has taken over all the playgrounds already established and has provided new ones. The last summer there were in operation under the school board seven playgrounds open to the public. The supervisors of these playgrounds were all regular teachers who had been trained in physical culture work. School gardens have also been established in connection with some of the schools and home gardening has been encouraged. The past summer a special supervisor of school and home gardens was employed with very favorable results.

Vocational Education.

"A year before the vocational school law took effect a small day vocational school was established, and the current year the school has been enlarged by additional equipment and a larger number of teachers. Classes have been formed in carpentry, wood-turning, cabinet making, and printing for boys; and cooking, sewing embracing dressmaking and millinery—for girls. These day pupils spend one-half their time in academic work, correlated with the shop work, and one-half in the shops, and in cooking and sewing rooms. The school is organized under the law as a separate school.

Evening School.

"Evening classes for factory girls principally were established also a year before the law became operative. The Women's College club furnished a number of teachers for various branches without pay, and to this club is due the credit of the inception of the enterprise. The board furnished the instructors in cooking, sewing, dressmaking and millinery. The success was so great that the arrangement has been continued the present year, but enlarged by the board furnishing instruction in mechanical drawing to a large class of men. Classes in English for foreigners have been organized and taught both years by volunteer teachers furnished by the college club. The school has aimed to appeal to those especially needing instruction in evening schools."

ARRESTS HIS TWO RESCUERS.

Policeman, Almost Ground to Death, Holds Saviours as Pickpockets.

New York, July 13.—Detective Patrick Ryan, of Newark police headquarters, had a narrow escape from being killed while racing after a trolley carrying two men whom he suspected of being professional pickpockets.

A man had reported the theft of a pocketbook while on a car. The detective gave chase after two suspects. He managed to grasp the rear end of the car, and was being dragged along when the men whom he later put under arrest pulled him aboard, saving him from being thrown under the rear trucks.

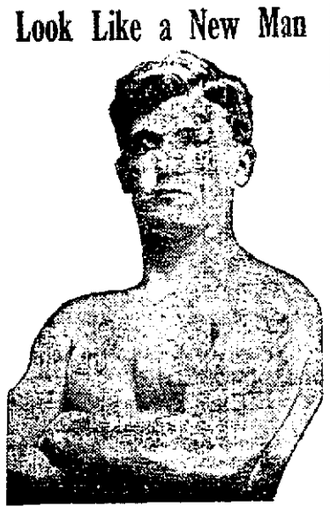
But Now My Name Has Changed. Gained 15 Pounds and

Look Like a New Man



A PLUMP, STRONG, ROBUST BODY

"Before I took Sargol people used to call me 'skinny' but now my name is changed. My whole body is stout. Have gained 15 pounds and am gaining yet. I look like a new man," declared a man who had just finished the Sargol treatment.

"I was all run down to the very bottom," writes F. Gagnon. "I had to quit work, I was so weak. Now, thanks to Sargol, I look like a new man. I gained 22 pounds in 23 days."

"Sargol has put 10 pounds on me in 14 days," states W. O. Roberts. "It has made me sleep well, enjoy what I ate and enabled me to work with interest and pleasure."

Would you too, like to quickly put from 10 to 30 pounds of good, solid "stay-there" flesh, fat and muscular tissue between your skin and bones?

More than half a million thin men and women have gladly made the test, and that Sargol does succeed, does make thin folks fat even where all else has failed, is best proved by the tremendous business we have done. No drastic diet, flesh creams, massage, oils or emulsions, but a simple, harmless home treatment.

Meyer Bros. Drug Co., Dreier Drug Co., D. & N. Pharmacy The Family Drug Co. and other leading druggists in Fort Wayne and vicinity sell Sargol in large boxes—forty tablets to a package—on a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

FOOD SUPPLY IN AUSTRIA BETTER

Vienna, June 25.—Correspondence of the Associated Press.—Although Austria has no fear of an insufficient harvest, and although conditions even now are improving to such an extent that the notably bad bread is being rapidly bettered, plans are already being considered for confiscating the 1915 harvest of wheat of various kinds to avoid high prices superinduced by speculation.

It is proposed to create, from the present war flour control commission, a state organization, into whose hands the entire confiscated crop would be delivered, and whose members would divide the flour evenly and equably. The farmers are not at all averse to the confiscation of the crop and the establishment of a uniform price for their product, but they oppose the central organization plan, and prefer that the flour pass into the control of the district commissions. It is only the members of the produce associations and bourses who oppose the confiscation and uniform price ideas.

Even though maximum prices were established by the government this year, they have been disregarded by the speculators, who have paid 60 kronen for flour that was supposed to sell for 40.50. How the speculation has worked out is shown in the case of lentils and beans which had no maximum price and which today cost 110 heller as against 28 to 40 heller after the last harvest.

CITY TAKES NO CHANCES.

Evansville, Ind., July 15.—To safeguard the monthly pay roll of the police and fire departments, William Richardt, deputy city controller, took four stalwart policemen to the City National bank at Main and Second streets, with him the other afternoon. The policemen remained at the entrance of the bank while Richardt went in and got the money. When he appeared at the door, the officers formed around him and marched to the city hall, two blocks away. Pedestrians supposed Richardt was under arrest for an attempted bank robbery. The pay roll amounts to $8,000 and the city was taking no chances. Richardt was roll clerk in the 1911 session of the Indiana house of representatives under Speaker Albert J. Veneman.

To one who has always been accustomed to look at the world of the circus from the outside in, a glimpse from the inside out brings many surprises.

Novelists who have chosen the circus life for depiction in stories have found it a fruitful field. Back of the curtain, the glamour, and the hoop-la of the ring, there is a world of real humanity. Most of the performers are from families which have followed the circus from the time it began to amuse men, and they have learned to preserve the home ties in circusville as sacredly as they are preserved outside.

"It is hard to make the person outside understand that we have a real home life, close, sympathetic and protecting," said a veteran of the road, who is always found with his wife and children when the big show is over in the afternoon. "Most of us who follow the show business were born to it. Our fathers and mothers were performers. When we married we took girls who, like us, were born into the guild. We are training our children to take part in small acts just as we were trained. That is the way the profession is kept up."

Showmen say that all star performers who are featured today got the essentials of physical training when they were children. No man who has attained manhood without training as a performer breaks into the business. His muscles must be trained before they harden

Circus Father Is Teacher.

In changeable America it is the exception if the son of a lawyer or of a doctor follows his father's profession. But the son or daughter of a circus performer is always a performer. This is practically the only field from which the circus manager can recruit his forces, and the circus fathers and mothers are the only parents who have the necessary knowledge and the inclination to train their children in circus "stunts" while they are growing.

With Ringling Brothers' circus coming to Fort Wayne on Saturday, there are 400 performers, gathered from every part of the world. They speak nineteen languages. During the season they use a total of 6,000 costumes, all of which are cared for by Mrs. George Hartzell, "the little mother of the circus." She is always motherly and tender, and is the first to rejoice with her girls over a new triumph, or to sympathize with them when they fail. Her husband and her son are clowns.

Own Their Homes.

As is the case with the Hartzells, most of these performers travel in families. They are able to preserve their family life in all its sacredness even under the trying circumstances of the circus season. They have laid by neat sums of money which they have invested in homes where they spend their winters. It was this steadfastness of the home ties, together with the true human hearts found under the grease and paint of the performer, which first attracted Hallie Ermine Rives and other novelists to portray circus life.

OSSIAN NEWS.

Ossian, Ind., July 15.—Mrs. J. B. Ady returned home last evening from Fort Wayne, where she had been visiting in the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Valentine.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chalfant and daughters, Vivian and Margaret, of Garrett, came Tuesday for a several days' visit with Mr. Chalfant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Chalfant.

SAYS ALASKA OFFERS INDEPENDENCE FOR WOMEN WITH HEALTH AND NERVE.

San Francisco, July 15. "Chances for women in Alaska?" said Mrs. Mary E. Hart. "Why, bless your heart—yes! Lots of chances to win independence as well as contentment, if they have health and a moderate amount of grit."

As president of the Alaska Cruise club and hostess of the Pacific Coast Steamship company's Alaska exhibit here, Mrs. Hart is daily asked by women what chance they have of making good in the far north.

"Grit, faith and self-confidence they must have," she resumed, slipping a fur parka over a resplendent reception gown which instantly transformed her from the urbane woman of soft conventions to the "Sourdough" of many hazardous adventures.

"I went to Alaska years ago just as many women are now going—seeking adventure and to earn a living," she resumed.

"I worked with my hands beside the men, mining. For three seasons I panned gold at Anvil, wielding pick and shovel and washing gravel.

"My husband—who was then too sick to work—and I had a 'lay' on a good claim. I saved $18 a day by doing the work of a mine foreman and cook at the same time, since I would have had to pay out that much for a boss and a cook.

"I must add caution to the other requisites for success in tackling pioneer tasks in the northland. Lack of it nearly cost me my life.

"In taking out gold-bearing gravel I had disregarded the warning of old miners never to dig under the heavy overhang of slate and surface rock. Many a 'chechako' had lost his life in such a manner.

"I saw the glint of raw gold, and burrowed in my excitement like a Malamute dog. Suddenly I heard warning cries, and sprawled backward just in time to escape burial under an avalanche of loosened shale. As it was, I was covered to the neck in rock and earth, so that it took the miners some time to release me."

Mrs. Hart has acquired and sold a number of claims, accumulating a respectable fortune through her own efforts. She is vice president of the Pacific Coast Women's Press association and a writer and lecturer of note.

"Grit, health and caution—a woman as well as a man can do wonderful things with this equipment in Alaska, a land of almost untouched possibilities," she concluded.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, July 15.—Although wheat at the start today showed a tendency to decline, prices quickly recovered. The failure of Liverpool quotations to reflect in full the sharp advances here, led at first to a good deal of selling. After opening ¼c to 1⅛c lower, the market underwent a further sag and then rose in some cases slightly above last night's level.

Closing prices were unsettled at ¾c to 1⅜c net decline.

Corn swayed with wheat. The opening, which ranged from the same as last night to ⅝c down, was followed by an additional decline and later a complete rally.

The close was nervous, ¾c to 1¼c under last night.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, July 15.—War shares gave promise of greater activity and higher prices at the opening of today's trading. Gains of one to almost two points were registered by Bethlehem Steel, Crucible Steel, Westinghouse, General Motors and Baldwin Locomotive, with a new high record for the latter. In the more representative issues yesterday's irregularity was renewed, Southern Pacific displaying marked heaviness. Canadian Pacific also reflected further pressure, despite its substantial gain in the London market, where other international stocks were variably lower. The reactions from early prices were general before the end of the half hour.

Southern Pacific extended its loss to almost two points and declines of one to two points were made by Great Northern and New Haven before fresh buying rallied the list in the second hour. Bethlehem Steel, with an overnight gain of eight points, made a new record, likewise Westinghouse and Willys Overland. American Smelting and National Lead rose two and one and one-half points respectively, but other metal shares made little headway. Bonds were irregular.

ROBBERS' CAVE IS FOUND.

Many Stolen Articles Unearthed on Farm Near Evansville.

BOYS' DAY WAS A BIG SUCCESS

Wednesday was the very best Boys' Day Manager C. H. Williams, of Robison park, ever pulled off. Hundreds of youngsters in costume headed by the State School band, were in line in the dress parade, and the athletic contests attracted a great many more. Tom Pion, of Huntertown will be known to all who pass him for a day or two by the very distinct odor of vasoline, and it was he who reached the very top of the greased pole and pulled down a beautiful gun metal watch.

A thousand pennies were scattered through the crowd at one time and that there were no fatalities may be chalked up to the grinning little luck god who watches over small boys. Three thousand candy eggs, a hundred baseballs, a hundred masks and gloves and jewelry galore were distributed.

Chicago, July 15.—Four years ago the love story of Myrtle Reed, the author, who had immortalized her husband, James Sydney McCullough, in prose and verse, came to a tragic end when she committed suicide in "Paradise Flat," her Kenmore avenue apartment. During the five years of her married life her "model husband," as she called McCullough was believed to have furnished the inspiration for "Lavender and Old Lace," "The Master's Violin," and other love stories from her pen.

Mystery shrouded her death and an effort was made to hush up the suggestion that she was convinced that her husband no longer loved her. A note addressed to her aged mother was never made public.

Yesterday in Circuit Judge Windes' court her father, Hiram V. Reed, sought to have McCullough deposed as trustee of her estate of about $91,000. Negligence and misapplication of funds were charged. Mr. Reed's attorney planned to show that Mrs. McCullough expected to change her will before she committed suicide.

Mysterious Letter Presented.

What purported to be the mysterious note was offered in evidence. It was typewritten and only two words of script appeared in it. Judge Windes ruled that it was not sufficiently identified and rejected it as evidence. The offered note reads in part:

"Dearest Mother: After five years of torment I have set myself free. I suppose you'll think it's cowardly, but I cannot help it. I cannot bear it any longer. Last night was the twelfth anniversary of our meeting. He was to come home early and bring me some flowers, and instead of that he came home at half past 1 so drunk he couldn't stand up."

"Last year my birthday and the anniversary of our engagement were the same way. This morning he went out of town without even waking me up to say good-by to me or telling me where he was going or when he would be back. All I asked of him was that he should come home sober at half-past 6 as other men do, but he refuses to give me even this. I am crushed, overwhelmed, drowned. Forgive me, please. With love always. MYRTLE."

"Long Story," Says McCullough.

McCullough was out of the city at the time of his wife's death. Upon his return he said that she had probably taken her life while mentally unbalanced.

"Have you any comment to make on the letter written by your wife to her mother?" he was asked yesterday.

"O, I could tell you a long story if I wanted to," said he, carelessly. "There's nothing to it at all. I could show you worse letters than that. I doubt if she ever wrote it anyways. There is no proof. To understand this matter you must know that my wife's father and her brother have been fighting to get control over her estate. They didn't get enough to satisfy them under the will."

Although Judge Windes refused to depose McCullough as administrator, he ordered him to make a definite report, setting forth the condition of the property, with a list of all disbursements. Further, he directed that McCullough should report from time to time as the court might direct and ordered him to give a permanent bond of $50,000. The court said that the trustee's conduct had been improper.

OPEN BIDS TONIGHT.

The bids for the building of the church edifice of Trinity German Lutheran church in Bloomingdale will be opened Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in Architect J. M. E. Riedel's office and the contract will be awarded to the lowest bidder.

The Ladies' Moose circle will give a public euchre party at the home of Mrs. Folger, 2717 South Lafayette street, Friday evening.

Aurora, Ill., July 15.—"If it's a case of gall stones a snappy little jig step would be soothing to the patient who becomes restive under the knife; but when a leg's to be sawed off"—here the doctor paused to consider a program suitable under the circumstances. "Well, I wouldn't play a march, nor yet a tango, but something sentimental such as 'I didn't raise my boy to be a soldier.'"

Thus is another burden laid upon the shoulders of the family doctor—science having discovered that ragtime helps the patient to forget the saw and knife, the surgeon must prepare music as well as antiseptics, for his victim.

Dr. W. P. Sherman, who has installed a phonograph in the operating room of St. Joseph's hospital declares "The canned music may not make a fellow forget pain, but it routs the blues and helps him to pluck up again even if he is minus a leg or his appendix."

Sixteen cases against the Continental Sugar Beet company, of Woodburn, brought by former employes for back wages alleged to be due, which were to have been heard Thursday in the court of Justice of the Peace Henry J. Grabner, have been continued.
